OXFORD VICTOR.

The Great Athletic Contest Between the Universities of Old England and New England Today.

A Cold, Gusty Wind Was Blowing and Rain Fell at Intervals, Preventing Fast Time.

There Was Great Enthusiasm Amongst British Sportsmen Generally and Crowds Were in Attendance.

The English Athletes Proved to be the Best and Carried Off the Championship Honors.

QUEEN'S CLUB GROUNDS, LONDON,
July 16.—The weather today was anything but promising for a satisfactory athletic contest between the universities of Old England and New England. A cold, gusty wind was blowing all the morning, it was raining at intervals and the grounds looked sodden and likely to prevent fast time being made or records being broken.

The main pavilion looked gloomy and unhappy as streams of rain were marring its dark blue decoration and drenching the American and English flags which graced the structure. But no amount of bad weather could dampen the enthusiasm of the people, and long before the hour fixed upon for the first event the vast majority of the 5000 people expected to witness the struggle for athletic supremacy between Yale and Oxford had crowded into the grounds.

It is probable that no event of recent years in the history of English athletics has attracted half the interest which centered today in the contests on the grounds of the Queen's club. The champion university team of England was to meet the champion university team of America, and this was sufficient to cause the wildest enthusiasm among sportsmen generally throughout the British Isles.

In spite of the rain, it is hoped that the track will be in good condition before the first event is called at 4:30 p. m. The secretary of the Queen's club at that noon carefully examined the track and informed the Associated Press correspondent that it would be in good condition by the time the athletes were ready to use it. At the best, however, the grounds cannot be favorable for the Americans or for lowering records.

The general opinion seems to be that Yale will win the majority of the events. The members of both teams are reported to be in good condition and an exciting contest is hoped for. The Yale team arrived at the grounds at 4 p. m. and went immediately to their dressing rooms and were soon being rubbed down by the trainers.

The Oxford men had been on the ground some time before this, and when the handlers were through with the Yale athletes the teams were photographed in a group. The hundreds of umbrellas which were open on all sides made the crowd dreary and sober in color, and in fact, cast an aspect of gloom over the entire surroundings in spite of the music which the band furnished, in order to cheer up the assembly of much-dampened athletic enthusiasts.

By 4:20 p. m. the grounds were only about two-thirds full. Many of the ladies, however, were present, and their dark blue colorings, which they were sympathetic with Oxford, but there were also a number of ladies present whose display of the light blue colors of Yale showed that the fair sex of America tended to do its utmost to encourage the young athletes of Yale.

The royal box was filled with ambassadors, ministers, etc., including the Siamese minister, who takes the most lively interest in athletic sports. The United States ambassador, Mr. Bayard and Mrs. Bayard, Bishop Potter and all the secretaries of the United States embassy were conspicuous in a group which was surrounded by the foreign representatives, who were in sympathy with the Yale men. By this time the rain had ceased, but the weather continued threatening.

The officials selected for today's games were: Referee, H. Beardsall, president Northern Counties association; judges, J. S. Greig, an old Cambridge athlete, and C. Herbert, secretary London Amateur association; starter, Mr. Wilkinson, of Sheffield, official starter of the Sheffield professional handicaps; timers, S. K. Holman and W. M. Barnard, London Athletic club, and N. Perry, the intervarsity timer; stewards, C. N. Jackson and Montague Sherman for Oxford, and C. H. Sherrill and M. Van Ingen for Yale.

Try, of Oxford, won the 100-yard dash by a foot and a half to a yard in 10:2-5. Jordan, of Oxford, was second, and Pond, of Yale, was third.

Hickok, Yale, in the hammer throwing, threw the hammer 110 feet 5 inches on his fourth throw, and won. Brown, of Yale, was second, with 101 feet. Robinson, of Oxford, was third, with 101 feet 10 inches.

In the 120-yard hurdle race Oxford won. Oakley, Oxford, was first, and Hatch, Yale, was second. Cady, Yale, fell at the last hurdle. The time was 16:2-5 sec, which is 1-5 sec faster than Oakley ever ran this distance before. The score now stands: Yale, 1 point; Oxford, 14; Yale, 13. Oxford won the 1-mile run.

The scoring is done as follows: The university team winning a true event, scores five points; three points are scored for either university for a second place in any event and one point is scored by either university for a third place in any event.

The time of the three laps in the mile run was as follows: First lap, 1 m 10 sec; second, 2 m 51 sec; third, 4 m 21-5 sec.

sec. Greenhow was eighty yards ahead of Morgan at this point. Morgan was the only Yale man entered. Hildyard was the second "striding" man entered by Oxford. The latter retired at the end of the third lap. Greenhow led throughout the race. The result of this race was not unexpected, as Morgan's best time is five seconds slower than that of Greenhow.

Yale won the running broad jump. Sheldon, Yale, cleared 27 feet 11 inches. Fry, Oxford, was second, with 22 feet 1 inch to his credit. Oakley, Oxford, was third with 22 feet 1/2 inch. Hatch, Yale, was not recorded.

Oxford won the quarter mile run. Jordan, Oxford, was first in 51 sec; Sanford, Yale, was second. The score now stands: Yale, 23; Oxford, 20 points. Scott, Oxford, got third in the 120-yard hurdle race.

In putting the shot, Yale won. Hickok made a "put" of 11 feet, 7 1/2 inches. Jordan won the race by two yards. Brown was second in the shot-putting. The running high jump resulted in a tie at 5 feet, 8 1/4 inches.

Oxford won the half-mile run with Greenhow. By winning the half-mile run, Oxford secured the necessary number of firsts to give them the championship. Oxford men were first in the 100-yard dash, 120-yard hurdle, one mile run, 40-yard run and half-mile run. Yale secured first place in the hammer throw, shot put and broad jump. The running high jump was a tie.

BAD FIRE AT HINCKLEY.

The Woods and Meadows for Ten Miles Ablaze and the Loss to Farmers is Great.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 16.—A special to the Journal from Hinckley, Minn., says: The woods and meadows from Hinckley to Brown's Hill, ten miles away, are afire. Every precaution is being taken to keep the flames out of Hinckley.

At Mission Creek the John Martin Lumber company's large plant is threatened. The loss to the farmers is already great, and unless rain falls today the damage will be tremendous.

Men in numbers are constantly on the watch and take turns at the fire fighting.

THE BRITANNIA WON AGAIN.

The Prince of Wales' Cutter Snatched Victory
Out of the Jaws of Defeat.

BELFAST, July 16.—For the seventh time the American yacht has been defeated in a race with the prince of Wales' yacht, Britannia. The contest today was an exciting one, and the British cutter plucked victory out of the jaws of defeat after the race had been condition by the time the athletes were ready to use it. At the best, however, the grounds cannot be favorable for the Americans or for lowering records.

GIVEN UP HOPE.

Chairman Heathcote, of the Strikers at Pullman, is Despondent Over the Prospect of Winning.

If Debs Would Declare the General Strike Off, the Pullman Strike Would Also End.

Believed if the Works Open Tomorrow the Old Men Will Rush to Get Their Positions.

Meanwhile Debs Continues to Assert That the American Railway Union Will Win the Strike.

CHICAGO, July 16.—The strike situation at the town of Pullman appears to be growing more serious for the strikers. It is the general opinion that if the works of the Pullman company are opened tomorrow there will be a stampede of the men to regain the old positions. During the last twenty-four hours the attitude of the strikers has undergone a marked change, and where previously they were talking about how the fight was won, today little groups of workmen were talking of how they lost the fight.

W. T. Heathcote, chairman of the strikers, admitted today that he had practically given up hope, the only reason for holding on being that Debs may come to the rescue. He said if Debs would declare the general strike off, the Pullman strike would also be at an end. Chairman Heathcote finds difficulty in keeping the strikers together on account of the diversity of nationalities. The Hollanders, who number about 1200, headed, and the Poles, with equal numbers, who together constitute a majority of the Pullman employees, are anxious to return, regardless of the feelings of the other nationalities.

At the offices of the company, Manager Middleton said that orders to open the shops were expected at any time, but no such word had been received from Mr. Wickes today. He believed the strike was clearing away and that the strikers were hopelessly lost.

DEBS IS STILL HOPEFUL.

He Still Has Confidence the Strikers Will Win.

CHICAGO, July 16.—When Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway union, was seen at the Revere house today, he expressed himself as being still in hopes of winning the strike.

hands of receivers occupy the same position as all others in this strike. The proposition we made to the general managers has been refused; our position is doubly strong in consequence. Renew every effort and carry it out to the finish. There is nothing to be afraid of. We must and will win.

DISHONESTY IN MEXICO.

Heavy Shortages by the Postoffice Officials Discovered.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—The Examiner's special from the City of Mexico says: The official investigation which the government has been conducting the past few days into the postoffice department of the city and other parts of the republic, has revealed a startling condition of affairs, and there will be a wholesale weeding out of the dishonest employees in the service in different parts of Mexico.

It has been supposed that the local postoffice has been systematically robbed of sums of money which in the aggregate amount to over $100,000. The shortage of the postmaster, Manuel Nava, amounts to over $50,000, and that of the cashier of the office to about $4,000.

Six employees of the city postal bureau have also been arrested, the investigation showing that their shortage amounts to a considerable sum, but the exact amount was not made public.

Investigation is being extended to all parts of the republic, with the result already that big shortages have been discovered in no less than three of the large postoffices outside of this city. Postmaster Nava, of this city, is still a fugitive from justice.

EXPLOSION IN CHICAGO.

Three Men Killed and Twelve Injured by Explosion of a Caisson of a Hotchkiss Gun.

CHICAGO, July 16.—A caisson attached to a Hotchkiss gun in charge of Battery F, Second artillery, exploded at 1:30 o'clock today, at the corner of Grand and Oakwood boulevards. Three men were killed and twelve were injured. The dead and injured were taken in charge by the soldiers, and access to the scene of the accident was cut off while surgeons were attending the injured. One of the killed was Gallier, farrier Troop B, Seventh cavalry, of Fort Sheridan.

The other killed and injured were members of Battery F, Second artillery, of Fort Riley, and Troop B, Seventh cavalry, stationed at Fort Sheridan. The caisson and battery were in charge of Capt. Dodd, of the Seventh cavalry, and were proceeding from the lake front to new quarters at Hyde Park.

At Oakwood and Grand boulevards the Hotchkiss gun with its caisson was in the rear of the command, when suddenly the ground shook with a fearful explosion and a burst of flame and smoke shot from the caisson. A storm of bullets flew in every direction. Windows were shattered for blocks around and people walking on the sidewalks were thrown down.

When the smoke cleared eight heavy artillery horses were lying dead on the ground, their carcasses nearly torn to pieces. All around lay dead and wounded men. The brown stone home of Mrs. Devin, at Oakwood and Grand boulevards, was perforated by several bullets which passed through the walls. Glass was shattered and walls and ornaments were torn and broken.

The cause of the explosion is not positively known. It is supposed that a fuse worked loose from one of the cartridges, and the powder ground between the brass shells in the caisson ignited and exploded the mass.

J. Doyle and Donovan, artillery men, are reported dead. Sergt. Liner and Cavalryman Staught and Allen are dangerously wounded.

Later—The following is a list of killed and injured:
The dead—Farrier Gallier, Troop B, Seventh cavalry; Artilleryman Donovan, Battery F, Second artillery; Artilleryman J. Doyle, Battery F, Second artillery.

The injured: Sergeant Liner, Battery F, Second artillery; Private Stoltz, Troop C, Seventh cavalry; Private Allen, Troop C, Seventh cavalry; Private O'Donnell, Troop C, Seventh cavalry; Trumpeter Herbert Andrea, Troop G, Seventh cavalry; Private willie; Private Enke, Troop C, Seventh cavalry; Private Urquhart, Troop G, Seventh cavalry; Sergt. Kane, Troop G, Seventh cavalry, right ear blown off.

Declared Insane.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 16.—The medical commission appointed in the case of Mrs. Lizzie Halliday, who was recently condemned to death at Monticello for the murder of Mrs. McQuillan, has found that she is insane. Governor Flower will now have her committed for life to the state criminal asylum at Matteawan.

One Man Fatally Hurt.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 16.—While a number of laborers were engaged leveling the pit at the glass works today, one of the walls, probably undermined this spring by water, fell. It struck the opposite wall and carried it down also. Michael McCarthy was fatally injured. John Lonagan and Jack George were badly hurt.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill has passed the senate today, after a hard fight, and the District of Columbia appropriation bill was taken up.

Bird Made Best Time.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., July 16.—The 17 1/2 mile road race between Chippewa Falls and this city was won today by E. E. Haskell, of Menomonie, in 65 minutes. The best time was made by B. B. Bird, of St. Paul; 59:42.

Disastrous Cave-in.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., July 16.—Another disastrous cave-in has taken place at Cumberland Gap, Tenn. One man was taken out dead and two are mangled so they will die. Three others are buried alive. All the physicians of the city have been summoned.

Arbitration in Massachusetts.

The Boston Transcript notes a very striking coincidence in the situation at North Woburn, Mass., and the situation at Pullman. In both places the employers declared that it was impossible for them to meet the demands of the disas-tured workmen simply because they could not afford to raise wages, and as a matter of fact they were losing money under the rates of pay in force. But here the resemblance between the Pullman strike and the strike at North Wo-burn ceases, so far as the stand taken by the employers is concerned.

The Pullman officials, though offering a sight of their books, insist that there is nothing to arbitrate, which is equivalent to a refusal to submit the differences between themselves and their employees to arbitration. Per contra, President Dred of the North Woburn Street railway, while declaring that there is no money in operating the road, that the stock holders can save money by letting it lie idle, has notwithstanding expressed his willingness to submit his case to the state board of arbitration for its examination and decision if the striking employees agree upon their side to do the same.

It is expected the men will accept President Dred's offer, and thus the existing difficulties will be settled amicably. But whether such shall be the outcome of the North Woburn strike it is impossible, as the Transcript says, not to mark the superiority of the method pursued in Massachusetts, where arbitration is a state institution, always available without loss of any advantage or dignity on either side in case of a dispute arising. The principle of arbitration has acquired a permanent footing in Massachusetts, and in very many of our large manufacturing establishments there is an agreement, written or tacit, that all differences arising between employer and employed shall, if possible, be settled by the mill superintendent and the authorized representatives of the employees in joint council, and in case no agreement is reached then the matter shall be referred to the state board of arbitration and conciliation. This has worked admirably in establishments where it is in operation; so well, in fact, that in several factories and workshops where no such agreement exists, labor controversies have been referred to the state board upon petition of the two parties.

There seems to be much force in the claim of its supporters that this method is the best possible substitute for compulsory arbitration, and the proper and sensible way to settle difference; without loss of dignity on the part of employers and without loss of wages on the part of the employees, and without the community's loss through stopping of production in lockouts or strikes. The workman is kept at work and the employer keeps faith with his customers by filling their orders on time.

The state board of arbitration came into existence in Massachusetts in 1886, eight years ago, and while it has not prevented the recurrence of labor contests, the normal number of which has materially increased with the multiplication of labor organizations, it has accomplished an immense amount of good directly in settling difficulties, and indirectly in the larger and more important work of educating the people as to the benefits which insepar-ably follow in the line of arbitration.
The Transcript says that the board, no doubt, has proved a disappointment to some of the working people, who expected it would be a sort of annex to the labor organizations and that its prime object was to raise wages. It has naturally had a tendency to discourage those labor leaders who fatten upon contention and adversity; but it has given to the real leaders more influence and power, inasmuch as they are naturally looked to by their fellows to represent them in any controversy that arises with their employers.

Then the board has this special advantage to the working people that its services cost them nothing, whereas private boards are expensive, and the third man is difficult to find. Last year the board's entire expense to the state was $80,80, and it passed upon cases in which the earnings directly affected were $1-65,246, and the total earnings indirectly involved reached the total of $8,637,625.

In addition to the cases reported upon in its reports, the board has been the means of settling a large number of cases that were not regularly brought before it. It might be a good idea to have a similar law passed by the next legislature of Minnesota. Arbitration is the proper method of settling all disputes between employers and employees, when they cannot agree themselves, and if boards similar to the one existing in Massachusetts were created in all the states of the Union the number of needless and expensive strikes would undoubtedly be largely reduced.

Wealth of the Germans.

The Germans have always been noted for being a thrifty people, and a recent report received by Secretary of State Gresham from one of the American diplomatic agents in Germany confirms the popular belief in this regard, as it shows they are piling up wealth in the form of cash and securities that promises to make them of great importance as a creditor nation. The Prussian minister of finance estimates that the people of Prussia have at the present time $7,075-740,000 in stocks, bonds and loans. It is calculated that 25 per cent of the wealth of Germany is invested in stocks and bonds and that this will probably rise to 40 or 50 per cent in the next generation.

Professor Schmoller, a leading authority on economics in the empire, estimates that of the 40,500,000 people who make up the German empire 2,000,000 to 4,000-000 are in receipt of incomes from invested capital, and of these about one half hold public securities. In Prussia, in the last ten years, the deposits in the savings banks are claimed to have augmented about $14,030,000 per annum, and throughout Germany probably $71-100,000 to $95,200,000, from which it is inferred that the German nation is laying up from $147,000,000 to $305,000,000 annually, one-half of which goes into securities. In the last ten years there have been, in the aggregate, about $950,000-000 to $1,100,000,000 worth of foreign and $1,000,000,000 worth of domestic securities put upon the German market.

While the losses of the country from investments in foreign securities have been great, it is argued by Professor Schmoller that they have been amply offset by the profits realized. From 1860 to 1892 the Germans are reckoned to have made $238,000,000 in American and Russian securities alone, independent of all indirect benefits which may have accrued to the general business of the country through the connections made in the handling of such stocks and bonds.
Germany now holds probably $2,350-000,000 worth of foreign securities, which is presumably double what it possessed ten years ago. The interest and dividends on these add about $119,000,000 wealth annually to the country, which must have a great effect on the prosperity of the empire.

The Minneapolis Tribune, referring to the booming for Senator Davis for president, says it is unlikely the Republican candidate will come from the Northwest, but will be selected from one of the pivotal states. Possibly the Tribune may find that Minnesota is a "pivotal state" this year. The last Republican candidate was a resident of one of the old "pivotal states," and did that fact strengthen him there?

Sir Edwin Arnold said the other day that he heartily endorsed a remark once made by Chauncey M. Depew, "Fame depends on being civil to interviewers." Many a man's fame has been made by an interviewer, it is true, but it is equally true that no one who would be uncivil to an interviewer or any other man would ever become famous.

The Republicans of St. Paul have gained control of the assembly, the upper branch of the city council, the supreme court having decided that the city charter is unconstitutional so far as it provides that half of the members of the assembly shall live east of Wabasha street and the other half west of Wa-basha street.

The real cause of all the trouble at Pullman seems to have been the system whereby the rents of the company's houses were not reduced in proportion to the cut in the wages of the men and that the rents were withheld from the amounts due the employees' wages, frequently leaving them with no money to buy food.

The new cruiser Minneapolis has proven herself to be the fastest vessel afloat. The city after which she was named can justly feel proud of her great speed. But wait until the Duluth is built, and then you will see the record broken to pieces.

Since May 1, when it reduced its subscription price, the St. Paul Pioneer Press has gained over $200 in circulation. These figures represent actual paid subscriptions. It is a remarkable record for a period of business depression.

The Minneapolis Times says that many Democrats are talking in favor of fusion with the Populists on governor, believing that Owen can be elected in this way. But how would that benefit the Democratic party?

And now Evan E. Settle, who is one of Col Breckinridge's opponents, confesses that years ago he was a drunkard and a gambler. There seems to be plenty of dirty linen being washed in Kentucky this year.

Another "reformation" on the part of Alonso J. will now be in order. It is really too bad that he will have to begin all over again.

Governor Altgeld seems to have dropped into a state of "innocuous desuetude."

The Summer Campaign.
The summer girl will soon begin her flirtations to display.
Where ocean's tumbling waves roll in
And throw aloft their frothy spray
In suit of serge and ruffled neck
And just adorned with ribbon-bright She'll draw the young men to her foot,
In short, she'll simply kill 'em all.

While shines the sun she'll make her hay
And be in clover, so to speak;
She'll have a dozen of beaux a day,
And to engage six times a week.
—New York Press.

Great is the City of Manchester.
Baltimorean. Manchester's name is well known to Baltimoreans by reason of the great ship canal which between enterprise and nerve built. But that one great work is not all she did or is doing. Here are some of her recent expenditures: Ten millions dollars for a water supply, $5,000,000 for better drainage, $2,500,000 for improved gas works, $750,000 for an electric light plant. The result of all this is Manchester's general prosperity. The canal is the crowning work of all, and the results are marvelous.

Another Dreadful Public Affliction.
New York Tribune. The one-sided "conference" on the tariff bill has begun.
As was expected, the Republicans are to be allowed to have neither part nor lot in it. The Democrats prefer to flock by themselves and to do their work in a corner or, rather, in an obscure room behind lock and key. What goes on there will not be made known, of course;
only the results will be given to the public. The people are getting accustomed to this sort of thing under Democratic auspices, but they don't like it all the same. It's too un-American.

Yes, a Full Lower Double.
Kansas City Journal. For some time to come Mr. Pullman will be likely to give Chicago a wide berth.

Courageous and Popular.
St. Cloud Journal-Press: Mr. Towne, all things considered, is probably the best man the district could have selected, which is a high compliment indeed. He is an attorney of ability and a really brilliant orator. The contest he made at Duluth shows him to be courageous and popular. The same qualities that won for him the nomination will secure his election. He is the representative of no corporation, of no faction, of no ism or ist, but is a representative American, the friend of every honest, loyal citizen, rich or poor.

Getting There.
"Where are you going, my pretty maid?"
"I'm going a-milking, sir," she said.
"Oh, no, you aren't my pretty maid, you're going to be kissed—and you're nearly there."

Always to the Front.
Wadena County Pioneer: L. A. Paddock was a delegate to the State's party convention this week from St. Louis county. L. A. always gets to the front even if he has to go to Duluth to do it.

DETAILED A TRAIN.

Saturday Evening's St. Paul Train on the Omaha track.

What appeared to be the last vestige of effort of extremely hot-headed strikers on the Omaha at Superior at 11:30 Saturday night, a stone wedged in the frog of a switch derailed the 11 o'clock St. Paul train near Belknap avenue crossing at Central park. A week later from Spooner yesterday replaced the engine and baggage car, which were the only parts derailed, and it was found that no damage had resulted beyond the delaying of the train.

As soon as the train was replaced on the track the road was clear, and no further trouble is expected. All trains have been running regularly.

John O'Brien was arrested Saturday afternoon for assaulting a railroad engineer. He climbed upon a switch engine and after a few moments' talk struck a switchman, knocking him from the footboard. He gave as a reason for the assault that the assaulted man had taken his job.

Rumors of prospective tieups on the Great Northern and South Shore roads proved to be groundless. Perhaps some of the men who are now out are attempting to bring such a result about, but in all probability their efforts will be fruitless.

The American Railway union has but a slight organization on the South Shore outside of Superior. The great trouble is not sufficient to cripple the road. It is said that the organizer who went to Gladstone and Escanaba only enlisted one or two men. The alleged cause for the trouble was the South Shore's deficiency in handling boycotted freight.

The Great Northern has been handling freight from all connecting lines without regard to strike or boycott. No strike is in effect on that account, however, and none is expected.

The Omaha commenced taking back those who were laid off on account of the cessation in traffic consequent on the strike, and nearly all the freight clerks and others were reinstated.

The Northern Pacific is also taking back their suspended employees as fast as business warrants. Everything is quiet on all roads.

The force of deputy marshals is being decreased, and all specials will be discharged in a few days, unless there is a revival of the strike.

When Traveling. Whether on pleasure bent, or business, take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. CORNER STONE LAID

That Ceremony in Connection With the Building of the New Cathedral Performed Yesterday Afternoon.

Large Procession Composed of the Various Catholic Societies of the City and Church Members.

Address by Bishop McGlocklin on the Significance of the Ceremony of Laying Corner Stones.

The corner stone of the cathedral of the Sacred Heart was laid with appropriate ceremonies at the corner of Second avenue west and Fourth street yesterday, and the beautiful weather resulted in bringing out a large attendance.

A procession in charge of T. J. Monahan as marshal, marched from Lake avenue west to Piedmont avenue east, thence up to Fourth street and east to the scene of the ceremony.

It consisted of Bishop McGlocklin, priests and attendants, the American band, first division Ancient Order Hibernians, 100 members; society union of St. John the Baptist, seventy-five members; fourth division Ancient Order Hibernians, seventy-eight in line; Catholic club, 150 members; St. Joseph society, seventy in line, and the Polish society, eighty members.

Bishop McGlocklin addressed the large gathering before the ceremonies as follows:

"In Jewish times God's people built monuments and temples where His presence was revealed to them. Christ glorified with beautiful temple at Jerusalem, and wept when he thought that it would soon be razed to the ground. Christians in all ages had houses in which they were honored by the presence of God.

"In peaceful times the European working people built grand temples which are today receiving the admiration of the world. In this country we have also beautiful churches which were built by the working people. The Catholics ago despised people. You worshiped in small, unpretentious churches, which in time gave place to large cathedrals.

"The founding of this new church is but another link in the chain. But in itself it is to be the hub of a wheel from which the spokes of work will go to strengthen the children of the living God. Here you will hear the pure gospel expounded, for there will be no political sermons, and never will your duties as a citizen be interfered with by the priests.

"As we lay the cornerstone of this structure let us remember that Christ is the founder and cornerstone of our church. It has withstood all the scorn and evil sayings of the centuries, always growing stronger in teaching the word of God. It has never known failure, and today has 250,000,000 supporters.

"Soon you will see this monument of your faith, erected by your handiwork, built in your interest. Here your old men will find solace and your children will be baptized. It will be a ballroom of the abode of His living mercies.

Then the stone was laid with the impressive rites of the Roman Catholic church. A sacred copper box containing the names of Archbishop Ireland, Bishop McGlocklin, the priests and parishioners, Grover Cleveland, Governor Nelson, Mayor Lewis, the architect and contractor of the church, copies of The Herald and News Tribune and various United States coins, was placed within the stone.

The mortar was spread, the stone sprinkled with holy water and marked with four crosses, and then lifted into place.

The litany was chanted by the bishop and priests, who then made the circuit of the church, stopping at the place where the altar will stand and blessing the temporary altar, stopping at the other part of the program. Next Monday Mildred Howard, the famous serpent dancer, and Professor George Tyndall, the great hypnotic expert, will be the reigning favorites.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Foreign Capitalists Cannot be Enticed Because of an Empty Treasury.

The chamber of commerce has been asked by the Minneapolis board of trade to entertain a party of foreign capitalists; four in number, who are making a tour of this country. The communication was presented at the meeting on Saturday. The chamber decided that it had no funds to use for entertainment, but the members will individually do all in their power to properly receive the gentlemen.

A resolution relating to the issuance of water bonds and the purchase of the present plant was presented by A. Hirsch, but was tabled for a week.

The resolution favoring compulsory arbitration and presenting other ideas calculated to benefit labor, was presented by Col. Gridley. It was laid over for a week and will be the subject of general discussion at the next meeting.

While a Duluth, Missabe & Northern train was approaching Duluth a few cars ago it ran down and killed a cow caribou which refused to leave the track. This was less than 20 miles from the city. Yesterday another train scared up an enormous black bull moose just out of miles from the city. Moose, caribou and deer are reported as being very plentiful along that line this season.

Officers Installed. The following officers were installed by the Duluth Heights school board at a meeting yesterday. J. Roberts, president; Mrs. K. Kruschka, secretary; Mrs. V. G. Mrs. Casson, secretary; Mrs. Thomas, treasurer, and Mrs. Keller, secretary.

Sidekick Contracts Let. The board of public works awarded two small sidewalk contracts this morning. An 8-foot walk on the south side of Superior street, from the intersection of the dock line was awarded to Arouson & Grant at $28 1/2 cents per foot. John Boyd secured the 6-foot walk on the north side of Wabash street from Woodward avenue to Crescent street, at 25 1/2 cents per foot.

Heights School Will be Built. On Saturday evening the school board let the contract for a 1-room building to be erected on Duluth Heights. J. Roberts & Co. secured the job at $5500. The highest bid was $6088, by George H. Graham.

Played Eleven Innings. A good game of ball was played at Superior yesterday by the Duluth Heights and the Zenith City club. At the close of the ninth inning the score stood 7 to 2. The tenth was played with goose eggs on each side. Finally in the eleventh the Gray's tallied one, making it 8 to 7.

Lawyers Were Winners. The attorneys were too much for the court yesterday at base ball on Saturday notwithstanding the fact that the attorneys allowed the court house men the West Duluth battery, Cole and battery for the lawyers. The score was 20 to 12.

Baptist Young People. Will be at Toronto, Canada, July 19 to 22, in great numbers. It will pay you to see whether you are a Baptist or not. Only one fare for the round trip. Ask your railroad agent to sell you a ticket via "The Burlington" from St. Paul.

Shenandoah Valley Lands. Why go West when such grand opportunities exist in West Virginia, Maryland and the famous Shenandoah valley, Virginia, a section possessing all the requisites for health, comfort and prosperity.

No region in the United States is attracting greater attention. People from the North and West are looking that way with the view of locating. Improved farm lands are to be obtained at from $8 per acre upwards, improved timber lands at from $2 to $6 per acre.

Rich mine lands are cheap, excellent water powers, manufacturing sites, business locations, etc., are numerous. The schools and churches are excellent, the climate is pure and healthful. Write for literature, free.

Sold by druggists, price 75 cents.

Of the eyes often complain as much trouble as an error of refraction. C. H. Bagley, the optician, with F. D. Day, 315 West Superior street, gives glasses to correct muscular trouble as well as anything else.

N. P. Resumes. All passenger train service on Northern Pacific main line and branches east of Mandan is resumed today on regular schedule time.

Don't miss this—Ayer's mammoth grocery, 22 East Second street, is closing out at cost.

A Modern Convenience. On March 4, 1933, an enterprising Yankee left Boston for New York, carrying a carpet bag of most goodly dimensions. It was the man F. H. Harnden, and his carpet bag apparently contained only a few packages of money and valuable papers, consigned to New York merchants.

Harnden had it had occurred to him that by saving business men the expense of a special messenger for the transfer of each individual's packages, a paying occupation might be worked up for himself. The idea was so novel, however, that it took a long time for that generation to patronize the new way.

Perhaps Harnden thought the load was light, but now we can see that it contained not only the few packages on his memorandum, but the whole vast express system of today, employing an army of men, transporting millions of money and thousands of tons of various merchandise, and also doing a banking business through the money orders. What would our life be now, had we to return to special messengers or the unpaid service of some neighbor on his travels? Can we not just call the express system a modern convenience? And yet we must recognize that without the building of railroads—such as the Burlington system, linking to each other and the commercial world hundreds of towns and cities, of the great and popular Western states—the scheme would have remained but a few feet from the ground.

It is not for us to advise what express company is preferable, but when it comes to a railroad, you can never miss it by insisting that the ticket agent must sell you a ticket by the Burlington route to any of the larger cities and towns of the country, or you can write to W. J. C. Kenyon, general passenger agent, St. Paul, Minn.

Notice to Builders—For lime, cement, brick, plaster, etc., go to Wood, Larson & Co., Lake avenue.

MORAL SIDE DISCUSSED.

The Pilgrim Congregational church was well filled last evening to hear Mrs. Marion Todd discourse on "The Moral Side of the Labor Problem."

The speaker held that any question which affected the rights or welfare of the people was a proper subject to discuss in churches on Sundays as well as any other day. The labor question had a trinity of interests, the temperance, suffrage and money question. Temperance was the point of primal importance, and the elevation of common humanity is the only way for a general attainment of its benefits.

Prohibition will help, but happy homes with pleasant surroundings and places of innocent amusement will do fully as much. She pleaded earnestly for universal woman suffrage, pointing out why the world needed women's work and the benefits which have accrued already from the forward steps which have been taken in that direction, but added that patience would bring about the desired result, and that in course of time women would be proud to recognize woman as an equal in all things.

The speaker maintained that over-production was a cause of the stagnation at present existing, and that that state of affairs was due to the fact that the scale of wages paid to the working classes, the tolling measures were shut out by their pauper incomes from procuring anything but a scanty supply of the bare necessities of life.

Mrs. A. N. McGindley introduced the speaker and presided at the meeting. Mrs. Todd speaks at the Pavilion Tuesday evening on "Finance as Touching Upon Labor Problems."

Accused of Stealing. Annie Anderson will have a hearing tomorrow on a charge of stealing $500 from John King, Thursday, 50 Mr. King's story goes, he sold some property receiving $3000, which he took home. The Anderson woman was at the house with Mr. and Mrs. King when they counted the money. On Friday he took it to the bank and found it $50 short. Suspicion fell on Annie and when arrested $20 was found on her, and any more in her trunk. She pleaded not guilty Saturday and bail was fixed at $250.

Three People Tipped Out. A dangerous runaway at Lester Park near the bridge over the river excited a number of people yesterday, but the names of the people in the buggy—a man, woman and child—could not be learned. The buggy tipped over near the bridge and the three fell out. The man's arm was slightly sprained and the woman struck on her head, fortunately receiving nothing more than a scalp wound. The child was unharmed.

Ward and Precinct Boundaries. The maps showing the division of wards and precincts have been put out by the printers and five of them, together with copies of the ordinance have been posted in each voting precinct. The reason why no reply voter should not know where he is at.

Has Been Incorporated. H. H. Hanford and A. W. Bradley, of Duluth, and C. H. Bradley, of Bay City, this morning filed articles of incorporation with the state. The company was W. H. Bradley & Hanford, Lumber company with a capital of $100,000 and the limit of indebtedness is $50,000.

ALL AROUND CHAMPION GOFF.

The Truly Athlete Recently Won the Title For the Second Time. At the recent all-around championships of the Amateur Athletic union, E. W. Goff, who won the event for the first time last year, was again registered a winner.

A very good host of contestants took part in the competition, including George R. Gray, the world's champion shot putter; John A. Larkin, James O. Butterworth, John Cosgrove and Champion Goff. Frank Posters, the much praised Californian, failed to show up. Goff did remarkably well, and in several instances his work was of a brilliant order. Although Gray was a brilliant order. Although Gray was a brilliant order. Although Gray was a brilliant order.

He is 25 years old and has been an all-around athlete since he was a boy. As a high jumper Goff can cover six feet, and in the 100 yards hurdles in 10 4/5 seconds and the 120 yards hurdles in 17 1/5 seconds. His best broad jump is 21 feet 7 inches and his pole vault 9 feet 7 1/2 inches. He is 5 feet 10 1/2 inches tall and weighs 173 pounds.

The Victorious Yankee Yacht Dakotah. As the Irishman said, "America takes the world" when it comes to a matter of yachting. Yankee yachtsmen not only won the America's cup from England 43 years ago, but they have successfully defended it on numerous occasions over the years. And now the American 10 rater, Dakotah, designed for Henry Allen of Glasgow by the Herreshoffs, is sailing across the English Channel and Scotch coast.

Her class as though they were anchored. Our cousins on the other side of the big pond have been surprised by Yankee yachts before, but the Dakotah's performance is a record.

THE DAKOTAH. She is a fine keel boat, 96 feet on the water line, 50 feet over all, 9 feet 6 inches beam and 4 feet 6 inches deep. THE PONY WEIGHED.

"Little Senator" is captured by F. R. Johnson, who guessed in March.

The disposal of the famous Shetland pony, "Little Senator," which the Big Duluth clothing house has been advertising for some time as a free gift to the party who should guess the nearest to the combined weight of pony, harness and carriage, came off this morning in one of the big windows of the popular clothing caravanserai. The street was crowded and at 10:30 o'clock the scales of force a rat policemen were necessary to force a passage way through the dense throng. The weighing was done by a committee of newspaper men and was fair in every particular. The pony and harness weighed exactly 385½ pounds, and the cart 140½ pounds, a total of 526½ pounds. A ticket dated March 21, held by F. R. Johnson, of 215 West Superior street, gave him guess as 527 pounds and wins the outfit if it is called for within a week. If Mr. Johnson does not show up the pony, harness and cart go to Charlie Lewis, son of Judge Lewis. The latter guess was 526½ pounds.

STRIKE AT SUPERIOR.

Lake Superior Terminal & Transfer Men at Superior Are Out.

All the men employed by the Lake Superior Terminal & Transfer railway at Superior, except the superintendent, yardmaster, master mechanic, 2 engineers, 1 fireman and 1 foreman, struck this morning because the company handles Northern Pacific and Omaha cars. They were about twenty in number, nearly all switchmen.

A dispatch sent out from West Superior by some of the strikers there announced that the strike "ties up" all switching at the head of the lake. This is the worst sort of misrepresentation. The railroads do not depend entirely upon that company for their switching by a good deal. The strike will inconvenience business men and shippers a good deal but the elevators and coal docks and such places will be reached easily.

THE COUNTY DIVIDED

Boundaries of the New Commissioner Districts Fixed by the Board at This Morning's Session.

This Was Made Necessary by the Redistricting of the City of Duluth into New Wards.

Fourth District is the Largest and Includes all Territory North of the Sixth Correction Line.

The county commissioners met this morning in the auditor's office pursuant to an adjournment from last Monday for the purpose of re-forming the commissioners' districts. This was made necessary by the redistricting of the city. The new districts, which are as follows, are made as nearly equal in population as possible.

The First district, Commissioner Miller's, will consist of the third, fourth and fifth wards of the city of Duluth.

The Second district consists of the first and second wards, townships of Duluth, Rice Lake and Gnesen, 52-53, 53-54, 12-13. A new commissioner will be elected this fall to succeed Commissioner Poirer, whose term expires.

The Third district, represented by W. W. Butchart, will consist of the Sixth and Seventh wards. In case of Commissioner Butchart's election as sheriff a new commissioner will also be in order for this district.

The Fifth district, Commissioner Swenson's, consists of the Eighth ward, New Duluth, Fond du Lac, Hermann, Canosa, Industrial, New Independence, Culver, Floodwood, and all the unorganized territory south of the sixth correction line and west of Gnesen.

The first, Second, Third and Fifth districts comprise all the territory south of the sixth correction line. The Fourth district, Commissioner Bonham's, contains the entire part of the country north of the sixth correction line, or the north line of township 54, including the two ranges. A commissioner will be elected this fall to succeed the present incumbent.

The change of the entire Mesaba range from the Fifth to the Fourth district is the greatest change made.

The board adjourned until Thursday morning.

REGISTER TAYLOR REVERSED.

General Land Office Allows the Indian Applications for Allotments.

There will be joy on the Fond du Lac reservation tonight, and the "hi-yahs," "ki-yis" and "ta-ra-as" of the merry half-breeds may continue for several days. The cause of the jollity is the receipt by the local land office here of a batch of over forty reversals of Register Taylor's decision that certain applicants are not entitled to allotments of land under provisions of the act of Feb. 8, 1887, and amendatory act of Feb. 28, 1891. Commissioner Lamoureux decides that the applicants are entitled to enter the lands. The commissioner's letter directs the officers to receive the applications and give the allotments, provided the lands are subject to entry.

The following are the persons who will receive their allotments, and they are nearly all breeds of different Chippewa blood: Mable Martin, Milo Martin, Phena Martin, George Gouge, Alexander Gouge, Basil Gouge, Margaret Lamotte, William Ferguson, Katie Mary Ferguson, Joseph Gouge, Elizabeth Gouge, Madeline Legrow, Winfield Martin, Edward Martin, Susie Martin, Ira Martin, Sophie Martin, Margaret Martin, Henry Robert, Mary A. Leclair, Charles Robert, Louis Robert, Mary Robert, Albert Leclair, Josephine Lamotte, Elvira Leclair, Margaret Price, Hattie Leclair, J. D. Lamotte, Joseph G. Lamotte, Eva Pederson, Mary James, Louis A. Gouge, Mary Ferguson, William Ferguson, Maud Ferguson, Katie Mary Ferguson, Elizabeth Gouge, Eugene Rousseau, Willie Rousseau, Lillian Rousseau, Peter Rousseau, Elmer Leclair.

An important letter from Assistant Commissioner Bowers reopens the case of John A. Landahl vs. Jonas Anderson. The land in question is the 1/4 of the 1/4 and 5/8 of the 1/4 of section 29-3-19. Anderson entered the land some time ago and made a number of improvements, among them building a log house and planting a crop on two acres of land which he cleared. He was taken sick with typhoid fever and was confined to his bed in Virginia for several months. The contestant, John A. Landahl, filed notice of contest on the land, which is quite valuable, made a number of improvements, among them building a log house and planting a crop on two acres of land which he cleared. How Debs Almost Induced the American Federation of Labor to Order a General Strike.

Patrick McBryde, Secretary of the United Mine Workers, Tells All About the Chicago Conference.

The A. R. U. Organizers Confess That They Intended to Break Up the Older Labor Organizations.

Debs Says Today That the Strike Is On But There Is No Evidence of Trouble.

COLUMBUS, O., July 17.—"The conference lately held in Chicago under the auspices of the American Federation of Labor was one of the most important labor gatherings ever held in this country," said Patrick McBryde, secretary and treasurer of the United Mine Workers, today. Mr. McBryde represented the national miners in the conference and in speaking of the gathering gave an interesting side light on the proceedings. He said:

"A convention of local unions had declared in favor of a general strike and demanded the presence of Mr. Gompers in Chicago. Mr. Gompers recognized the gravity of the situation and sent telegrams to all the national and international trade unions and to different railroad brotherhoods of ironmen and trainmen. President Arthur of the engineers, wrote he was unable to be present.

"As the conference was about to convene, a delegation from local unions that had already left work informed the delegates that if they did not agree to call a national suspension of the strike last and that the conference would be held responsible for the defeat. The delegation was quietly but firmly informed that the conference would take such action as it believed to be in the interest of the workmen of the country.

"After the delegates had listened to a statement by Mr. Debs and investigated for themselves into the trouble at Chicago, a peculiar state of affairs presented itself. There was Mr. Debs and the A. R. U. on one side and there was Mr. Pullman, the railroads, and the different brotherhoods on the other. The representatives of the ironmen and trainmen, while opposed to the strike, or rather to the boycott, had nothing but words of praise for Mr. Debs, for his associates they had nothing but words of condemnation; indeed, it has seldom been my lot to hear men get such a scoring as Mr. Howard and other members of the A. R. U. board got, except it be the language used against P. M. Arthur, of the engineers, by the trades union delegates at the conference.

"It seems that the organizers of the A. R. U. had been so indiscreet as to confess that they intended to break up the older organizations and that it was only required victory of the present battle in order to be successful. It can be readily seen therefore that the boycott at Chicago was not only a fight against capital, but a death struggle between the different railroad organizations. The older orders being on the side of the corporation, the state that some of the brotherhoods, like the trainmen, although opposed to the strike, allowed the members to act for themselves and over 15,000 of them joined hands with the A. R. U.

"You must declare for a national suspension," said the trade unionists of Chicago. "The fight is a fight of the labor versus labor," said Mr. Debs. "You have no right to take sides with one organization against another," said the brotherhoods. "Have a little common sense and keep the men you represent out of this muddle," whispered conscience.

"And so the delegates talked, discussed and talked all around the subject each afraid to spring a resolution lest it might be premature. In this condition Mr. Debs found the conference. He realized the difficult task he had to perform; the men he was to address were not amateurs in the methods of labor organizations. A number of them had more experience than himself. The man seemed an icicle, but the voice he heard, his hearers, spellbound as he recited the suffering of the workmen at Pullman; the high-handed policy of the managers, and the determination of the men to fight to the end. The delegates seemed magnetized.

"What do you want us to do," exclaimed one. Then the matchless ability of the man was manifested. In a tone of deep sorrow he exclaimed: "Nothing, a long pause and then Mr. Debs said: 'I ask nothing of you gentlemen, but if I were in your place I will tell you what I would do.' Then Mr. Debs spoke in favor of a general strike. A sharp exchange of words between Secretary McGuffey, of the carpenters, and Mr. Debs followed. Mr. Debs got the best of the discussion, but it broke the spell; the delegates were once more business men and Mr. Debs soon realized it, so he changed his tactics at once.

"I have a telegram from Washington," he said. "The president is going to appoint an arbitration committee, so I have prepared the following document with the consent of this conference. I would wish President Gompers to present it to the board of general managers. He then proceeded to read the document presented by Mayor Hopkins calling off the strike up to conference that the old men would be reinstated. He read the document and the conference to send him an answer. A little rest was taken on the part of the delegates and they realized that if Mr. Gompers was the bearer of the message and the managers refused to accept it, the American Federation of Labor would be placed in an embarrassing position.

"It was resolved to tell Mr. Debs that

A DOZEN KILLED

Two Hundred Sticks of Giant Powder Exploded in the Midst of a Gang of Miners.

The Result Was That Not Enough of the Men's Bodies Was Left for Identification.

Strewn Over the Twisted and Torn Timbers Were Fragments of Human Flesh and Bones.

When the Remains Reached the Surface an Agonizing Wail Went Up From the Multitude.

HAZELTON, Pa., July 17.—Two hundred sticks of giant powder exploded in the midst of a gang of miners at Stockton Colliery No. 8 today, and not enough of the men's bodies was left for identification. On account of the distance of Stockton colliery from the main breaker, it has been customary to send the dynamite and other explosives to No. 8 and distribute them to the workmen at the bottom of the second shaft, as they appear in the morning on their way to work.

It was Charles O'Donnell's duty to distribute the dynamite and caps. The first men to go down into the shaft today were the drivers, and these are the only ones to return alive from the opening. How many men, or who they were, who were known to have been killed, or right and a number wounded, several fatally.

Today forty-two striking miners were jailed on the charge of murder and fifty more will be arrested. A monster citizens' indignation meeting is now in session to denounce the lawlessness and urge action to suppress it. Governor Jones has ordered out fifteen companies of troops and has put the others under cautionary orders.

The list of dead and wounded in yesterday's fight is as follows:

Dead—B. W. Tierce, commander of the guards; unknown Frenchman, striking miner; unknown negro miner.

Wounded—George Campbell, colored miner, will die; Rodriguez Regis, striking miner, will probably die. One hundred and fifty negroes were more or less wounded.

Several members of the attacking mob who were seen to fall when the deputies returned the fire were carried off by companions. Military and Gatling guns have been arriving since last night, as Governor Jones proposes to maintain peace at any cost.

The rescuing parties were quickly formed and, headed by Superintendent Koderick, a corps of miners descended into the mine. The work of recovering the bodies was at once begun, but it was a difficult task. Fragments of human flesh were found some distance up the slope, clinging to the rails and ties and sticking to the roof, while everywhere were bones and limbs. At this hour not enough has been found of the bodies to make recognition possible. It is believed that at least a dozen men were blown to pieces.

After surveying the work of destruction Foreman Shugart emerged from the pit and instituted preparations for bringing the remains of the victims to the surface. The dismembered fragments were put together as well as possible at the bottom of the shaft. All had been arranged, the hoisting to the surface commenced.

In order that the feelings of the relatives of the men might be spared, it was arranged to hoist each box to the top of the lower and from there take them to their several homes. As each box appeared on the surface an agonizing wail went up from the multitude in waiting. Women tore their hair and shrieks of agony rent the air.

The officials did everything possible to assuage their grief, but very little could be done. The names of the victims as far as known are: Charles O'Donnell, aged 25, married; Andrew Jabal, aged 38, married; John Primbone, aged 22, single; John Koehle, aged 25, single; Anthony Moricovitz, aged 25, single; John Krimack, aged 28, married; John Motefski, aged 44, married; John Lizion, aged 25, single.

THE COREAN SITUATION.

Japan Officially Denies She Has Accepted Mediation.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The latest telegraphic reports received here indicate that the Korean situation is substantially unchanged. It is stated that the Russian government has expressed itself satisfied with the reply of the Japanese government which disavowed any designs upon Korean territory, but which declined to withdraw the Japanese troops from Korea until some action was taken to prevent a complete conquest of the disturbance in that country which constitutes such a dangerous menace to Japanese interests.

It is stated that the Chinese government has peremptorily refused to consult with the Japanese government for the purpose of devising means to assist Corea in removing the Japanese troops, and has confined its replies to a request, which has been repeated several times, to a demand for the withdrawal of the Japanese troops from Corea.

The impression prevails that this was the substance of the answer made by Chung Li Yamen last week, when the British minister at Peking tendered his personal good offices to effect a settlement of the differences between the two countries. The general opinion in Japan is that the government has done all that it properly can to do to maintain the entire removal of the Japanese troops from Corea. On the other hand, it is asserted, that the Chinese have strengthened their position at Asan, Japan has officially denied that she has accepted mediation.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS.

Grover Sent a Batch of Names to the Senate Today.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The president sent to the senate the following nominations:

David A. Wells, Jr., of Connecticut, to be second secretary of the legation of the United States at London; James R. Jackson, of New Hampshire, to be consul of the United States at Sherbrooke, Que.; John C. Arnold, of Oregon, to be survivor general of Oregon; to be registers of land offices, John T. Joyce, at Leadville, Col., and George H. Stevenson, at Vancouver, Wash.; Alfred A. Guck, to be postmaster at Lake Linden, Mich.

Lawn Tennis Tournament.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 17.—In the lawn tennis championship tournament today Mrs. Hildyard beat Miss Mustin, two love sets, taking the championship which Miss Dod does not defend.

Pim won the scores being 10-8, 6-2 and 8-6, and he retains the championship.

Final Proof on Entries.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The house today concurred in the senate amendments to the bill extending the time for making final proof on entries under the pre-emption act. The senate amendments to the river and harbor bill were non-concurred in and the bill was sent to conference.

Government Deafened.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 17.—The elections have resulted in the defeat of the government and the return of 58 free traders, 30 protection and 28 labor members.

THE VIGILANT WON TODAY.

The Prince of Wales' Cutter Defeated by the American Yacht.

BELFAST, July 17.—An accident today robbed the American yacht Vigilant of some of the glory of outlasting the prince of Wales' crack sailer Britannia that is her due.

That in the ordinary course of events the Vigilant would have won there can be no question, for the race had been more than two-thirds run and the Vigilant was in the lead nearly six minutes when the Britannia's foremast parted and she was obliged to drop out, leaving the American sloop to finish as she would.

That the Vigilant is the better sailer in a stiff breeze was demonstrated to everybody's satisfaction, for when she rounded the next mark, finishing half the race, she led the prince of Wales' cutter by 4 m 19 sec and at the boat off the South Briggs was 5 m 41 sec ahead. The Vigilant sailed the course home and reached the Bangor battery boat at 4:13 p.

The race, which was the eighth in which the Britannia and the Vigilant have been matched against each other, was for the Commodore cup, value $250, with $125 added by the Royal Ulster Yacht club, the second yacht to receive $75. The course was the one sailed yesterday, 50 miles, on Belfast lough, markboats placed as before.

A BATTLE IN ALABAMA.

Three Men Known to Have Been Killed Outright and a Number Wounded.

Several Fatally.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 17.—Great excitement prevails here over yesterday's attack by striking miners on the guards and negro workmen at Pratt mines, resulting in a bloody battle in which three men are known to have been killed outright and a number wounded, several fatally.

Today forty-two striking miners were jailed on the charge of murder and fifty more will be arrested. A monster citizens' indignation meeting is now in session to denounce the lawlessness and urge action to suppress it. Governor Jones has ordered out fifteen companies of troops and has put the others under cautionary orders.

The list of dead and wounded in yesterday's fight is as follows:

Dead—B. W. Tierce, commander of the guards; unknown Frenchman, striking miner; unknown negro miner.

Wounded—George Campbell, colored miner, will die; Rodriguez Regis, striking miner, will probably die. One hundred and fifty negroes were more or less wounded.

Several members of the attacking mob who were seen to fall when the deputies returned the fire were carried off by companions. Military and Gatling guns have been arriving since last night, as Governor Jones proposes to maintain peace at any cost.

WRECKERS WERE BOLD.

Two Explosions of Dynamite Caused Beneath a Train With Troops in Oklahoma This Morning.

PONCA CREEK, O. T., July 17.—Troop A, United States cavalry, of Fort Reno, under command of Capt. J. O. Maskey, which has been detailed to guard the Rock Island road, missed death at the hands of the Pond Creek train at 1 o'clock this morning by less than 200 feet.

Two explosions of dynamite occurred within 200 yards at the south outskirts of the city, immediately after the special train carrying the troops entered. The Pond Creek station had passed.

One of the shots exploded immediately under the train but did no damage, but the other blew out a cat guard and shattered the rails and would have completely demolished the train had it exploded a few seconds earlier.

The night, with a full moon, was as clear as day, and the dynamites touched off their shots in full view of the train when so close that it could not be stopped until it had crossed the spots. The cat guard was replaced and trains moved regularly this morning.

MUST FURNISH MORE BAIL.

Debs, Howard, Keliher and Rogers Brought Up for Contempt.

CHICAGO, July 17.—At 3 o'clock the contempt proceeding against Debs, Howard, Keliher and Rogers, of the American Railway union, were called in the federal court and the cases continued until Monday. The bail in each case was fixed at $500.

The defendants protested, saying they could secure no more bail and were informed by the court that their only alternative was to go to jail. The commitment to jail was deferred for a short time to allow them to make an attempt to secure bondsmen, but the defendants expressed little hope of being successful.

President Debs appeared in court, accompanied by Attorneys W. W. Erwin and V. H. Shoemaker, of St. Paul, and S. S. Gregory, of this city. The strike leader was also accompanied by his brother, Theodore Debs.

THE UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM.

Movs of Receivers to Get Rid of Unprofitable Branches.

ST. PAUL, July 17.—On Thursday a railroad matter of great importance will be heard before Judge W. H. Sanborn, of the United States circuit court. The receivers of the Union Pacific road will appear before the court, pursuant to an order to show cause to them granted about a month since, and ask that a large number of the branch lines of the Union Pacific road be no longer considered or conducted as part of the Union Pacific system, but that they be hereafter regarded as independent lines.

The reason for this action is that these branch lines are not earning sufficient money to pay operating expenses and taxes. They are a constant drain upon the income of the Union Pacific road, which has been obliged to advance money to maintain them, and the receivers ask that their action at previous times in making these advances be approved by the court.

Only a Local Strike.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The members of the Federation of Labor is back from Chicago. He denies that he and Debs had a quarrel and asserts that the railway strike is still on, though admitting that it is local in character.

EX-SPEAKER REED COMING.

Almost Certain He Will Speak in Duluth This Year.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—[Special to The Herald.]—It is believed here that ex-Speaker Reed will visit Minnesota this fall and deliver speeches for the Republicans in Duluth, Minneapolis and St. Paul. Mr. Reed has not definitely decided, but indicated today that he thought he would be able to go to Minnesota.

UNDER MILITARY GUARD.

Four Hundred Miners Resumed Work at Ironwood Today.

IRONWOOD, Mich., July 17.—[Special to The Herald.]—Over 400 miners went to work at the Four City mines this morning under the protection of five companies of militia. If an outbreak can be avoided this week the strike will fall.

Trouble is feared at Ashland when it is attempted to load the Norrie mine ore in vessels.

SUFFRAGE IN NEW YORK.

Question of Female Suffrage to be Submitted to a Vote.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 17.—The sub-committees of the suffrage committee of the constitutional convention has decided to report to the full committee adversely all proposition tending towards female suffrage, except that allowing the question be submitted to a vote of the electors of the state at the next general election.

All But One Recovering.

CHICAGO, July 17.—All of those injured in the explosion of Battery F's caisson at Oakwood and Grant boulevards, were in a fair way to recover today, with the exception of Maurice O'Donnell, one of the privates in the battery, who was reported dying at the Mercy hospital. O'Donnell was frightened and the surgeons had no hope for his recovery.

Battle in Pennsylvania.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 17.—A battle between deputies and strikers occurred last night at the Morrell works of the Cambria Iron company, near Dunbar, in which one striker, named Santos, was fatally wounded and several others seriously. The others wounded were carried to the county houses and their injuries are unknown.

Opium Smuggler Caught.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—A telegram has been received at the treasury department stating that Special Agent George C. Custer, at Detroit had arrested F. L. Gilchrist and seized 200 cans of opium smuggled by him into the United States.

A Crack Shot Dead.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., July 17.—Alfred Felton, aged 77 years, a member of the Montgomery Gun club and a man of national reputation among crack shots, dropped dead at Hart Run station here today. He won more prizes than any of the crack shots in this state.

THE CAPITAL GOSSIP

A Dozen Men Now in Washington Who Are Interested in the Altamonte Bill Fight.

Advocates of the Scheme Have Considerable Difficulty in Refuting the Charges Made Against It.

Figures in regard to the wheat crop of India published by Department of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—[Special to The Herald].—No other private bill that has been introduced at the present session of congress has excited so much interest among Minnesota members as the bill of the Altamonte Water company to overflow certain lands in the Fond du Lac reservation for the purpose of creating water power for the city of Duluth. There are now in this city at least a dozen men who are interested either on one side or the other in this bill. Representatives of the Cioquet lumber companies and the Jay Cooke interests have literally besieged the house committee on Indian affairs in opposition to the bill, while on the other hand the advocates of it have not been idle.

Opposition to the bill has come from unexpected quarters. Representative Kiefer, from the day it was introduced in the house, announced his intention of opposing it on the floor and in committee, alleging as his reason for doing so that it would interfere with his project for a canal connecting Lake Superior with the Mississippi river. Representative Fletcher has also taken a decided stand against granting any concessions to the Altamonte company, without giving any particular reason for his action. Even the Populist member, is likewise opposed to it, pronouncing the company the biggest monopoly in the state of Minnesota.

The advocates of the scheme here have had considerable difficulty in refuting the various charges that have been made against their project, but so far are of the opinion that they have succeeded in getting the members of the Indian affairs committee very favorably impressed with it.

With the July returns on acreage and condition of crops the correspondents of the statistical division of the department of agriculture were instructed to send in an estimate of the average weight per fleece of wool as shown during the present year. These returns have been carefully consolidated and the average weight per fleece of this year's wool clip shown to be 5.33 pounds as against 5.3 pounds last year, and 5.15 pounds for the census year.

The variation by states is considerable, the range being from 2.5 pounds per fleece in Alabama to 7 pounds in South Dakota. The chief causes of this difference is varying climatic conditions and differing degrees of care bestowed upon the stock as well as the keeping of widely varying grades of animals, from the highest grade blooded stock down to the common native breed.

The final memorandum on the wheat crop of India for the season ended March 31, 1894, issued by the department of revenue and agriculture of the Indian government, has been printed here in a recent government publication. By this report it appears that the harvest has varied considerably in different parts of the country, being decidedly bad in the central provinces, excellent in the Punjab and moderate elsewhere.

The area of the current year's crop (1893-94), the memorandum says, is estimated at 27,382,000 acres, as against 26,429,000 acres, the revised estimate of last year's acreage, or an increase of about 956 per cent. The total production of 1893-94 is placed at 69,235,000 bushels, or 258,438,667 bushels of sixty pounds. The average product is given as 260,437,333 bushels, showing this year's crop to be at 200,000 bushels below normal and 10,000,000 bushels below that of the previous year.

Drugs comfort and improvement and tend to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation.

It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

The summer session and conference in the interest of Indian education which was authorized to be held at Helena, Mont., from July 31 to Aug. 4, will be held at the Indian school at Fort Shaw, Mont., at the same time. The change is due to the superior accommodations for visitors at the Fort Shaw school. The succeeding and last conference will be held at St. Paul, Aug. 13-18.

The fact that the senate has made such rapid progress with the appropriation bills since they were taken up, has led many to believe that their dispatch is a part of the general scheme of the senate to force the house to a more speedy agreement on the senate tariff bill. Ten of the fourteen appropriation bills were passed by the senate in little more than a week's time, which is unprecedented in progress, and the indications are that the bills remaining unacted on will be disposed of with equal rapidity when reached.

The prospects now are that the work of the senate will be delayed somewhat by the committee on appropriations, which has not yet completed its consideration of the sundry civil bill, and has not taken up the deficiency bill at all. These can, however, be reported before a general white.

With all the appropriation bills passed by the senate there will be nothing but the conference reports on these bills and the tariff between congress and adjournment. There are many senators who count upon the eagerness of the members of the house to get home, in view of the necessity of looking after their political fences, to help materially in bringing the house to accept the senate's terms on the tariff.

FAVORS A LARGE ARMY.

Maj. Gen. Schofield Changed His Views Since the Chicago Trouble.

NEW YORK, July 17.—A World Boston dispatch says: Maj. Gen. Schofield, commanding the United States army, arrived in Boston last night. In conversation with a correspondent he said that the late strike in Chicago had caused him to modify somewhat his views expressed recently in which he had taken the ground that a small well disciplined army with better coast defense would prevent the country from invasion. The general said:

"I think upon considering the events which have recently occurred that a larger army is needed. A small army well disciplined is superior to a large army well trained, but a large army well trained is now almost absolutely required."

THE FRENCH PRESS BILL.

A Prediction That a Revolution Will Follow Its Passage.

PARIS, July 17.—It is stated that the cabinet will make the press bill a question of confidence in the government.

The Radical newspapers continue to make a fierce opposition to this measure and M. Edouard Drumont, the editor of the anti-Semitic organ, the Libre Parole, has fled to Belgium. M. Drumont predicts that the passage of the press bill will be speedily followed by a revolution.

An Aid Society Defunct.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 17.—The Switchmen's Mutual Aid association is defunct. The officers were moved here last night by the association and the late Secretary-Treasurer Simrock, but would have recovered from that, but for the strike which involved a large percentage of its members, who lost their positions and could not pay their dues.

Demolished by Dynamite.

CORONA, Iowa, July 17.—The Lockhart coal mines near here were partly demolished yesterday by dynamite exploded simultaneously at two points. A mine, a miner, and a number of mules were killed. The mines were badly wrecked. The deed is charged to strikers.

Shot Two Mexicans.

EL PASO, Tex., July 17.—Early yesterday morning Deputy Sheriff T. A. Benny, in trying to make an arrest was so viciously attacked by two Mexicans that he was compelled to shoot and kill both. Benny is a young man and very much regrets the necessity for the killing.

Fired by Strikers.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 17.—Strikers at 1 o'clock this morning, set fire to the Illinois Central round house and machine shops at Fort Pickering. The prompt arrival of the fire department prevented the loss of the buildings. Several freight cars were burned.

All Quiet at Butte.

SALT LAKE, July 17.—A special from Butte, Mont., to the Tribune says: The situation here is quiet and no demonstration of hostility has occurred for a week. Trains are coming from points as far north as Dillon guarded by soldiers. Strikers are making no threats now.

The people quickly recognize merit, and this is the reason the sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla are continually increasing. Hood's is "on top."

W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingsville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing this, because the remedy is a certain cure for the diseases for which it is intended, and he knows it. It is for sale by all druggists.

BULLETS AND STONES

A Shower of Shots Fired at a Fast Moving Train at Hammond, Ind., Last Night.

An Attempt Was Made to Wreck the Train by Tearing Up the Railway Tracks.

Two Companies of Troops Were Sent to the Scene But the Mob Had Skipped.

CHICAGO, July 17.—A mob of 500 men armed with picks and crowbars tried to tear up the Michigan Central tracks, five miles east of Hammond, Ind., shortly before midnight last night. The news reached the Indiana Central, from Tolleston, where the conductor of an eastbound passenger train which left Hammond at 11:20 telegraphed for assistance. He said that when his train came around a curve it was signalled to stop. The engineer was suspicious and only slowed up by an ax.

On either side of the track stood crowds of men, and some of them, he said, were at work on the fishplates when the train came in sight. When the mob saw that its signal was disregarded several of its members drew pistols and began firing at the train. The shot caused the engineer to open the throttle and the train sped away at a mile clip, followed by a shower of bullets and stones.

Gen. Robbins, who is in command of the Indiana militia at Hammond, was awakened as soon as the news was received and in twenty minutes the camp was under arms. As the mob evidently had designs on the Michigan Central flyer, which leaves Chicago at 11:45 o'clock Gen. Robbins decided to send two companies of troops to the scene of the trouble. The train reached Hammond at 1:35 a. m., when the soldiers piled aboard under command of Col. Lee. The men have orders to shoot without waiting for any command to fire.

As the mob destroyed the telegraph wires within ten minutes after the conductor had sent his story from Tolleston, two line men and an operator went with the train. At 2:30 a. m. Gen. Robbins had a special train in waiting to convey the rest of his command to the spot if their services were needed. At 3 o'clock word was received that the train had reached Tolleston. Nothing was seen on the trip of the mob.

SPENT THE NIGHT IN MIDAIR.

Break in the Machinery of the Halsted Street Bridge at Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Five men spent the night on the Halsted street lift bridge, suspended one hundred and sixty feet in midair. Their names are: Patrick O'Keefe, the bridge tender, G. Gunter, J. A. Ratcliffe, J. Brett and Fox. It is probable that they will not be released until 6 o'clock this evening, as the machinery of the bridge is broken and cannot be repaired.

Last night the bridge was hoisted to let a vessel through. When the bridge had almost reached the top, a cog wheel on the machinery broke and the drum on which the cables are wound and the bridge is raised, gave way and the bridge remained stationary at the top.

The men were hoisted upward, and the bridge was lowered to the level of the Maxwell street station, was also a passenger. It was found impossible to repair the damage temporarily so that the bridge was hoisted to the top of the tower, and the men were hoisted to the top of the tower, and the bridge was lowered to the level of the Maxwell street station, was also a passenger.

The imprisoned men were urged to make use of the ladder, but without avail. Then an ordinary chair was procured and by means of rope and tackle was hoisted to the bridge. Officer O'Connell made the descent by this means, but the others could not be induced to trust themselves to it. Food and water were hoisted to the bridge and the prisoners made themselves as comfortable as possible. The break in the machinery is said to be due to inferior workmanship and material.

STABBED TO THE HEART.
Mill Superintendent Killed by a Discharged Employee.

Dallas, Tex., July 17.—Just after the South Dallas cotton mill started for the day, H. P. Barner, boss weaver, entered the office of Superintendent M. H. Nickles and assaulted him with a knife. After cutting and stabbing him in several places, he sent the knife home to Nickles' heart, who died without speaking to the woman who came too late to help him.

Barner next assaulted J. W. Nickles, a son of the superintendent and engineer of the mill, inflicting several cuts. Barner then surrendered himself to the police and was found to be himself severely wounded, possibly fatally. Young Nickles will die.

Barner says he was attacked, but the evidence is that his use of the knife was the result of his being discharged.

Pierce's Cure
OR MONEY RETURNED.

WOMEN WHO SUFFER
each month can find relief and emancipation from their troubles. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a safe and certain remedy compounded by one of the best physicians for those weaknesses common to women. Backache, irregularity, headaches, dizziness, leucorrhoea, womb troubles, and nervousness, are readily cured by the "Prescription." Dr. Pierce has received hundreds of testimonials. Here is one:

Friend, I have been suffering from the same trouble for several years and I took your "Prescription" and at that time, I was so miserable (and I had been so for many years) that I could not get on my feet. I could not sleep, I could not eat, I could not do anything. I took half a dozen bottles and I have not had a return of my old trouble.

Many others will be benefited as I have been. I am sincerely, Yours,

WHEAT DULL AND LOWER.

Heavy Receipts of New Wheat Cause a Decline in Prices.

Cables were firm today, but heavy receipts of new wheat caused prices to be depressed. The opening was weak at 12c below yesterday's close. The market ruled very dull, with a decline of 1/2c in the premium over September, but the offerings were large and the premium was forced down to 3c with no trading. The close was 1/2c lower than yesterday for cash, July and September, 3c lower for December, and 1c lower for cash to arrive. Following were the closing prices:

No. 1 hard, cash 62 1/2c, July 62 1/2c, No. 1 northern, cash 61 1/2c, July 61 1/2c; September, 58 1/2c; December, 56 1/2c; No. 2 northern, cash 58 1/2c, No. 3 57 1/2c. Rejected 49 1/2c. To arrive—No. 1 northern 61 1/2c. New No. 2 57c, No. 3 56 1/2c.

Our inspection today—Wheat 222, Rye 12, Barley 12, 120 bush. Shipments—Wheat, 39, 49 bush.

The Liverpool Market.
LIVERPOOL, July 17.—Close. Wheat dull; demand moderate; No. 2 red winter 75 1/2c; No. 2 red spring 74 1/2c. Corn active; demand poor; new mixed spot, 5c; futures, demand moderate; July steady at 45 1/2c. Flour dull; demand poor; St. Louis fancy winter 53 1/2c.

Blaine and Conkling.
The death of Gen. James B. Fry, which occurred in Newport last week, brings out some interesting reminiscences regarding the relations of two of the most prominent public men that have died in recent years. It was Gen. Fry who wrote a somewhat lengthy narrative in connection with his relations to the famous quarrel between James G. Blaine and Roscoe Conkling, a quarrel which has made political history, prevented Blaine from securing a presidential nomination once, and the resentment growing out of which contributed to his defeat in 1884. It is also asserted that this quarrel was indirectly one of the causes which drove Senator Conkling from public life.

It was at the outbreak of this quarrel that Mr. Blaine delivered the speech in which he referred to Mr. Conkling as a man with a turkey-gobbler strut, and which the public has long believed occasioned in Mr. Conkling a personal hatred for Mr. Blaine, that time and the efforts of warm friends of each of these men were not able to eradicate. The controversy began over the administration of the provost marshal's bureau. In the course of it a letter was read by Mr.
Blaine from Gen. Fry, which seemed to attack Senator Conkling's integrity. An investigating committee afterwards cleared Mr. Conkling of that imputation unanimously. The public impression that Conkling was morally and permanently angered by Mr. Blaine's allusion to him as a strutting "turkey cock" was erroneous.

After Mr. Conkling retired from public life an effort was made, as many had been made before, to bring about a reconciliation between him and Blaine.
So far as Mr. Blaine was concerned, there had not been a moment for ten years before the death of Mr. Conkling when he would not have gladly met and explained away the past. In his history he speaks in the highest terms of Conkling's services and abilities.

Col. Frederick A. Conkling, Roscoe's oldest brother, said not long before his death, that Roscoe had said to him that the common impression that he was angered at Blaine for his personal allusions to him was utterly without foundation. He had made those allusions upon the floor of the house in the give-and-take of debate, and Conkling always felt that he was fully able to protect himself in such a battle as that. He said that his real grievance against Blaine was that he had in public offered a letter which was an attack upon Conkling's personal integrity; that an investigation conducted by the members of the house had resulted in a report signed by every member of the committee fully exonerating Mr. Conkling upon these accusations; that there had been no moment when he would not have cheerfully met Blaine had Blaine after that report publicly withdrawn the charge as he made it, but so long as Blaine was silent, not confessing his error of judgment or his impetuous mistake, just so long Mr.
Conkling must continue to regard him as a man who still was of the opinion that it was possible for Conkling to engage in a dishonorable pecuniary transaction.

It was this, according to Col. Conkling, which kept his distinguished brother and Mr. Blaine apart so that they carried their differences to their graves.

The Dockery Commission.
In the legislative bill which passed the senate yesterday was embodied one of the most important changes in the routine work of government since the war.
The bill carried into effect the recommendations of the Dockery commission to reorganize the accounting system of the treasury department, which was established in 1792 by Alexander Hamilton and has been in vogue since with occasional revisions.

Although defended by Senator Sherman, the system was said by the commission of experts to lack symmetry and be cumbersome to the extent of congesting the business of the department.

The new plan will not go into effect until Oct. 1, as time will be required to make the changes. The existing system includes triplicate examination of accounts, whereas the new plan provides for a double examination with checks and safeguards modeled after workings of some of the largest corporations in the country.

It abolishes the first, second and third comptrollers and creates a comptroller who is the law officer of the treasury, and in a sense an appellate court, since his construction of the statutes will govern the auditors in settling accounts. The new system, which will bring up to date work which is dragging two years behind, is intended to secure the prompt adjudication of claims and accounts, while incidentally it saves the government $200,000 a year by dispensing with the services of 183 clerks.

Another work of the Dockery commission is the new form of money orders which came into use on the first of this month, superseding the old money orders and the postal notes, which latter are entirely abolished. In form they are more like the postal notes than the money orders which they succeed, having coupons which show the amount they carry, so arranged for clipping that the orders cannot be altered without decreas-ing their value.

Most important, however, they involve a saving both to the government and the user since smaller fees are allowed to postmasters for issuing them, making the uniform rate of 3 cents; and the charges to the public are reduced, ranging from 3 cents for orders less than $2.50 up to 50 cents for $100.

The Dockery commission has been in existence but a little more than a year, having been organized June 6, 1893, by act of congress. Its head is Representative Dockery, of Missouri. With him are associated Representatives Dingley, of Maine, and Richardson, of Tennessee, and Senators Cockrell, Jones and Cullom. The work of investigating the business methods of the departments has been carried on by J. W. Reinhardt, C. W. Haskins and E. W. Sells. Eight or ten bills have been recommended by the commission, all of which have become laws. One of the most important was that which provided for the purchase of supplies for all the government departments by a committee of three,
and another was the bill doing away with the expensive engrossing of acts of congress and directing that they should be printed.

Referring to Col. Breckinridge's fight for renomination to congress, the Louisville Times expresses the opinion that "unless virtue is another name for lewdness, truth a liar and the liver of heaven a mere disguise of the devil, Hypocritical Bill will get it where the chicken got the ax and the bottle got the corkscrew. Figures count for little in such a case, while fundamental and eternal principles hold good, or nothing worth contending for is left to contend for."

The Washington Post has advice from New York to the effect that an effort is on foot in the Empire state to inaugurate a boom for ex-Minister Robert Lincoln for the first place on the Republican national ticket in 1896, and for ex-Minister Fred Grant for second place. Those back of the plan are said to believe that such a ticket would sweep the country in the next campaign, but it is very unlikely that it will be selected by the national convention.

The Herald publishes today a communication from H. H. Phelps, in which he announces that he will not be a candidate for the Republican nomination for member of the legislature. This decision by Mr. Phelps will be received with regret by many people who have hoped that he would be one of the nominees, as he possesses many qualities that would make him a valuable representative of this district.

The Minneapolis Penny Press is authority for the statement that "John Goodnow says he has retired from politics." This may be so, but strong evidence will be required to convince the politicians that it is a fact.

The street fair has reached the place time may yet come when the shops shall visit the shopping woman instead of the shopping woman visiting the shops.

Says a Boston paper: The two steamers for the American line building in the Cramps' yard are known as "the saints," one being the St. Louis and the other the St. Paul. They are expected to go

Washington advises state that since his anarchistic speech on July 10, Senator Peffer has been severely let alone by his associates in the senate.

MR. PHELPS NOT A CANDIDATE.
Will Not Seek a Nomination for Member of the Legislature.

To the Delegates to the Republican Legislative Convention: Gentlemen—My name has been used as a possible nominee for representative from this district to the lower house of the state legislature. In fact, immediately after the county convention was held some of my friends came to me and asked me to allow my name to be used as a candidate, and without giving the matter that consideration which I should have given it before answering, I consented. I have since weighed the matter more fully in my mind and have come to the conclusion that I cannot permit my name to go before the convention.

It is unnecessary to give all the reasons here, but suffice it to say that my personal and business interests will not permit it. I wish to thank those of my friends who have so earnestly advocated my candidacy. I certainly shall not soon forget their efforts in my behalf, and I only hope that my withdrawal at this time will not in any way embarrass them. It certainly should not, for with such an abundance of good timber as the Republicans of Duluth have to select from, the withdrawal of any one man from a race of this kind should cause no particular commotion.

I publish this statement for the reason that I have been unable to see all of the delegates personally who have favored my candidacy, and as the time of the convention is near at hand I thought all interested parties ought to know just where I stand. I hope the delegates will not consider it presumptuous on my part if I add here a suggestion as to what I think should be done in the matter of nominations. In my opinion the very best men in the county should be chosen. No man should be selected because of the particular locality in which he lives, unless he is otherwise fitted.
Only men of standing and influence in the community can hope to receive the support of the people at the polls or accomplish anything for the district if elected. The convention has plenty of good material to select from. It is not necessary that any mistake in this particular should be made.

Duluth, July 16. H. H. PHELPS.

The Dire Necessity for Living.
Boston Herald: If it costs a rich English duke 1,300,000 to die, what must it cost him to keep alive? Living is getting frightfully expensive, but under the new legacy duty it will be advisable to remain on earth, dear as it is.

Treason in the Senate.
New York Sun: It will not do to look upon Peffer as merely an intellectual misfit upon the floor of the United States senate. The time has come when he must be taken seriously. His utterances upon Tuesday were treason, flat and uncompromising treason; and no treason can be uttered by any enemy that the country has had.

BACK TO WORK.

The First Break in the Ranks of the Strikers at Pullman Took Place Today.

Hollanders Returned to Work on the Tracks Back of the Pullman Foundry Without Molestation.

Vice President Howard, of the A. R. U., Charges Agents of Railways Did the Car Burning.

Debs, Howard, Keliher and Rogers are in Jail and Will Stay There Until Monday.

CHICAGO, July 18.—The first break in the ranks of the Pullman strikers has occurred, 150 Hollanders having been put back to work on the tracks back of the Pullman foundry. The men quit work when the strike was declared and stayed out until now. No effort was made by the other strikers to prevent the men from going to work.

The butchers continue returning to work at the stock yards. Among them is Vice President Hazard, of the butchers' union. The sheep butchers at Armour's have received a raise of 25 cents a day in their wages and four and one-half days work a week has been guaranteed them. All the houses were killing today.

Mayor Hopkins denies a report that he has been taking steps to assure the removal of the federal troops from the city. He stated he would not order the return of any of the militia today, and if he had consulted with Gen. Miles as to the withdrawal of the troops, the mayor said: "No, Gen. Miles has nothing to say about it. The department at Washington attends to that. A general may be a big man in a city like Chicago, but like a congressman, he is not much at Washington."

At the county jail today Vice President Howard, of the A. R. U., made the following remarkable statement: "This thing is going to be a test case. We don't consider ourselves bigger than the law and incidentally we think the railroad men are not. We are getting some evidence for the coming legal battle and we consider it a pretty fair grade. Here is a letter we received telling of evidence that most of the freight car burning done in Chicago was done by two men in the employ of the General Managers' association."

"One of the secret agents of a certain committee saw two men, on the night of the big fire, going through the yards with a hard hat loaded with inflammable waste, which they lighted systematically threw among the cars. This agent overheard a conversation between the men, from which he gleaned that they were paid $200 each and were to receive $300 more when the job was done. This, understand, was before the troops were called out. An effort is now being made to arrest these two men."

"We further have pretty positive evidence that the big man who led the mob of 500 at Blue Island was a Pinkerton man, employed by the railroad, and it is significant that although he could be easily identified, yet he has not been arrested. It is safe to say that this case will not be entirely one-sided."

At Ulich's hall, the A. R. U. headquarters, a larger crowd was gathered today than for several days past. The arrest of the leaders was discussed by the excited groups that stood about the committee rooms and hallways and the action of the authorities was generally criticized. Several of the local organizers delivered short addresses and the usual claims that the strike is still on were made.

DEBS IS NOW IN JAIL.
He and Three Other A. R. U. Officials Declined to Give Bail.

CHICAGO, July 18.—President Debs passed a fairly comfortable night at the county jail and early today ordered a good breakfast brought in from a neighboring hotel. Debs refused to be seen by the interviewers and he and his associates kept close in the seclusion of their cells.

Eugene V. Debs, George W. Howard, L. W. Rogers, Sylvester Keliher, the officers of the American Railway union, were committed to jail late yesterday afternoon by Judge Scamman in the United States circuit court for the alleged violation of the injunction issued by Judges Woods and Grosscup.

The four leaders of the strike in reality went to jail in default of bail, for the court offered them liberty until next Monday, when they will have a hearing on the charge of contempt. Their bail was fixed at $3000 each, but the men refused to give it and the court committed them.

Debs and his companions were taken to the jail by Marshal Arnold, and before they left the court room Judge Scamman instructed the marshal to take them out of jail at any reasonable time or times, in order that they may have abundant opportunity to consult their attorneys between this and next Monday. Debs seems to enjoy jail life. So does George W. Howard, vice president, Sylvester Keliher, secretary, and W. Rogers, a director of the A. R. U. All of them were smiling and in the best of spirits today, after their first night's experience in the Cook county jail.

A large part of the personal friends of the imprisoned men called early in the morning and were admitted to see them. The daily corridor scrubbing was in progress and no one was admitted for some time. President Debs sent word down to the waiting visitors that himself and friends had enjoyed a good rest and had nothing to say that would interest the public.

Before 11 a. m. Debs came down from his cell to meet Stenographer Benedict of the A. R. U., who had arrived with a bundle of mail for him. "The president was in a good humor. 'I had the best night's sleep I have had in a month or more,' said he. 'Nothing disturbed me, not even the ghost of that man who was hanged the other day and whose spirit is said to be roaming about in here. 'We are here and will stay here until next Monday at least.' President Debs then fell to looking over his big batch of mail matter."

Vice President Keliher came down from his cell in the debtors' department and while awaiting his turn in the barber's chair, said: "We are all enjoying this respite from work."

PILGRIMAGE TO ROME.

New York, July 18.—The Catholic pilgrimage to Rome, and Lourdes left here today on the steamers Noordland and Paris. Catholics of fourteen states were represented among the voyagers. The main party is accompanied by Rev. Father Porcile, chaplain of the Monastery of the Precious Blood, of Brooklyn.

Every berth on the Noordland was occupied by the pilgrims and 100 in addition on the Paris. The delegation took with it a magnificent silken banner, which will be blessed by the pope early in August. After it has received the blessing, it will be carried to Lourdes, where it is intended to permanently decorate the Church of the Grotto.

Father Porcile takes with him a locked casket containing requests from donors who are unable to accompany the pilgrims, which will be placed on the shrine.

Previous to embarking, the pilgrims attended an informal reception to Rev. Mother Catherine Fourness, who had returned from St. Hyacinthe, Canada, to bid them a pleasant and happy journey. Rome will be reached on Aug. 6. At Antwerp the pilgrims will be joined by a large number of American Catholics now traveling in Europe.

A VESSEL BURNED AT SEA.
Was Laden With Case Oil and Bound for Shanghai.

New York, July 18.—The American bark Emma T. Crowell, of Seaport, Me., Capt. Pendleton, sailed yesterday for Shanghai laden with case oil. She was towed to sea and landed her pilot on a station boat at the base wharf, where a large fire broke out at 2 p. m. The vessel then being about 12 miles south of Fire Island, one of the crew saw smoke issuing from the forward deck. The hatch was immediately battened down and the orders given to lower away the boats and abandon the vessel, which was apparently doomed to destruction. All hands embarked and left the ship.

The White Star liner Kuntz, bound for Liverpool, have in sight and took all on board. She then put about and steamed for the Scotland lightship, where the Crowell's crew was put.

They remained there until this morning, when they were brought to this port.

THE WISCONSIN CENTRAL.
A Plan of Reorganization Now in Process of Formulation.

New York, July 18.—A committee to perfect the interests of the stock and bondholders of the Wisconsin Central Railroad company, which has defaulted on its interest, has been formed, consisting of George Coppel, William L. Bull and Gerald T. Hoyt, of this city; Rowland Hazard, of Rhode Island, and Edwin H. Abbott, of Boston.

An agreement preparatory to the formation of a plan of reorganization, is being drawn up under which the security holders are asked to deposit their bonds with the committee. The original plan of the company of the first mortgage bonds has been abandoned. Edwin H. Abbott has resigned both as president and director of the Wisconsin Central Railroad company.

HE ENDORSES SCHOFIELD.
Gen. McCook Believes in Massing Troops Near Large Cities.

DENVER, July 18.—Gen. McCook is heartily in favor of Gen. Schofield's policy of concentrating the federal troops at posts in the vicinity of the large cities. He believes that a larger garrison should be kept at Fort Logan, near this city.

"Disorderly mobs in big cities," said the general today, "show the necessity of being more savage than the Apache Indians, and they will from now on be more severely dealt with. In this department, however, perhaps more than any other, the necessity of a few scattered garrisons still remain. Arizona and New Mexico are still full of Indians."

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS FELT.
Slight Shocks This Morning at St. Louis and Memphis.

St. Louis, July 18.—A slight shock of a supposed earthquake was felt in this vicinity about 7:10 a. m. today. The shock was not so noticeable in the city proper, but in the suburbs, houses were so shaken that pictures rattled on the walls, chairs rocked and dishes on tables moved. In no case so far as reported was the shock sufficient to do even indirect damage.

Memphis, July 18.—Three distinct earthquake shocks were felt here at 6:30 o'clock this morning. The vibration was from north to south.

Will Visit Bering Sea.
PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 18.—The young cutter Grant goes today to meet Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamlin and take him on a tour along the customs district, after the secretary has been ordered to enter the Bering sea.

A Youthful Suicide.
BALTIMORE, July 18.—A special to the Sun from Bradshaw, Va., says: Nellie Kenne, a 9-year-old child, hanged herself because she had been kept home from school by her mother to care for two babies. She was dead when found.

CAN NOT AGREE

The Democratic Conference on the Tariff Bill Have Been Unable to Reach an Agreement.

The Full Committee This Afternoon Decided to Report a Disagreement on the Whole Bill.

Main Obstacles to Reaching an Agreement Are the Iron Ore, Coal and Sugar Schedules.

House Conferees Have So Far Declined to Yield on These Points and Senators Firm.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Speaker Crisp, who is back in the house after four days' absence, says there will be no report from the tariff conference committee today. It cannot be learned that any definite plan of action has been outlined by the house Democratic leaders yet. It is evidently their impression that it might prove inexpedient to carry out the plan of reporting a total disagreement and asking for instructions, when it was pointed out that such a report would only emphasize the character of the difference, and should the senate and the house instruct their conferees to stand by their respective positions, it would precipitate a deadlock.

The advice of the house leaders was, therefore, in line with that which a judge sometimes gives to a disagreeing jury—to go back and try again. This day away with the chance of a report of disagreement today. It is believed also that one of the results of the speaker's return was to stiffen the determination of the house conferees and to keep the contest in conference. It was stated, however, that with the conferees in session, the situation might change at any moment and one of Mr. Crisp's closest advisers said the report would probably be in tomorrow.

It has been developed also that a difference exists as to the scope of the report of disagreement. The house conferees desire to make a partial report of such agreements as are possible and ask for instructions on the items subject to disagreement. The senate conferees have stood for an agreement in toto or a disagreement in toto. This has made it impossible for the house conferees to get before the house such special questions of disagreement as they desired instructions upon.

The Democratic conferees held a brief session today and adjourned before 12 o'clock. They made another effort to reach an agreement but it proved ineffectual and the meeting adjourned with the understanding that the full conference of the committee, which is to begin at 2 o'clock, would report a disagreement. The Republican members of the committee will make no opposition to this course.

One of the house conferees explained the plan of procedure as outlined at the meeting of the Democratic conferees held early in the day, as follows: "The report will be a disagreement in toto. It will be very brief and will not go into details as to which questions the senate and house might have come together on. The report is expected to be the first business taken up by the house when it assembles tomorrow at noon. This, of course, cannot be made certain until the Republican conferees give their assent. It is in their power to cause delay, but such action is not anticipated."

Beyond the point of making the brief report of disagreement in toto, the conferees profess not to know what the house or senate will do. One of the house conferees said that the three items of sugar, iron ore and coal were the points that had forced the total disagreement. "Woolens, cottons, lead ore and some other things had been open to difference, yet it was hoped that these could be agreed upon," he said. "The conferees, if sugar, coal and iron had not stood in the way."

Later—the tariff conferees decided after a 15-minute session of the full conference committee this afternoon to report a disagreement and that the disagreement should be on the entire bill.

GORMAN'S ULTIMATUM.
The House Can Choose Between McKinley Law and Senate Bill.

New York, July 18.—A Washington dispatch to the Evening Post says: Senator Gorman is quoted by a Missouri representative as saying to a group of Democratic representatives, of whom the Missourian was one:

"Gentlemen, there are two tariff measures—the McKinley law and the senate bill. You can take your choice."

This is believed to be the tariff situation here today.

RIOTING 'LONGSHOREMEN.
They Attacked Non-Union Men's Houses and Committed Assaults.

OSWEGO, N. Y., July 18.—Rioting 'longshoremen entered the house of James S. Smith and Isaac Densmore, non-union men, during the night, and brutally assaulted them. Smith's wife came to her husband's assistance and was also beaten. The 'longshoremen then stoned non-union men's houses and threatened to hang the men if they should unload barges today.

The militia are now occupying the boats surrounding the companies property, preventing the 'longshoremen from approaching the non-union men.

Gold Shipments.
New York, July 18.—The steamer Columbia, sailing tomorrow, will take away $500,000 in gold.

A BURCOMASTER DISMISSED.

Denmark Given Satisfaction by Germany for an Insult.

COPENHAGEN, July 18.—The Danish government has obtained satisfaction for the expulsion from Schleswig, Germany, of the eight Danish players belonging to the Royal theater of Copenhagen. These players were arrested at Hadersleben, Schleswig, early in June, under instructions from the burgomaster of that place, who claimed there was a prohibition against the use of the Danish language in Schleswig.

The actors and actresses were then ordered to leave Schleswig and went to Ribe, across the frontier, in Denmark, where they received an ovation when the facts of their expulsion became known.

The Danish government called the attention of the German government to this action upon the part of the burgomaster of Hadersleben, and after the matter had been inquired into the official mentioned was dismissed in disgrace. It appears that there had been a prohibition against the use of the Danish language in Schleswig, but the order had been withdrawn and the burgomaster should have been aware of this.

INTRODUCED IN THE SENATE.
The Altamonte Company's Bill Introduced by Washburn.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—[Special to The Herald.]—Senator Washburn today introduced by request a bill to authorize the Altamonte Water company to construct dams in the St. Louis and Cloquet rivers and to overflow certain lands in the Fond du Lac reservation. This bill does not differ materially from Baldwin's bill introduced in the house.

The Duluth & Winnipeg railway is given permission to select a new route in lieu of one which will be overthrown by the construction of dams. The Altamonte company must pay the Chippewa Indians the full value of all lands taken.

A BAPTIST CONVENTION.
The Young People's Union Holding a Meeting at Toronto.

TORONTO, July 18.—The streets leading from the Union depot were filled today by an almost continuous procession of strangers whose white badges denoted that they were delegates to the international convention of the Baptist Young People's union of America.

The convention will be called to order in Massey Music hall at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The delegates on the ground will participate in religious meetings tonight.

British Legislation.
LONDON, July 18.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt, in the house of commons today, said that the remainder of this session of parliament would be principally devoted to considering the evicted tenants bill, the bill providing for an equalization of London rates, the local government for Scotland bill, the miners eight hours bill, the Welsh church bill and the local veto bill. All other measures, he said, would go over until next session.

Presidential Appointments.
WASHINGTON, July 18.—The president today sent the following nominations to the senate: George L. Baitzell, of Florida, to be collector of customs for the district of Fernandez, Fla.; First Assistant Engineer Alfred Hoyt, to be chief engineer in the revenue cutter service; Second Assistant Engineer William Robinson, of Pennsylvania, to be first assistant engineer in the revenue service.

Troops Sent to Butte.
OMAHA, July 18.—Four companies of Second United States infantry left Fort Omaha at 7 o'clock this afternoon bound for Pocatello, Idaho, from which point they will be sent to Butte, Mont., for the purpose of opening the Union Pacific road which is still blocked there by strikers. The battalion was under the command of Capt. Keller.

The New Cable.
HEART'S CONTENT, N. F., July 18.—The following has been received from the cable ship Scotia, now at sea laying the Anglo-American Telegraph company's new cable:

"Latitude 50-50. Long. 41-25.—Have laid 428 knots cable. Weather fine and sea calm. Conditions exceptionally favorable for cable work."

The Plates Secured.
ST. LOUIS, July 18.—United States Secret Service Officer John E. Murphy has received from the St. Louis Bank Note company the plates from which the Mississippi warrants now in dispute were printed. The plates were sent to this city by the Western Bank Note company, of Chicago, who did the work for the St. Louis company.

Thanked by Voorhees.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—Senator Voorhees has written a letter to Liberty post G. A. R. of this city, thanking the post for its support of a bill introduced in the United States senate by him recently providing for the payment of the pensions to all veterans of the late war at a minimum rate of $12 per month.

Strike Declared Off.
MCKEESPORT, Pa., July 18.—After nine weeks of idleness, the strikers at the National tube works, McKeesport, met today and declared the strike off. The plant partially resumed on Monday under the guard of 300 deputies, and about 600 men were at work today. A general resumption will take place in a few days.

Death of an Editor.
OTTAWA, Ont., July 18.—Thomas H. Gorman, editor of the Free Press, and widely known as a contributor to American magazines, is dead, aged 38 years.

A Restaurant Burned.
ALBANY, N. Y., July 18.—Fire today destroyed the restaurant of John Keeler's Sons on State street and badly damaged adjacent buildings. Loss $30,000.

All Returned to Work.
LOGAN, Ohio, July 18.—The Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo strike has been declared off, and all the men at this place returned to work today.

Cataract Cannot be Cured
With local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, Cataract is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Cataract Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood. It is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best medicines known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. BOATS ARE LAYING UP

Several of Them Are Going Out of Commission Every Day Owing to the Dullness.

Big Shortages in Wheat Cargoes at Buffalo Are Causing Vesselmen to Make Some Charges.

Scales and Bins Here Have Been Examined and Pronounced Correct—Investigation to be Made.

There has been no change in the marine situation and vesselmen have no very strong hopes of immediate improvement. The numerous strikes about the country have had a great deal to do with the matter, and a good part of the dullness may be credited to them. A number of boats have laid up until the situation brightens, and more will probably follow. There are several boats in the harbor waiting cargoes which will go in as soon as the home port is reached. The Selwyn Eddy and H. B. Tuttle are among the boats laid up.

The Goebic range is starting up again, and if business there is resumed soon and Ashland begins to ship ore again it will probably result in a somewhat brighter outlook and many of the boats now lying idle will start up again. Of what little business there is the liners are doing the greater part. Yesterday and today, however, even liners were begging for cargoes. There is little business in wheat, but the situation is encouraging, not to say gloomy. Wheat at 1 1/2 cents, ore at 60 cents and lumber at $16 1/2 are merely nominal and little is doing.

There is a question in the minds of vesselmen about the discrepancies discovered in wheat cargoes lately. Vessels trading in Duluth have discharged very short cargoes in Buffalo. The Centurion was 695 bushels short, the North Wind 164 bushels, the North Star 537 bushels, the E. P. Weed 250 bushels, and the Spokane 500 bushels. Others will probably be discovered to be short later. Most of the cargoes seem to have been unloaded at the Sawyer elevator No. 1 in Buffalo. The question is whether the shortages occur in Duluth or Buffalo. As a vessel agent said this morning, the burden of proof lies upon the Buffalo elevators, and it has been proven that wheat stealing has occurred there, whereas nothing of the kind has ever happened in Duluth that anybody knows of. In a similar case some time ago the fault was fixed on the Buffalo elevators, and they were made to stand the damage. They, however, blame the shortages on the Duluth elevators. Mr. Barry, the state scale expert, has examined the scales, bins, etc., at No. 1 elevator in Duluth, where the boats were loaded, and pronounced them correct.

Never before have the discrepancies been so large. They have usually ranged from 50 to 125 bushels, and as an agent said this morning it has not been considered polite to steal over 50 bushels from one cargo. When a cent and a half is all that a boat gets out of her cargo, it comes pretty hard to put up 70 cents a bushel for such shortages, and the matter will be investigated.

A Hogg-Judging Incident.
Kansas City Star: Governor Hogg, who thanked God for Texas the other day, is in a fair way to be jailed for contempt of court, and that, too, by a little Texas judge. It is presumed that hereafter in his expressions of gratitude to the Duty the governor will note an exception to the local judiciary.

TERRIBLE ITCHING

Skin and Scalp. Tried Everything. Used Cuticura. In Three Weeks Not a Scar or Pimple.

When my baby was three months old his cheeks and forehead began to break out with white pimples on red surfaces. In a few days itching commenced, which was terrible. After he would rub his face and head with his hands, and then from the points. In a short time it spread over the top of his head, then scalp soon formed on head and face. We used everything we could hear of for nearly six months. It grew worse all the time. I saw your advertisement in a Chicago weekly. We purchased CUTICURA. It was used internally to cleanse the blood of all impurities and commenced their use. In three weeks' time there was not a sore or pimple, not even a bump on head or face. He is now six months old now, and has no signs of the disease. He is a healthy and he has a beautiful head of hair. (See Thursday's issue of the Chicago weekly.)

PROF. GENTRY'S
Wonderful Company of Equines and Canines.

Professor Gentry, with his army of educated ponies and dogs will be in this city under a tent at the corner of First street and Fourth avenue west, six nights, beginning Monday, July 23, matinee Thursday and Saturday. This company comes well recommended.

The troupe consists of sixteen ponies and forty dogs. The ponies are Romeo, Juliet, Lottie, May, New York, Spokane Falls, Orange, St. Paul, Denver, Portland, Star Drop, Eureka and Dimple. The last two are beautiful imported East India ponies, while the others are Shetlands. Among the ponies is a colt but one week old and which weighs but twenty-five pounds and which is a real curiosity.

Among the dogs which attracted especial notice on the stage were the following: The star clown dog Major, a white pointer, the dog finding it necessary to study the social organization and determine if the experiment of free government is a success or not. Mrs. Todd's talk was not particularly logical or consecutive, and her well worn money theories rather disappointed those who heard her Sunday and who had expected something better.

Had His Foot Crushed.
E. Simpson, son of St. Mary's hospital last evening with a badly crushed foot which will be saved. He is a switchman in the employ of the Omaha railroad.

Fun for the Youngsters.
With a 40-cent show at the rear of the Lyceum, and a dog and pig show at the rear of the Lyceum, both on First street, the block between Fourth and Fifth avenues west will be a great rendezvous for children next week.

MRS. TODD'S TALK.
Her Argument on the People's Party Contained No New Points.

John A. Keyes, the Populist candidate for attorney general, introduced Mrs. Marion Todd in a short speech at the Pavilion last night. "The people of the country," he said, "believe in women, and there is one party daring enough to endorse her right of suffrage—the People's party." She then tore Governor Nelson's letter to the people, which she said showed several alleged discrepancies which she said should defeat him if nothing else would. She said that the world is moving on, and that "instead of voting the slums the men are going to vote their wives and mothers." "People are beginning to believe in women, and there is one party daring enough to endorse her right of suffrage—the People's party." LUMBER COMPANY WINS.

Williston, Charley & Co. Secure a Judgment Against the Two Harbors Ore Dock.

Judge Ensign has decided the case of Williston, Charley & Co. against Matthews & Kutch and the Duluth & Iron Range road, a lien suit for the material used in building the ore dock at Two Harbors. He finds the plaintiff entitled to a lien for $10,000 on the dock and on the land, which is a half section in 52-11, and directs the sale of the premises to satisfy the judgment. The Iron Range is barred from all rights of redemption except those specified in the statutes.

Judge Ensign has dismissed the proceedings of the city against the East Duluth Land company to recover some assessments on the ground that the court has no jurisdiction because the notice of application was not in accordance with law in that it did not specify the exact assessment upon which the proceedings were based.

Judge Lewis this morning filed an order for the payment of certain preferred labor claims of the Emerson estate. An order was filed discharging H. J. Davis, assignee for Henry J. Cawcutt, the estate having been settled.

Some time ago a judgment was entered in favor of Sturgis Sellick et al. against Adeline Snyder. The suit was against Snyder as assignee for H. P. Ewing, but in some way it was not stated so in the complaint, and judgment was entered against him personally instead of as assignee. Judge Meier signed an order modifying the judgment so as to be against Snyder as assignee.

Marcus T. Bates has sued the Standard Ore company for $147,971 for services as bookkeeper and for money loaned. R. E. White & Co. have sued the Edwards & Bradford Lumber company for $832,02 for lumber unpaid for.

FELL DOWN THE SHAFT

Edward Murphy Killed at the Spalding This Morning by Dropping Into the Elevator Well.

He Fell From the Basement Floor to the Bottom, a Distance of About Ten Feet.

His Head Was Crushed, His Bones Broken and Death Came Before He Reached the Hospital.

Edward Murphy, a 15-year-old boy, employed by Judd & Thornton, the printers, fell down the freight elevator shaft at the Spalding this noon and received injuries which terminated his young life within half an hour.

The boy was delivering the bills of fare to the hotel as his daily custom. He always took them up to the kitchen, going up in the rear of the house. At 11:30 o'clock today he took the bills down as usual. At 11:50 o'clock he was found in the well of the shaft with his head fearfully crushed, his arm broken and his body bruised and bleeding. He had evidently fallen from the basement floor, a distance of 10 feet. He was unconscious and remained so.

The ambulance was called, the boy was placed therein and it started for St. Mary's hospital. Dr. Magie said at once that he could not live and so it proved for he died before reaching the hospital. The body was brought to Durkan's morgue.

A. Murphy, Sr., the boy's father, was frantic when the news was broken to him and it was some time before he could be brought to control himself. There are a number of sons and daughters in the family.

STILL BURN FIERCELY.

Forest Fires Are Raging Around Superior—Conditions at Hinckley Exaggerated.

A large tract of country to the west and south of Duluth has been covered with forest fires for the past two days. No rain has fallen to any extent for some time, and the woods are dry as tinder, and thus there is a real danger of considerable damage to timber and railway property may result. The Duluth & Winnipeg has sustained some loss in the way of telegraph poles, etc., but nothing serious is reported as yet.

Nine poles were burned on the Duluth & Winnipeg belt line south of the Northern Pacific crossing near Superior yesterday and a bridge between New Duluth and Short Line Park was badly damaged. Along the Northern Pacific on the Western line, the fire has spread and other property are threatened, but the section men are protecting it and great damage is not expected.

The fire department was called out in several places but their services were not required. In several instances the fires approached dangerously near small towns, but were kept away.

B. C. Bartlett, of Hinckley, who came in this morning, says that the reports of the St. Paul & Duluth are much exaggerated, and that no danger is apprehended.

NO FURTHER STRIKES.

All Seems to Be Calm and Serene in the Railroad Yards.

Everything is lovely in railroad circles in Duluth, so far as the late strike is concerned. The St. Paul & Duluth has on a full day crew in the yards. The night crew will not be made up until all likelihood of interference is removed. All the other roads report everything quiet and all work going on as usual.

The Eastern Minnesota men held a meeting yesterday, and it is understood that every man voted against any further strikes.

A Temperance Contest.

The Norwegian Methodist church, at the West End was crowded last evening, the occasion being a "turnout and temperance contest." Charles A. Towne and Mrs. H. C. Wetmore were elected judges and there were eight contestants, who recited as many different selections. The first prize went to Robert Haskins. It was a fine silver medal, appropriately engraved. The second prize, a fine album, was awarded to Miss Johnson, and the third prize, a high school souvenir spoon, was won by Master Eddie Hanson.

There was a number of lesser prizes, donated by West End people. At the close of the recitations and awards, Mr. Towne delivered an excellent address on educational matters.

Gebhard is Satisfied.

A telephone conversation with Yardmaster Gebhard, who has been rusticated out at the post house for several weeks, revealed the fact that Gebhard expects to be discharged from that unpopular institution Saturday.

"Say," said Gebhard over the wire, "tell the boys this is a dandy place; it's well looked after, and while I wouldn't choose it for a regular lay out if I was well, yet I'm glad they brought me here, and I had better care than even my own family could have given me at home. It was pretty smoky out here yesterday and the flames came pretty close, but there is no danger. All my temporary companions out here are doing well."

LINDRUP IS BACK.

The Runaway Tug Brought in by the Castle Today.

The Inman tug Castle arrived in port this morning at 10:30, towing the runaway tug A. C. Lindrup which had been seized by Deputy United States Marshal Cutting near Sault Ste. Marie. The Castle arrived at the Sault a few hours ahead of the Lindrup, passing the runaway between Whitefish point and the Sault. Upon arrival there Deputy Cut ting took the tug O. W. Cheney and son refused to meet the Lindrup. She was soon lashed by the marshal stepped aboard and took possession. John L. Sorenson, the owner, made some little demur but it had no effect.

Next evening the Castle started for Duluth towing the Lindrup behind her with Marshal Cutting on board. Sorenson refused to feed the United States official so Cutting was obliged to signal the Castle which always stopped and fed him whenever required. The crew of the Lindrup returned with her and Capt. John Picard, the boat's chief officer is now United States guard on the little craft which is securely tied up in the harbor. The boat is being used for a business trip to Port Arthur.

Rev. John F. Steiner, pastor of the First German Methodist church, was a passenger on the steamer Dixon to Port Arthur this morning. He is taking a short lake trip for the benefit of his health.

E. J. Seymour, assistant general freight agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, and A. C. Keyes, traveling freight agent of the same line, are in the city. They report an almost complete resumption of all classes of freight movement over their lines. They say the forest fires are very bad a few miles out.

W. H. Liner, of the A. Booth Packing company, is back in the city, having just returned from a business trip to Escanaba, Mich. Mr. Liner was an early visitor in Escanaba and has been in the same place greatly increased in value.

E. Herotz, who has been visiting in the city, leaves for Chicago this afternoon.

George H. Crosby is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Richard Schofield, who has for a number of years run one of the largest machine shops in Chicago, arrived with his family in Duluth this morning and is the guest of his brother, Fred Schofield. Mr. Schofield is anxious to get away from the city of anarchy and is today looking over several locations with a view of removing here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sheridan, of Madison, Wis., are sojourning in the city. Mr. Sheridan is state inspector of high schools for Wisconsin.

Police Were Sent For.

This morning about 6:30 o'clock some forty coal dock strikers congregated at Fifth avenue east and Fifth street and endeavored to prevent a number of workmen from reaching the docks. Threats of rough treatment were made and a telephone call was sent in for the police and a wagon loaded with officers was soon on the scene and dispersed the unruly interlopers. No arrests were made and the willing men got to their work on time.

The Municipal Court.

The morning's session of the municipal court was a very short one. James Hurley and John Anson, two determined and dilapidated drunks went "on the hill" ten days for repairs. Thomas Leslie was brought in on complaint of J. T. Armstead, of the Acme laundry, charged with collecting $622 and appropriating it to himself. Leslie is out on $50 bail, and says it's no such a thing. The case will come up tomorrow.

Will Weed Them Out.

The blind musical family which has been about the city for several days, singing and playing on the corner curb stones has gone to Superior, and will not be allowed to return here. The street fences expire tonight and several of them will not be permitted to take out fresh licenses. Chief Armstrong will weed out the undesirable ones.

A Merritt Camp.

Several members of several Merritt families went down the north shore this morning on the steamer Dixon to join the Merritt encampment on Isle Royale. There are now about forty members of the various branches of the Merritt family enjoying a summer's camp out on that most beautiful of all lake islands.

At the Pavilion tonight.

Adah Richmond and the Japs.

Notice to Builders.

A permit was issued this morning for the removal of the body of Mrs. Isabella M. Traphagen, wife of Charles G. Traphagen, who died Feb. 21, 1893. The remains will be shipped to Oskosh, Wis., next Friday.

Zenith chapter, No. 25, Order of the Eastern Star, will have a picnic on a large scale at Lester river next Friday.

A pile of burning rubbish near the Pabst beer warehouses alongside the St. Paul & Duluth tracks called the fire department out about noon today. No damage was done.

F. P. Frisbee was granted a permit for the erection of a $5500 frame dwelling on First street between Eleventh and Twelfth avenues east. Dr. Phelan also received a permit for a $3000 addition to his residence at 405 East Third street.

The death of John Lynch at St. Luke's hospital, of cancer of the stomach, was reported this morning. Deceased was 45 years old and a county charge.

Daniel Darrah, late of Canada, announced his intention of becoming an American citizen in the United States court office this morning.

The baskets for the Bethel picnic must be left at the Bethel by 9 a.m. tomorrow. The children are to be at the canal by 10 a.m. sharp, so as to take the Park Point cars at 10:30 a.m.

Forty applicants for teachers' certificates presented themselves at County Superintendent Sultz's examinations held at the high school this morning. The results are not known as yet.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church will take a moonlight ride on the steamer R. G. Stewart on the evening of July 20, leaving the Fifth avenue dock at 8 o'clock p.m. Tickets to be obtained from members at 25c. Nice refreshments, plenty of good music and a general good time. Come and bring your friends.

One hundred and fifty newboys formed in front of The Herald office last evening and marched down to the Temple theater and attended the Baldwin-Melville performance. This was by courtesy of the management.

FIERCE BATTLE.

Native and Italians Have a Desperate Fight With a Force of Derivishes in Egypt.

The Italian Troops Were Victorious and Kassala, Where the Derivishes Sought Refuge, Was Captured.

Derivishes' Loss Was Very Heavy and the Italians Secured Many Flags and Numerous Cannon.

The Derivishes Raided an Italian Village, Killing Some and Carrying off Others as Slaves.

MASSOWAH, Egypt, July 19.—A fierce battle has taken place between a force of natives and Italians commanded by the governor general and a large force of Derivishes that had sought refuge in Kassala. The Italian troops were victorious and Kassala was captured. A large body of Derivishes recently raided Caracat, an Italian village, killed many of the inhabitants, and captured and sent to the interior as slaves all those who were not massacred.

After leaving Caracat, the Derivishes marched towards Agordat, with the intention of capturing the place. News of the raid reached the governor general who was at Keren, the Barca river, an Italian post somewhat less than half way between this place and Kassala. The governor general had at his disposal a force of 2,000 troops, natives and Italians, commanded by other officers.

With this force he started in pursuit of the Derivishes, and after three days' toilsome marching, during which the troops suffered considerably, arrived in the vicinity of Kassala. The Derivishes, at the approach of the Italian column, sought refuge in Kassala and prepared for a desperate resistance.

The governor general camped for a while on the March river and made preparations to carry Kassala by assault. On the morning of Tuesday last, July 17, the Italian troops being thoroughly rested, an advance was made upon Kassala. The Derivishes defended themselves with desperate bravery, but the town was finally carried by assault after a fierce battle which lasted for several hours.

Then fought. The loss of the Derivishes was very heavy and the Italians captured many flags and a large number of cannon.

ORDERED TO BLUEFISHES.

Cruiser Columbia Will Start as Soon as She Is Got Ready.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Secretary Herbert has ordered the cruiser Columbia, now at the New York navy yard, to proceed to Bluefishes just as soon as she can be made ready for the trip.

The order was issued because of the disturbed and threatening state of affairs there.

Seven Men Killed.

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., July 19.—An accident resulting in the death of seven men occurred today. A Trinity house boat, having a crew of seven trained wreckers on board, was engaged in blowing up the wreck of the yacht Azalia in the Solent, as it was dangerous to navigation. In some manner, which will never be known, a dynamite cartridge exploded, killing the seven men and shattering the boat.

Indictments Against Strikers.

ST. PAUL, July 19.—In the United States district court today the cases of sixty reported between fifty-five and sixty indictments against strikers and others for interference with the mails during the recent strike on the various northwestern roads. Bench warrants were issued and until the arrests are made no names will be given out.

An Outrage by White Caps.

ST. LOUIS, July 19.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Oxford, Ala., says: A mob of thirty Whitecaps, went to home of Jack Brownlee, colored, shot his house full of holes, beat the doors down and took him to the woods where he was stripped and whipped almost to death. He was ordered to leave the country. He has not been seen since and it is thought he was killed. Political cases are alleged.

The Drouth Broken.

ST. PAUL, July 19.—In many parts of the Dakotas and in Northwestern Minnesota the severe drouth has been broken by very heavy rains, 2 inches of rainfall being reported around Vermilion, S. D., and other sections having a thorough drenching.

A Railroad Sold.

NEW YORK, July 19.—A dispatch from Memphis says: The Memphis Street Railway company, controlled by A. M. Billings, of Chicago, has purchased for $1,000,000 the Memphis & Raleigh Springs railroad.

Tramps Seize a Train.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 19.—An Alpena, S. D., special to the Journal says: About 200 tramps took possession of the Milwaukee freight, stoned the train crew off and refused to leave. The division superintendent wired the conductor to eject them.

Earthquake Shock.

MONACO, July 19.—A slight shock of earthquake was experienced here at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

INDIANS BECAME MUTINOUS.

They Took Possession of a Steamer But Were Finally Overpowered.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 19.—The sailing schooner C. D. Rasmussen has returned from a sealing cruise which was cut short by a mutiny of Indian hunters. The first signs of mutiny appeared off Sitka on June 15, when the wages were paid. The Indians then lowered their canoes, and prepared to desert the ship.

Owing to the new regulations Indians are the only hunters available for Bering sea, as white men cannot use spears, so the Indians demanded $5 per canoe extra. To this the captain agreed and the Indians returned to the schooner. The Indians again mutinied and took possession of the vessel.

The mutineers numbered twenty-one while the captain had only five white men and two faithful Indians to help him. The Indians threatened to cut the throats of the faithful seven and intended to scuttle the vessel, securing the skins they believed in the hold. Several times the vessel captived owing to their bad management.

At last the captain and his seven men got the drop on the mutineers and drove them into the hold, where they shot them up. He then sailed for Sitka, where he obtained handcuffs from the government officials and brought the Indians down in iron.

MEAN WILLING TO WORK.

Manager Middleton Busy Registering Them at Pullman.

CHICAGO, July 19.—At the Pullman works today Manager Middleton was busily engaged registering men willing to work at the stock yards to assist in the strike. The stock yards are so situated that the shops will open as soon as sufficient force is secured has developed considerable weakness among the strikers and it is claimed in two hours today the manager claimed to have registered 325 men. A force of about 1,200 will be necessary before the work will resume.

The Debs manifesto resulting in the Overton edict, warning all railroad men at the stock yards to assist in the strike, has been "branded as scabs" seemed to have little effect today on the men to whom it was addressed or upon the situation at the stock yards generally. Railroad employees returned to their work as usual, switching was continued, and the packers seemed inclined to treat the matter as a joke.

The receipts of the different packing houses, showed that business is improving. There are about 13,000 head of cattle, 28,000 hogs and 500 sheep.

The stock yards company will endeavor to solve the problem of securing protection for its men by erecting a building, by lodging and boarding them in its buildings. Cots were placed in some of the houses today.

The young men of workingmen by strikers still goes on and coupling pins are being used on heads nearly as often as on trains. Considerable alarm is felt lest the men of last night should prove to be only the first of a number of outrages.

THE ST. PAUL GLOBE SOLD.

It Was Disposed of at Auction to the Kittson Heirs.

ST. PAUL, July 19.—The Daily Globe, which has been in the hands of a receiver for the past year, was today sold at auction, the highest bidder being Charles Weaver, of Chicago, who represented the Kittson heirs, whose interest in the paper was the largest single holding.

His bid was for $65,000, which covered nearly all the receiver's obligations. The Kittsons have besides over $100,000 invested in the property so that the sale price really is $175,000.

WERE TERRIBLY BURNED.

Workmen Injured by a Converter at Homestead Blowing Out.

PITTSBURGH, July 19.—The bottom of a converter at the Homestead steel works of Carnegie & Co., at Homestead blew out at 10:30 o'clock, scattering 300 pounds of molten metal in every direction.

Four workmen who were in the pit were terribly burned, two of them fatally. The young men of workingmen by strikers still goes on and coupling pins are being used on heads nearly as often as on trains. Considerable alarm is felt lest the men of last night should prove to be only the first of a number of outrages.

Riot Proclamation.

OAKLAND, Cal., July 19.—Mayor Pardee has issued a riot proclamation, in which he orders crowds off the streets and requires that people keep indoors, threatening the destruction of property, legitimate business. The reason for the proclamation is stated by the mayor to be a condition of affairs in Oakland threatening the destruction of property, disturbance of the peace, interference of travel by railroad trains and the cessation of commerce.

Pension Fraud Cases.

ST. PAUL, July 19.—In the United States district court today the cases of the pension examiners from Austin, charged with fraudulent charges, were taken up. Dr. W. L. Hollister pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $1000, while the case against Dr. Wheat was nolle, and Dr. Gibson will be tried later for the same charges.

Purchased for a Million.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—John Crosley & Sons, Brussels manufacturers of England, have purchased the big mill of Horner Bros. in this city. The mill gives employment to 800 hands. The price paid is said to be $1,000,000. The new purchasers will take charge in September.

Work Resumed.

KENT, Ohio, July 19.—Work was resumed at the Erie railway shops, located at this place, today. The employees, who were discharged because of their face the people after indulging in such outrageous discriminations and violations of principle.

A DIRECT BLOW

Strong Letter From President Cleveland to Chairman Wilson In Regard to the Tariff Bill.

Deals a Direct Blow at Any Surrender to the Senate Bill By the House.

Cannot Accord With Democratic Principles If It Does Not Provide for Free Raw Materials.

The President Pleads That Sugar Is a Legitimate and Logical Article of Revenue Taxation.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Intense interest was created by Mr. Wilson's announcement in the house today that he had a letter from President Cleveland, which the latter had permitted to be made public. The letter was then sent to the desk and read, amid profound silence. The letter was in the president's vigorous style and was a stirring tribute to the Wilson bill and a direct blow at any surrender to the senate bill. President Cleveland's letter is as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, July 2, 1894.—(Personal.) Hon. William L. Wilson—My Dear Sir: The certainty that a conference will be ordered between the two houses of congress for the purpose of adjusting differences on the subject of tariff legislation, makes it also certain that you will again be called upon to do hard service in the cause of tariff reform.

My public life has been closely related to the subject, I have so longed for its accomplishment, and I have so often promised its realization to my fellow countrymen as a result of their trust and confidence in the Democratic party, I cannot resist myself in this crisis you strenuously insist upon party honesty and good faith and a sturdy adherence to Democratic principles. I believe these are absolutely necessary conditions to the continuation of Democratic existence.

I cannot rid myself of the feeling that this conference will present the best, if not the only hope of true Democracy. Indications point to its action as the means of settling the question of tariff reform. To reconcile differences in the details comprised within the fixed and well defined lines of principle will not be the sole task of the conference, but, as it seems to me, the members will also be in charge the question whether Democratic principles themselves are to be saved or abandoned.

There is no excuse for mistaking or misapprehending the feeling and the temper of the rank and file of the Democracy. They are down upon the tariff. The assertion that their party fails in its ability to manage the government and they are apprehensive that efforts to bring about a tariff reform may fail, but they are much more downcast and apprehensive in their fear that Democratic principle may be surrendered.

In these circumstances they cannot do otherwise than to look with confidence to you and those who have patriotic and sincerely championed the cause of tariff reform within Democratic lines and guided by Democratic principles. This confidence is vastly augmented by the action under your leadership of the house of representatives upon the bill now pending.

Every true Democrat and every sincere tariff reformer knows that, this bill, in its present form and as it will be submitted to the conference, falls far short of the consummation for which we have long labored, for which we have suffered defeat without discouragement; which in its anticipation gave us a rallying cry in our day of triumph, and which in its promise of accomplishment is so interwoven with Democratic pledges and Democratic success that our abandonment of the cause or the principles upon which it rests would mean party perdition and party dishonor.

One topic will be submitted to the conference which embodies Democratic principles so directly that it cannot be compromised. We have in our platform and in every way possible declared in favor of the free importation of raw materials. We have again and again promised that this should be accorded to our people and our manufacturers, as soon as the Democratic party was invested with the power to determine the tariff policy of the country. The party has now that power. We are as certain today as we have ever been of the great benefit that would accrue to the country from the inauguration of this policy and nothing has occurred to release us from our obligation to secure this advantage to our people. It must be admitted that no tariff measure can accord with Democratic principles and promises or bear a genuine Democratic badge that does not provide for free raw materials.

In these circumstances it may well excite our wonder that Democrats are willing to depart from this, the most Democratic of all tariff principles, and that the inconsistent absurdity of such a proposed departure should be emphasized by the suggestion that the wool of the farmer be put on the free list and the protection of tariff taxation be placed around the iron ore and coal of Colorado and copper of Arizona.

How can we face the people after indulging in such outrageous discriminations and violations of principle?

It is quite apparent that this question of free raw material does not admit of adjustment of any middle ground, since their subjection to any rate of tariff taxation, great or small, is alike violative of Democratic principle and Democratic good faith. I hope that you will not consider it intrusive if I say something in relation to another subject which can

BACK TO CONFER

Motion to Insist On the House Disagreement to the Senate Amendments Adopted Without Division.

The Tariff Bill Was Sent Back to Conference, the Speaker Appointing the Same Conference.

Chairman Wilson's Appearance Was the Signal For a Great Demonstration on the Democratic Side.

Tom Johnson Protested Against Special Order Because It Gave No Chance For Separate Instructions.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The galleries were crowded and the scene on the floor was an animated one in anticipation of the debate on the tariff conference report when the house met today. While the journal was being read, Chairman Wilson entered the room. His head was bound with a white handkerchief, and he was evidently suffering great pain. His appearance was the signal for a great demonstration on the Democratic side, members cheering wildly at the sight of their tariff leader.

There were no preliminaries. As soon as the reading of the journal had been completed, Mr. Outwater, of Ohio, from the committee on rules, offered the following resolution, under which two hours were to be allowed to debate the conference report on the tariff bill:

"Resolved, that after the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order when the cause confers on house bill 4864 (the tariff bill) make a report of disagreement, to move that the house insist upon its disagreement to the senate amendments to said bill in gross and ask a further conference with the senate on the disagreement votes of the two houses thereon. That two hours of debate shall be allowed upon said motion and then without other motion the vote shall be taken thereon. Should such motion prevail the speaker shall at once appoint the house conferees and the matter shall then, for the time being, pass from the consideration of the house."

Mr. Hopkins attempted to offer an amendment to extend the time to four hours, but objection was made. The previous question was ordered. This gave thirty minutes for debate. Mr. Reed took the floor and offered a word of protest. He said that the resolution was a mere formality and that it was a waste of time to debate it. He said that the house should insist upon its disagreement to the senate amendments to said bill in gross and ask a further conference with the senate on the disagreement votes of the two houses thereon. He said that the house should insist upon its disagreement to the senate amendments to said bill in gross and ask a further conference with the senate on the disagreement votes of the two houses thereon.

Mr. Johnson asked, "in case this order is agreed to will it be in order to instruct the committee on sugar or any other single item?"

"If the disagreements are insisted upon," replied the speaker, "it would not be in order to move separate instructions."

"That is what I thought," retorted Mr. Johnson, "and why I shall vote against this order."

"If the house insists upon its disagreement," interjected Mr. Warner, of New York, "it will be in order to instruct the committee on sugar or any other single item?"

Mr. Reed then arose. After what Mr. Johnson had said, he began, the house could see what it would do to itself if it adopted this rule. It would give the house no opportunity to express its opinion on the vital points of difference between the house and the senate, but would mingle all the differences together without giving to the vital points any particular strength or emphasis. "It could not be by a separate vote," said he, "strengthen the hands of the house conferees in the game of what shall I call it?"

"A bluff," shouted a voice as Mr. Reed paused.

"No," continued Mr. Reed, deprecatingly, "not a bluff."

The order of the rules committee was adopted by the house and Chairman Wilson was recognized. There was a burst of hearty applause from the Democratic side as he arose with the tariff bill and disagreeing report in his hands. He sent the report of disagreement to the speaker's desk and it was read, briefly stating the disagreement in toto.

He said the main difference had been upon sugar, iron ore, coal, silver, lead, ore, some features of woolen schedule, some iron and steel schedules and particularly steel rails and structural iron. "But," he said, "the great difference has been on sugar."

The senate, he said, had adopted a sugar schedule which, whether true, or not, had been covered by public and press of the country as a concession to the sugar trust. "If it is true," said he, "that the sugar trust has grown so strong that it can say no bill can pass until its interests are protected, then I hope this house will never adjourn."

Mr. Wilson was cut short by a burst of applause which lasted half a minute. Members threw documents in the air and the gallery joined in the demonstration.

At 1:50 the motion to insist on the house disagreement to the senate amendments was adopted without division and the bill was sent back to conference, the speaker appointing the same conferees.

FOR THE ALTAMONTE BILL.

Maj. Baldwin Made a Speech in Its Favor Today.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—[Special to The Herald.]—Representative Baldwin appeared before the house Indian affairs committee today to urge the passage of the Altamonte company's bill. He argued that the opposition from Clouet was only on the part of the boom company, who feared that by the building of this dam their lumber monopoly would be destroyed as logs could then be floated down to Duluth.

Representative Boen made a short speech in opposition to the bill. The committee took no action today.

NEW MINISTER TO RUSSIA.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The president today sent the following nominations to the senate: Clifton R. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Russia, vice Andrew D. White, resigned; George E. Letourneau, to be postmaster at Windom, Minn.

ANOTHER SUGAR INQUIRY.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The senate sugar trust investigating committee has decided to investigate the new charges of sugar speculation by senators.

The Russian Thistle.
According to latest advice from Washington there bids fair to be a deadlock between the conferees on the agricultural appropriation bill over the senate amendment carrying $1,000,000 for the extermination of the Russian thistle in the Dakotas. Senator Hansbrough won a long legislative fight, and one which looked at times like a hopeless one, when he succeeded in getting his plan tacked on as an amendment to the twelfth hour and carried by a narrow majority. Early this session the senator from North Dakota entered upon his crusade against the thistle, introducing a bill to give the sum finally appropriated to kill it, but the bill met defeat in both the house and senate committees.

Governor Shortridge came from Dakota to urge congress to do something for it in its fight against the weed. It was represented that the government owned large tracts of land infested by the weed and that the nature of the plant was such that unless it was totally cleared away, its seed would be carried by the wind and all efforts of the farmers toward clearing their own lands would amount only to suppression and not to extermination.

Secretary J. Sterling Morton wrote a letter opposing the grant asked for on the ground that it savored of paternalism, and recommended that the work should be done by the states or individuals rather than the general government.
Incidentally he made a humorous suggestion that in view of the fact that sheep would eat the thistle, the Dakota farmers might abandon wheat growing and turn their attention to raising sheep.

His suggestion was taken seriously in some quarters and led to correspondence between the secretary and members of the house committee on agriculture.

After wrestling with the question for some time, the house committee killed the bill, their action being influenced by certain parties who wrote that they considered other weeds more destructive in Dakota than the thistle, but the point of paternalism was the chief reason for the action. The senate committee followed the action of the house in reporting adversely upon the bill, but finally Senator George, its chairman, was induced to change his position on the representation that the government was a large land holder in the thistle ridden section, and the bill was tacked on as an amendment to the regular agricultural bill.

Economy in appropriations has been generally enforced in the house this session. The thistle appropriation is the largest addition made to any of the regular house bills and the committee on agriculture is talking defiance to the senatorial raise. Still Senator Hansbrough may win in the end. If he does he will score a great victory.

The Korean Trouble.
The report that Secretary Gresham has sent a dispatch to the Japanese authorities saying that this government would view with displeasure a declaration of war against a weak and defenseless country like Korea, seems incredible, because it is such a serious breach of diplomatic usage. The fact that no official denial has been offered to the story, gives a color of truth to it, however, and increases the wonder that Secretary Gresham should thus offend a nation that has always been friendly to the United States and at the same time lend his aid to the designs of the Chinese emperor.

There is no danger of Japan declaring war upon Korea. Therefore Secretary Gresham's unsolicited advice is entirely out of place. If any war should occur over Korea it would be between China and Japan. Such a contest would be viewed with interest by military men in Europe and America. The greater part of the Chinese army is still a barbaric horde. Nominally China has 1,200,000 men in her army, but of this force not more than a third could be brought into the field, and only a part of these have modern arms and organization.

Japan has a compact army, organized
and equipped in accordance with the best European models. It numbers in time of peace 80,000 men, but can be expanded to three times this strength in war by calling out reserves, militia and
other local troops.

The Chinese navy is stronger in modern battleships than the Japanese, but
the latter has several remarkably fine
and swift cruisers. The Chinese some months ago sent a very powerful squadron to Yokohama, ostensibly to return certain Japanese courtesies, but probably as a hint to Japan to be careful how
she boarded the government of Peking.
China has had most of her ships built abroad and has hired English officers to form her seamen and gunners.

A Month With a Record.
During the past century July has held
the record as the chief month of revolution, disorder and disturbance. It was in July, the Detroit News recalls, that
the Bastille was taken at the beginning of the French revolution; in July next year that King Louis XVI was deposed.

It was in July that Charlotte Corday killed Marat, that the reign of terror was
at its height, that Robespierre and the terrorists were guillotined and the turmoil eventually ended.

It was in July that the Declaration of Independence was signed, that the battle of Bull Run, the beginning of the civil war, was fought, and in July the critical period of the war was reached at the victory of Gettysburg. It was in July, too, that New York was for three days during the war at the mercy of mobs in the anti-draft riot. It was in July that the great railroad strike of 1877 reached its height
in the Pittsburgh riot, and it is in July
that a strike thus far unprecedented in the history of industrial conflicts has occurred.

Whether it is the consequence of the high temperature in July that beats the blood and the temper, or a mere coincidence, it is certain that many of the greatest modern upheavals of this sort
have happened in July. At any rate, with the mercury ranging among the nineties, it is not strange that men get ill-tempered and anxious to fight.

The New York constitutional convention
will probably abolish the office of coroner, which has lost its usefulness.
A prosecuting attorney, who is one of the delegates to the convention, declared
he had always found the office of coroner
a detriment and never a help in the prosecution of crime. It is useless for purposes of justice. The inquest is a mere tradition of the past, and of no present practical use. On a ballot being taken only one delegate voted in favor of retaining the office of coroner. Massachusetts abolished the office many
years ago.

A man who is almost blind has been nominated by the president for justice
of the peace in the District of Columbia,
and the committee to which it was referred reported unanimously against the confirmation of the appointment, but Senator Proctor, in his Yankee drawl remarked: "Justice has always been represented to be blind, and I therefore suggest that his infirmity ought to be considered an advantage. I move that he be confirmed." And he was confirmed unanimously.

Editor Taylor of the Madison State Journal has got himself nominated for governor of Wisconsin as follows: "Informal ballot, 67; first formal ballot, the same; second formal ballot, 57; third formal ballot, 55; fourth formal ballot, 123;
fifth formal ballot, 187; a majority over
all. Nomination made unanimous.
The other candidates may upset this
very pleasant calculation.

The deadlock between the house and senate conferees on the tariff bill apparently means another long wait for the final settlement of this question. It is hardly likely that the senators will yield,

into the field, and only a part of these
have modern arms and organization.

confirmation of the appointment, but Senator Proctor, in his Yankee drawl remarked: "Justice has always been represented to be blind, and I therefore
suggest that his infirmity ought to be considered an advantage. I move that he be confirmed." And he was confirmed unanimously.

Editor Taylor of the Madison State Journal has got himself nominated for governor of Wisconsin as follows: "Informal ballot, 67; first formal ballot, the
same; second formal ballot, 57; third formal ballot, 55; fourth formal ballot, 123;
fifth formal ballot, 187; a majority over
all. Nomination made unanimous.
The other candidates may upset this
very pleasant calculation.

The deadlock between the house and
senate conferees on the tariff bill apparently means another long wait for
the final settlement of this question. It
is hardly likely that the senators will yield,

into the field, and only a part of these
have modern arms and organization.
Japan has a compact army, organized
and equipped in accordance with the
best European models. It numbers in
time of peace 80,000 men, but can be expanded to three times this strength in
war by calling out reserves, militia and
other local troops.

The Chinese navy is stronger in modern battleships than the Japanese, but
the latter has several remarkably fine
and swift cruisers. The Chinese some months ago sent a very powerful squadron to Yokohama, ostensibly to return
certain Japanese courtesies, but probably as a hint to Japan to be careful how
she boarded the government of Peking.
China has had most of her ships built abroad and has hired English officers to
form her seamen and gunners.

A Month With a Record.
During the past century July has held
the record as the chief month of revolution, disorder and disturbance. It was
in July, the Detroit News recalls, that
the Bastille was taken at the beginning
of the French revolution; in July next
year that King Louis XVI was deposed.

It was in July that Charlotte Corday
killed Marat, that the reign of terror was
at its height, that Robespierre and the terrorists were guillotined and the turmoil eventually ended.

It was in July that the Declaration of Independence was signed, that the battle of Bull Run, the beginning of the civil
war, was fought, and in July the critical
period of the war was reached at the victory of Gettysburg. It was in July, too,
that New York was for three days during the
war at the mercy of mobs in the anti-
draft riot. It was in July that the great railroad strike of 1877 reached its height
in the Pittsburgh riot, and it is in July
that a strike thus far unprecedented in the history of industrial conflicts has occurred.

Whether it is the consequence of the
high temperature in July that beats the
blood and the temper, or a mere coincidence, it is certain that many of the
greatest modern upheavals of this sort
have happened in July. At any rate,
with the mercury ranging among the
nineties, it is not strange that men get
ill-tempered and anxious to fight.

will probably abolish the office of
coroner, which has lost its usefulness.
A prosecuting attorney, who is one of
the delegates to the convention, declared
he had always found the office of coroner
a detriment and never a help in the prosecution of crime. It is useless for purposes of justice. The inquest is a mere tradition of the past, and of no present practical use. On a ballot being taken only one delegate voted in favor
of retaining the office of coroner. Massachusetts abolished the office many
years ago.

A man who is almost blind has been nominated by the president for justice
of the peace in the District of Columbia,
and the committee to which it was referred reported unanimously against the
confirmation of the appointment, but Senator Proctor, in his Yankee drawl remarked: "Justice has always been represented to be blind, and I therefore
suggest that his infirmity ought to be considered an advantage. I move that he be confirmed." And he was confirmed unanimously.

Plowed Under.
I saw a field of rich, green clover grow
in blossom today-just for the here;
And turning to the owner, who stood by,
I asked what time the harvesting would be.

"I will not be gathered in," "How then?" I cried.

"Have you no recompense for all your toil?"
The farmer smiled, he was more wise than I:
"I plow it under to enrich the soil."

And all at once I seemed to see more clear
Some things that I had tried to comprehend; Has not the least, like that broad field, its growth?

Think over now to reach their destined end!

It is early dreams that perish unfulfilled?
Is youthful hopes that vanish ere their prime?
Is fond affection and its true love's dream Borne down before their perfect blossom time?

I mused on these, and as I turned my feet
Back to the city, with its swift turmoil,
I smiled and said, in tranquil, sweet content:
"God plums them under to enrich the soil."

ORDINANCE IV.

The Board of Park Commissioners of the City of Duluth do ordain:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to break, injure, remove or destroy any tree or tree, shrubbery or ornamental plants or to dig up, carry away or destroy any turf or sod planted or growing in and upon any of the parkways of the city of Duluth, or in or upon that portion of the streets and avenues of the city of Duluth subject to the jurisdiction and control of this board, and lying between the curb line and lot line of said streets and ave-

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to dig up, plant or shrub, planted or growing in any of the parkways of the city of Duluth, or in or upon that portion of the streets and avenues of the city of Duluth subject to the jurisdiction and
control of this board, and lying between the
curb line and lot line of said streets and avenues, or to fasten any such animal in any manner as to cause injury to or destruction of any tree, plant or shrub growing in or upon or to allow any such animal to run at large thereon.

Section 3. Any person who shall be convicted of a violation of this ordinance shall be fined not less than $10.00, or more than $100.00, or be imprisoned in the city jail for not more than thirty days.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

SHORT LIVED STRIKE.

South Shore Employees Quit and Afterward Asked to Be Reinstated.

There was a small attempt at a strike on the South Shore at Superior yesterday. In sympathy with the strike in the terminal yards a freight crew refused to take out a train. Two new crews were brought up from Marquette and after a conference with the striking crew they called off the strike and asked for reinstatement. It was granted and no further trouble is probable.

The strike on the terminal system in Superior remains about the same, the company being able to transact all its business.

The roads at the head of the lakes have been notified that the Great Northern road will handle all classes of freight except that of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. During the strike the Great Northern refused to handle the cars of any road that was engaged in the strike.

All the roads are working smoothly. The Northern Pacific yesterday resumed the sale of tickets through to the coast. Passenger traffic, which has been delayed somewhat by the strike, is becoming very brisk on all roads.

THE DEATH OF THOMAS LEE FITZGERALD.

A. Murphy called at 11c Herald office this afternoon and wished the following statement made in regard to the death of his son yesterday: "The statement in the News Tribune this morning by Dr. Eklund to the effect that the boy made a mistake in attempting to leave the building and opened the wrong door is incorrect. The fact is that the elevator landed in that part of the building in which the accident occurred is dark, and any person must be careful, as it is a very dangerous place. The boy has gone there about six times a day for the past week or more and was very well acquainted with the surroundings. The door that leads out of the building to the street is a light door and easily opened, while the elevator door is a heavy sliding door, except that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. During the strike the Great Northern refused to handle the cars of any road that was engaged in the strike.

The Central Gun club is anticipating a big time at Two Harbors next Sunday, where the clubs of Two Harbors, Tower, Ely and Duluth will have a shoot. The club from here will go on the Nautilus. Special trains will run on the Iron Range road from Ely Tower and Biwabik. The steamer Stewart will also run from Duluth.

Is There to be a Change?

The members of the board of public works are suffering with the heat which seems to have affected them to the extent that they cannot remember names. A gentleman from Chicago, said to be a very thorough and capable engineer is here looking over the city and studying its grades and elevations. Rumor connects him with the city engineer's position in the near future, but nothing definite is known as yet.

There will be a campfire at G. A. R. hall, No. 32 East Superior street, Friday evening July 20. Supper from 6 to 8 p. m. All comrades or old soldiers and all others are invited to attend.

THE DISTRICT COURT

Edmund Sherwood Files an Amended Complaint in His Action Against Judge Roger S. Powell.

Two Insurance Companies, Defendants in the Suits Brought By Levine Brothers Have Defaulted.

Democrats Are Liable to Have a Lively Time in Organizing their Club This Evening.

Edmund Sherwood has filed an amended complaint in his $10,000 damage suit for defamation of character against Municipal Judge Powell. It will be remembered that a demurrer to his first complaint on the ground of insufficient cause for action was sustained and Sherwood was allowed to make an amended complaint. The new one is practically the same as the old one. Sherwood and Powell were law partners, and after the dissolution of the former sued for his share of the partnership funds. In his answer, which was thrown out, Powell charged Sherwood with conspiring with abandoned characters and using the office for a place of assignation.

Some time ago Levine Brothers filed suits against a number of insurance companies for insurance, above the amounts granted by the adjuster. Two of the companies have allowed their cases to go by default, and judgments were filed this morning, in favor of the Levine brothers, for $134.16 and $134.16 and against the Buffalo German Insurance company for $142.01.

Martin Sorenson, who made an assignment Tuesday, this morning filed a schedule of assets and liabilities. The liabilities are $35,953.63 and the assets are $54,076.71. J. H. Norbury, his assignee, has filed $11,500 bonds with J. R. Carey and Charles W. Ericson as sureties.

DEMOCRATS WILL BE OUT.

Prospects For a Lively Meeting at the City Hall Tonight Are Good.

The city hall will not begin to hold the crowd which will gather tonight to organize a Democratic club. The committee on constitution and bylaws will present a unanimous report. For president of the club, H. F. Greene will be the candidate of the Brown men. Several are spoken of as candidates of the anti-Brown faction, the most prominently mentioned one being A. L. Thurman.

Mr. Murphy's Statement.

A. Murphy called at 11c Herald office this afternoon and wished the following statement made in regard to the death of his son yesterday: "The statement in the News Tribune this morning by Dr. Eklund to the effect that the boy made a mistake in attempting to leave the building and opened the wrong door is incorrect. The door that leads out of the building to the street is a light door and easily opened, while the elevator door is a heavy sliding door, except that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. During the strike the Great Northern refused to handle the cars of any road that was engaged in the strike.

The Central Gun club is anticipating a big time at Two Harbors next Sunday, where the clubs of Two Harbors, Tower, Ely and Duluth will have a shoot. The club from here will go on the Nautilus. Special trains will run on the Iron Range road from Ely Tower and Biwabik. The steamer Stewart will also run from Duluth.

Is There to be a Change?

The members of the board of public works are suffering with the heat which seems to have affected them to the extent that they cannot remember names. A gentleman from Chicago, said to be a very thorough and capable engineer is here looking over the city and studying its grades and elevations. Rumor connects him with the city engineer's position in the near future, but nothing definite is known as yet.

There will be a campfire at G. A. R. hall, No. 32 East Superior street, Friday evening July 20. Supper from 6 to 8 p. m. All comrades or old soldiers and all others are invited to attend.

FIRE AT A MOB

Two Companies of Militia Were Forced to Fire Two Volleys at a Mob of Rioters.

The Crowd Had Stopped a Freight Train and Applied the Torch to Many Cars.

After Dispersing the Rioters, the Troops Extinguished the Fire and Sent the Train Ahead.

Shocking Story of the Treatment of Denver Coxeyites Who Are Imprisoned at Fort Sydney.

HAMMOND, Ind., July 20.—A mob of 500 men attacked a freight train on the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroad at Whiting, late last night and succeeded in stopping it. Coupling pins were drawn and air brake hose cut and the torch was applied to many of the cars. The alarm was given and two companies of militia hurried to the scene. The crowd showed a disposition to fight and two volleys were fired by the troops. It is not thought that anyone was seriously hurt. After dispersing the rioters, the troops turned their attention to saving the train. The fires were extinguished and the cars coupled and the train sent on its way with a heavy guard. All trains are now being run under military protection.

COXEYITES BADLY TREATED.
Prisoners Who Are Liable to An Epidemic of Typhoid.

DENVER, July 20.—A special to the News from Fort Sidney, Neb., says the 200 members of the Denver contingent of the Coxey army who are here under arrest are liable to be afflicted with an epidemic of typhoid fever. The symptoms are already manifest and there are at least three well defined cases of scurvy caused by their present food and surroundings. The men have been confined more than a month in a small building, hardly large enough to accommodate one-half their number. Many of the prisoners have no blankets or other covering from the damp night air and are compelled to sleep on the bare floor, which is overlaid with vermin. They are without the most common convenience generally granted to even the lowest class of criminals in all prisons.

The sick call every morning brings from twenty-five to fifty before the doctor. The hospital is taxed to its utmost capacity. A man, however, must be very sick to get there and once in he has to trust to luck for recovery more than upon the treatment or medicine. The guard house, however, is more easy of access and a slight infraction of the "rules" entitles the victim to a three days' residence there on a strict bread and water diet. The men are guarded by about forty deputy United States marshals, who allow no outside access except an occasional bath in the creek.

Two scant meals a day are given, generally consisting of boiled beef, often tainted, bread and so-called coffee. Sometimes alleged "steak" is given, consisting of the same beef, with an onion and a half potato per man. The broth is thickened with Sur. Generally the whole mess is badly scorched in cooking and tastes like burned hair. Once fish was given—salt as the ocean, partly dried and half cooked, with the heads and scales left on. Beans and cabbages have been given out once or twice, but in such small quantities as to be scarcely worth mentioning.

The men were arrested at Big Springs, Neb., on June 13 and were herded in this den of filth for two weeks before a trial was granted. They claim that this trial was worse than a farce and strongly resembled what they call "kangaroo" justice. None have thus far been informed of any sentence and several who pleaded not guilty are receiving the same treatment as those who pleaded guilty. The latter claim that they were tricked into making this plea on promises of speedy sentence and removal from their present quarters.

HOTTEST IN SEVEN YEARS.
Mercury Reached Ninety-Seven at Pittsburg, Causing Much Suffering.

PITTSBURG, July 20.—The torrid weather of the past three days has caused much suffering among mill workers. Yesterday was the hottest day in seven years, the mercury climbing to 97 degrees. At 10 o'clock today the temperature was of degrees and rising, with no prospect of immediate relief. So far no deaths from the heat have been reported.

Not a Candidate for Senator.
DENVER, July 20.—Governor Waite announced today that he was not a candidate for the United States senate and would not allow his name to be used in that connection. The Democratic state convention has been called for Sept. 4, one day before the Populist convention, with a view to nominating a mixed ticket and having it endorsed by the Populists. Governor Waite is opposed to this plan.

Coal Miners Resuming Work.
DURANGO, Col., July 20.—The coal miners have returned to work after having waited on the companies and having been informed that their requests to stop selling coal to the railroad companies would not be granted under the circumstances.

A Wisconsin Death.
MINERAL POINT, Wis., July 20.—Hon. Moses M. Strong died today at his home in this city.

A SUIT FOR MILLIONS.

Charges That Mackay, Jones and Others Manipulated a Mine.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—Theodore Fox has commenced suit against John W. Mackay and Senator John P. Jones, C. K. Fitch, G. R. Wells and Cornelius O'Connor, to obtain an accounting of the affairs of the Consolidated California and Virginia Mining company. Fox alleges that between $1,000,000 and $5,000,000 have been wrongfully appropriated by the defendants. He says that Mackay, Jones and the late James C. Flood conspired to manipulate the mine wholly in their interests. He says the Comstock Mine and Mining company was paid $7 a ton for crushing ore when $4 would have been a liberal price.

As Mackay, Jones and Flood controlled the mining company they received the benefits of the overcharge, amounting to about $5,000,000. Fox also claims that the ore was so crushed as to leave the most valuable part in the tailings, which, when worked over by the mill, yielded the three conspirators an additional profit of $2,500,000. There is also a complaint that Mackay, Jones and Flood caused all these transactions to be kept secret from the stockholders and that they have been so manipulated as to themselves 30,000 shares of stock at $1 per share, which stock was afterwards worth in open market $57,000. Fox demands an accounting of all these transactions and judgment for such amount as the accounting shall show to be due.

CYCLONE IN KENTUCKY.

At Least a Dozen People Injured, One of Them Fatally, and Houses Badly Damaged.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 20.—Willmore, a small town in Jessamine county, was badly damaged by a cyclone last night. At least a dozen people were injured, one of them fatally. The Holiness camp meeting was struck and every tent and cottage destroyed. In the country about Willmore, at least two dozen farm houses were greatly damaged and some of them wrecked. Trees were blown down by hundreds, crops just harvested destroyed and the damage from wind and the pouring rain that followed is very great.

THE IRON TRADE REVIEW.
Industries Resuming On Every Hand But No Revival of Demand.

CLEVELAND, July 20.—The Iron Trade Review this week says: It is a striking proof of the resilience of the country's business organism that we should witness one week an almost complete paralysis of transportation, compelling hundreds of manufacturers to stop, while the next is marked by a complete raising of the embargo, with industries resuming on every hand.

The week under review has shown a general starting up of iron and steel plants, not only those which the strike had closed, but those idle on account of local differences. Both these impediments have now been removed. The increased activity of mills, under the circumstances, signifies the working up of accumulated orders; there is no revival of demand. Prices in all departments of the market are steady.

A PLUCKY SALOONKEEPER.
Opened Fire on Three Robbers and Wounded All Badly.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Three men, who undertook to rob Edward Meyer, a saloonkeeper on the West Side, found the job a hard one. Meyer was counting the receipts when the three men entered. One of them, Peter Traynor, grabbed Meyer's revolver from the bar and pointed it at him, while the others attempted to rob the drawer.

Meyer seized Traynor's wrist and pulling another revolver from his pocket opened fire. A lively exchange of shots followed. Traynor fell to the floor mortally wounded; one of his companions, Edward Cahill, was shot in the shoulder and the hand, and the third, who has not been found, is, according to Meyer, badly wounded, as he was bleeding freely when he made his way out of the place. The plucky saloonkeeper has received a painful bullet wound in the shoulder.

EXPRESS TRAIN DERAILLED.
A Mail Clerk Fatally Hurt and Others Injured.

CHICAGO, July 20.—The Chicago & Alton express, which left here at 9 o'clock last night, was derailed at the Belt line crossing, near Summit. The engine and first four cars left the track, the mail and baggage car being overturned. One mail clerk was probably fatally hurt and two others received painful injuries.

Several passengers were shaken up and bruised, but none of them were seriously hurt. The engineer of the wrecked train says there were no signal lights displayed. The derauling switch was set to ditch approaching trains, as a Belt line train was then switching on the crossing.

Shot Through the Head.
SENECA, Mo., July 20.—C. L. Moore and wife, an aged couple living near Tiff City, Mo., have been found dead in their house, both having been shot through the head. There is no clue to the murderers, but the object must have been robbery, as Mr. Moore was quite well to do and at times had considerable money in the house.

A Double Tragedy.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 20.—A terrible tragedy has been enacted on Cherry creek, thirty miles north of here. Jim Craney went to the house of a man named Layton, where he met John Craney and son. In a quarrel that took place between Craney and Craney and son, Craney drew a pistol and shot and killed both Craney and son. Craney then escaped and has not been apprehended.

ON THE TARIFF.

Senator Smith Defended the Senate Bill Today and Criticized the Interference of the President.

David B. Hill Supported Free Raw Materials and Eulogized the Views Expressed by President Cleveland.

Senator Vest Arraigned the President in Scathing Tones and Resented His Attempt to Dictate.

Vilas Moved That the Senate Recede from the One-Eighth Differential on Refined Sugar.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Crowds such as had not thronged the senate in months packed the galleries today. The house and the president had yesterday thrown down the gauntlet to the senate on the tariff question and a pitched battle was expected. An ominous hush was upon the chamber when the president pro tem (Mr. Harris, of Tennessee) rapped the senate to order. Senator Joe Blackburn, of Kentucky, in a pink negligee shirt, stood watch in hand while the chairman delivered his invocation, looking like a judge at a Kentucky derby. The "conservative" Democrats, Mr. Hill, in an immaculate suit of flannel, Mr. Gorman in a sedate suit of blue and Mr. Smith in a long black frock coat, sat grouped together on the Democratic side. Mr. Hill, sitting far back, chatted merrily with Gen. Sikes, the one-legged veteran of Gettysburg. Senators Sherman, Aldrich, Allison, Hale and Chandler, the leaders on the Republican side, appeared amused at the storm which threatened across the political aisle. The preliminary routine business was transacted in a perfunctory way. Senator Voorhees, "the tall sycamore of the Wabash," chairman of the finance committee, arose and called up the conference report on the tariff bill. Without a word of explanation he yielded the floor to Senator Smith, of New Jersey, who arose and read a carefully prepared speech. He had hoped, he said, when the bill passed the senate two weeks ago that it had been perfected. But the events of the last twenty-four hours had confronted the Democratic party with the possibility of the failure of all tariff legislation at this session. If so, the responsibility must be placed where it belonged.

He criticized the president for "violating" the principles of his party in attempting to interfere with the prerogatives of the legislative branch of government, but declared that he should never be intimidated by threats from the president or by the utterances of his party associates at the other end of the capitol who had been so uproariously applauded. He called attention to the differences between the situation in the house and senate. He reviewed the events in the house which culminated in the passage of a bill, with the loss of seventeen Democratic votes in that body.

In the senate all was changed. Every Democratic vote was needed to pass a bill, if it was to be passed as a party measure, and the members of the finance committee heroically set to work to harmonize the differences existing in the Democratic side of the house. He announced that purpose to their everlasting credit, he said. He had been one of those who had stood out for concessions in the interests of his constituents. He had made no concealment of his position then; he made none now.

He then proceeded to deliver a glowing eulogy of the tariff bill as it passed the senate, which, unlike the house bill, he declared, contained no menace to the industries of the country, and had not been framed by men from sparsely settled districts who knew nothing of the great commercial interests of the United States. He asserted that the framers of the house bill, and a large proportion of the Democratic party, were not tariff reformers, but were free traders.

Mr. Hill said: "A theory as well as a condition now confronts us. The theory of the Democratic party is that in the enactment of tariff legislation free raw materials should always be an essential and conspicuous element. It is our creed that the materials which enter into our manufactures should be freed from the burden of tariff taxation. The best interests of the manufacturers as well as the consumers of the land demand the recognition of this wise discrimination."

"We are committed to this side of the question and we cannot retreat and we cannot retract. We are honorably bound to redeem our professions and our promises. Justice, good faith and a decent regard for public sentiment all require this course. Until recently I had supposed that there was no dispute upon this question of principle, but that every Democrat worthy of the name was willing to concede that if there was one thing more than another to which the Democratic party was committed, it was in favor of the doctrine of absolutely free raw materials. The true and honest construction of every Democratic national platform for twelve years past irrevocably commits us to this just and reasonable principle."

Mr. Hill read the Democratic national platform of 1872 and continued: "To repeal the McKinley bill in form simply; to re-enact it in effect is keeping this promise to the letter but breaking it in spirit. The platform pointed with pride and deliberately approved the measures for free iron ore, free lead ore, free coal and free wool, which were pending in congress at the time of the convention. The Democratic position was so plain and it is so clear that he who runs may read."

"If any Democratic orator in any part of the country, forgetting the interests of Manufacturers Still Suffering from the Delay in Moving Freight Which Began with the Strike.

Large Order of Flat Cars Shipped from the Car Works to the Brainerd & Northern Railway.

New Sash and Door Factory Will be in Operation by the First of August.

The West Duluth manufacturers are still hampered from the difficulty of getting supplies from Chicago. Although the strike is supposed to be practically over the freight traffic is yet rather demoralized and there seems to be about as much trouble in shipping freight now as in the heat of the strike. The Duluth Manufacturing company has completed and shipped the order of flat cars for the Brainerd & Northwestern and are at present at work on another small order of flat cars.

The work of changing the furniture factory to a sash, door and blind industry is progressing rapidly and it is expected the machinery will be in motion by the first of next month.

The lumber mills are all running and doing their usual amount of sawing at this time of the year. The West Duluth Brick company has secured contracts enough to keep the yards busy the whole season and now employ fifty men and ten teams. The firm has the contract for furnishing brick for the cathedral, the bishop's residence, besides other small orders.

Physicians are sometimes slightly put to their wits to find a suitable excuse for neglecting an office patient when visiting to devote a few minutes to something else, but a Philadelphia specialist quite distinguished himself in this line with one of his lady patients the other day. He was about to treat her foot with electricity, and she had just removed her stocking in preparation when the mail arrived. Desirous of reading one of the letters immediately, this diplomat gracefully stepped out by saying in his most professional tones: "Just excuse your foot to the atmosphere for a little while."—Argonaut.

WHEAT LOWER TODAY.

The Market Was Dull and Very Little Trading Was Done.

The wheat market here opened 1/4¢ below yesterday's close, ruled very dull and advanced steadily to the noon hour when it was at about yesterday's closing figure. It gained 1/4¢ more and held fairly steady until within three minutes of the close, when there was a break at Chicago, followed by a decline here, the close being 1/4¢ lower all round than yesterday. Just before we closed the market was very dull, outside news being meager. There were no arrivals of wheat at the mills today. They then bid 2 1/2¢, and the close was at 2 1/2¢ premium. Following were the closing prices:

Hard, cash, 6 1/2¢, July, 6 1/2¢, No. 1 northern, cash, 59¢; July, 59 1/2¢; September, 59 1/2¢; December, 59 1/2¢; No. 2 northern, cash, 58 1/2¢; July, 58 1/2¢; September, 58 1/2¢; December, 58 1/2¢; WERE EASY WINNERS

Baldwin Men Controlled the Organization of the St. Louis County Democratic Club Last Evening.

H. F. Greene Was Elected Chairman by a Large Majority—Other Officers Unanimously Chosen.

Resolution Passed Approving Major Baldwin's Stand on the Tariff After a Sharp Quarrel.

The St. Louis County Democratic club organized itself last night. When the meeting was called to order the council chamber was crowded and subsequent events showed that it was largely filled by Baldwin men, in fact, the Baldwin men did about as they pleased. The house was carefully arranged, with Baldwin men on the west side and anti-Baldwin men on the east side.

In the absence of Judge Holmbeck, O. S. Mitchell called the meeting to order. Frank Crosswell (Baldwin) was elected temporary chairman. A. L. Thurman was nominated from the other side of the house.

The committee on constitution presented a unanimous report which was adopted without dissent. The constitution contained nothing out of the ordinary run of such documents. One clause provided that the club should not endorse or oppose any candidate before nomination.

Mr. Hudson then moved that every one who voted on the election which was to follow should sign his name to the constitution. The motion was carried and Mr. Hudson moved to proceed to the election of a president.

E. C. Gridley said that there was as yet no club to elect a president of. Then followed a discussion very similar to the one of a week or two ago. On the west side of the house, the Baldwin men were piled on top of Mr. Hudson's and lost sight of, and for a few moments parliamentary usages were nowhere.

In the midst of the discussion, S. M. Pelton suddenly came into prominence. As the oldest Democrat in the meeting, having voted the Democratic ticket for thirty-four years, he wished to know the rolls first. He was not only allowed to do so, but was elevated to a seat beside the chairman.

Finally a number of assistant secretaries were appointed and in five minutes they had twenty-five names. Then E. C. Gridley wanted to go into executive session, but he was promptly frowned down.

W. H. Tripp nominated H. F. Greene for president. E. C. Gridley nominated A. L. Thurman, in the interests of harmony. He saw a danger signal not only in the club but in the county, and he wished to propose a resolution for the purpose of uniting the county Democrats.

F. T. Hudson seconded Mr. Greene's nomination and E. C. Wagoner seconded A. L. Thurman's nomination. There were 230 votes cast. H. F. Greene had 165 votes and A. L. Thurman 64, 116 being necessary for a majority.

Thurman's motion the election was made unanimous, and Mr. Greene took the chair.

He thanked the club for the honor conferred upon him, and said: "There is a good field for the party if united. There is no question but that we are united on principle. We all believe in tariff reform and the Wilson bill, and we are ready to go the full length of the Chicago platform. We are all united as against the Republican party, which has put a ticket in the field prepared by an outside party. If the Republicans had raked the country with a firebomb they could not have found a poorer ticket."

Ex-Mayor d'Auremont asked to be excused for introducing a foreign subject at that time. "The constitution provides that the club shall take no side before the nominations, but I wish to call attention to the school election to be held Saturday," he said. "I have on good authority that the outside party referred to by Mr. Greene has put a ticket in the field with the intention of having a P. A. school board. It is a duty we owe our children to take our wives with us and vote them down, and if we fail we shall know that we have done our duty in the interests of good government and good schools."

Then peace descended over the meeting, and the remaining officers were elected as follows, the secretary in each case being instructed to cast the vote of the club: First vice president, G. M. Roberts; second vice president, Walter Newcomb; secretary, Oscar S. Mitchell; treasurer, John Flood.

Everything was lovely, and if the club had adjourned then everything would have been peaceful. But C. T. Abbott prepared a bone in the shape of a resolution endorsing Cleveland for his letter published in yesterday's Herald and commending Congressman Baldwin and others who had stood by the Wilson bill. Z. H. Austin, anti-Baldwin, branded the resolution as an attempt to evade the constitution and to force the convention's endorsement of Maj. Baldwin. He asked Mr. Abbott in the interests of harmony to cut off the tail end of that resolution. Mr. Abbott informed Mr. Austin that the resolution was not intended to endorse any one, but to render due credit to those who had worked for Democratic principles.

E. C. Gridley recorded his protest against the resolution saying, "Baldwin owed his election to pledges made as to his stand on a certain clause of the bill, which he failed to keep. This resolution is the entering wedge of a wedge that will split the county Democracy. I shall never cast my vote for a man that is dishonest, and that will bar me from voting for Baldwin. [Cheers mingled with hisses.] If you want that kind of medicine, take it, but take it with my protest."

Mr. Austin said that he was sorry there were foolish people on both sides and he thought Mr. Gridley had said rather more than he meant. Mr. Gridley said he desired no one to apologize for his Democracy, was passed unanimously.

It was then moved that the resolution be cut in two and voted upon separately. This was done, and the first part, endorsing Cleveland, was passed unanimously.

Judge White (Baldwin) said that if Abbott did not want to throw a firebrand he had better leave out the latter part of his amendment. W. H. Tripp moved a substitute endorsing the congressmen generally for their action, leaving out the name of Baldwin.

Mr. J. J. Jones said he was opposed to the withdrawal of the name of Baldwin, because it was right that the club should commend Maj. Baldwin for his brave stand. He stood by his platform and they should stand by him, or they were unworthy of being enrolled as members of the club.

E. C. Gridley's motion to table the resolution was lost by a large vote. S. T. Harrison wanted to know how they could have harmony when they could not commend a good servant for doing his duty. His speech was warmly cheered by the Baldwin men.

Mr. Tripp withdrew his substitute and the resolution was adopted by a large vote. The club adjourned subject to the call of the president.

INFANTS ARE STARVED.

Babies Die From Want of Proper Food—Parents' Neglect Keeps Up the Fearful Infant Death Rate in July—Use Lactated Food.

Parents do not understand how completely the lives of their babies are in their own hands these hot days.

Starving the babies is a harsh phrase to use in speaking of the loving care of fathers and mothers. But this is what exact scientific men call it. Parents must use their utmost intelligence if baby is to get safely through the summer. Cholera infantum never attacks properly nourished children, no matter how heated the season. Only the weak, drooping babies succumb to summer complaints.

At the first indication of faulty nourishment, indigestion or diarrhea, the prudent mother will look at baby's diet. If she is trying to nurse baby herself through the summer, she must be sure that her milk is capable of fully nourishing the little one. But if she finds that baby is not thriving, lactated food should be given.

No less an authority than Dr. Guernsey, the senior editor of the New York Medical Times, says that the use of lactated food with children. He says it is pleasant to taste and easily digested and assimilated. The famous Dr. Agnew, as is well known among physicians, was one of the first to publicly recommend the food. Dr. J. Lewis Smith, perhaps the greatest authority in the country on the diseases of children, professor in Bellevue hospital college, New York, also commends its use. There are hundreds of physicians in New England, says the Boston Journal, who prescribe lactated food invariably as the nearest approach to mother's milk, and as a rich baby food that builds up the strength and bodies of young children and invalids.

Lactated food is an ideal infant nutriment. Babies like it. They grow fat and chubby when fed on it as an exclusive diet. It makes the impoverished blood of puny children grow rich and capable of making growing bone and flesh. All fear of cholera infantum may be dismissed after baby is put on a diet of lactated food; for the essential elements of life are contained in it. It contains all the nourishing qualities in the food—are absolutely removed. Mothers may sleep peacefully without fear of being awakened by a feverish cry by night, that may tell of some grave intestinal disorder.

Babies fed on lactated food gain steadily in weight and escape summer sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Soutar, who live on Campbell street, Sandusky, Ohio, owe their happiness to lactated food. They write:

"When our baby, Ruth, was sick there was nothing that would stay on her stomach. The doctor advised the use of lactated food, and very thankful we are, for in a short time it worked wonders. She is now a large, healthy child. Her mother and father are both convinced that if it had not been for the timely use of lactated food our baby would have died. We now have another little one that we are feeding on lactated food, we have such faith in it, and we also recommend it to all our friends."

Statement by Mr. Paine. I understand that opponents to my reelection to the board of education are using the argument that the Security bank has had the lion's share of the school funds, and that for this reason a change should be made.

In justice to myself to the bank by which I am employed, I beg to say that I was treasurer of the board (and at the bank) during the business of the school funds, and that for this reason a change should be made.

Our Country and Our Neighbors.

This beautiful publication by John L. Stoddard, the famous American traveler and lecturer, is now issued in sixteen parts, each part containing sixteen magnificent half-tone engravings 8 by 11 inches in size, from photographs of notable structures, busy street scenes, and wonderful views of nature's architecture in the Americas. The Great Northern railway has secured an edition of this art work from the publishers, and will rush it to friends and patrons at the mere cost of handling. The parts will be delivered weekly at 10 cents each, and purchasers can have the privilege of buying a copy of Graham's celebrated steel plate view of Niagara Falls at one-tenth the regular retail price of that famous production. City Ticket Agent W. S. Whitton, 432 West Superior street, has a framed copy of the Niagara picture hanging in his office, and also has a supply of the book. On the failure of the book to come and see them. There is certainly nothing more instructive than to read a graphic description of some noted building, monument, street, city, cataract or mountain, particularly when the scene is pictured as faithfully and grandly as sun and art can do it. This work is an art treasure, and only needs to be seen to be appreciated. Every patriotic citizen is strengthened in his admiration and love of country by a perusal of this book.

Default has been made in the payment of the sum of twenty-two dollars interest, which became due and payable on June 1st, 1894, all of which is yet owing and unpaid upon a certain mortgage and mortgage note made and delivered by Matthew B. Harrison and Lucy Gray Harrison, his wife, mortgagees, to American Loan and Trust Company, of Duluth, Minnesota, mortgagees, bearing date the 1st day of June, 1891, and duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for St. Louis County, Minnesota, on the 14th day of December, 1891, at 8 o'clock a. m. in Book 34 of mortgages, on page 440; which mortgage and the debt thereby secured, were duly assigned by said American Loan and Trust Company to the Channing Home, which is now the owner and holder thereof by written instrument, bearing date the 9th day of March, 1892, and duly recorded in the office of said register of deeds on the 10th day of March, 1892, at 5 o'clock a. m. in Book 35 of mortgages, on page 127.

And whereas said default is a default in one of the conditions of said mortgage, and the mortgage remains in full force and effect for a period of more than ten days, it has become optional with the holder of said mortgage to foreclose thereon, and the holder of said mortgage has elected to do so, and has caused a notice of sale to be published in the Duluth Herald, a daily newspaper published in the city of Duluth, in said county and state, on Saturday, the 14th day of August, 1894, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, subject to redemption at any time within one year from day of sale, as by law provided.

Dated July 18th, 1894.

FRANK A. DAY, Attorney for said Assignee of Mortgage, Duluth, Minn. July 6-13-20-27, Aug. 3-10.

A Man and Woman Who Were Fighting Over a Claim Will End It by Marrying.

Considerable Money Was Spent on Both Sides and the Case Was Being Fought Hard.

Another Case of Crookedness Which Has Been Brought Home to A. J. Whiteman at Detroit.

The officers and employees of the United States land office as well as a number of prominent land attorneys are looking forward with pleasurable anticipation to a little social event which will happen either Saturday or Tuesday. For the past few days a contest for the possession of a part of section 21-66-10 has been going on before the land officers. Capt. Smallwood, appearing for Ames Carl, who has a claim on the land in dispute, and Joseph H. Shager, appearing for Miss Annie E. Shager, who has filed a timber claim and is contesting Carl's filing.

Considerable money has been spent in the taking of testimony on both sides and the case was being fought hard. But Cupid appeared as an intervenor and appears to have things pretty much his own way, for the parties to the contest are now to be married within a day or two. Under present arrangements Capt. Smallwood is to be best man and Mr. Shager is to give the bride away. The prospective groom is a fine looking, steady going young man, while the bride elect is a very pretty young woman employed as milliner in one of the large establishments in this city.

HAS PROMISED TO SETTLE.

Another Piece of Crooked Work Charged to Whiteman.

The arrest of A. J. Whiteman at Detroit is bringing out reports of crooked work on his part in many sections of the country. The Detroit News of Tuesday tells this story: Joseph Uhlmann and wife of Chicago, have been stopping at Mr. Clemens for their health. It was Uhlmann who caused the police department to be telegraphed yesterday regarding Alvin J. Whiteman. About 10 o'clock this morning Uhlmann and his wife called at headquarters and told Superintendent Starkweather how Whiteman had swindled Uhlmann out of $350. Uhlmann was a bookmaker at Hawthorne track, Washington park, Chicago, last summer. He says that just about one year ago Whiteman came to him and represented that he had just started bookmaking, had "over-paid" himself and was badly in need of funds. He claimed to be connected in some way with John Daily & Co., the well-known sporting firm of New York city. Uhlmann told him that if John Daily & Co. would be responsible for the indebtedness, he would as soon let him have $300 as $300 if he wanted it.

Then Whiteman, so Uhlmann says, returned shortly with a paper which purported to be an order by telegraph from John Daily & Co. It was written on a telegraph receiving blank and authorized Uhlmann to have any draft which Whiteman might make on Daily & Co. As everything appeared to be straight, Whiteman was given the money and in return gave Uhlmann his personal check for the amount, drawn on a Danville bank. The check, of course, proved to be worthless.

Before Uhlmann had finished his interview with Superintendent Starkweather, he went down stairs and talked with Whiteman. He had decided not to prosecute the prisoner, as he says Whiteman has agreed to settle his claim in full. He has been made to feel sure that if Whiteman does not settle up his sister will.

The Municipal Court.

Ed Kelly, a plain drunk, was given a suspended sentence in the municipal court this morning. Charles Frederickson, charged with maintaining a structure on the public highway, was released on his own recognizance and will have a trial at 2 o'clock, July 25. John Jackson for assault in the third degree will be tried July 25 at 2 o'clock and bail was fixed at $15. John Smith for the same kind of offense pleaded guilty and will be sentenced this afternoon. Officer James Donovan arrested the last man who is the one who assaulted an unknown coal dock workman on Wednesday near the latter's home.

The Flints, Fumblers.

A real novelty is furnished the patrons of the Temple by the appearance of the Flints, mesmerists and fumbler. They are the acknowledged best experts of hypnotic science and are said by the press to present the finest performance ever witnessed. Patrons can rely upon the phenomena exhibited being genuine and upon the facts and theories set forth in the brief lectures which accompany the experiments. They have played engagements in St. Paul and Minneapolis, giving great satisfaction, and are the only hypnotists playing opera houses exclusively.

Will Look For the Bullies.

Mark W. Harrington, of Washington, D. C., chief of the weather bureau, was in the city this morning. He will go out on the north shore looking for sealed bottles which have been furnished lake captains to cast overboard in different parts of the lakes. On the inside of each one is a slip placed in it by the captain and on the slip the location at which the bottle was cast overboard. The locations at which these bottles are picked up when compared with those which they were thrown in, will, it is believed, give some idea as to the lake currents.

CLAIMS HE WAS DECEASED.

Alois Heller Wants to Recover Property Which He Signed Away.

Alois Heller, according to the complaint filed this morning in district court, is or was the owner of a number of lots in Triggs & Kennedy's Bay Front addition. He is old, infirm and incapacitated from the management of his property. Knowing this, his nephew, Ernest Heller, fraudulently obtained his signature to a paper, the nature of which he refused to divulge. Afterwards Heller found that it was a quit claim deed, and that unknowingly he had signed away all his property.

Ernest transferred the lots to Levi Beemer, August Halgren, J. E. Halgren, W. C. Keller and John Monaghan. Heller alleges that these transfers were made without consideration, and that the parties receiving the lots were to hold them in trust for Ernest. He asks that the court decree that transfers void and that he may be declared the legal owner of the lots. In the meantime, he asks that the defendants be restrained from interfering with or disposing of the lots.

St. George R. Fitzhugh et al have sued A. M. Cox to recover $666.85 alleged to be due as rent on thirty houses in Brookdale division. In his answer Mr. Cox sets up counter claims, alleging that by reason of fires and windows, pumps, wallpaper etc., which he had to supply, he was damaged to the extent of $178, leaving due only $488.85, which he admits to be due. The plaintiffs have given notice of a motion to set aside the counter claims and for judgment for the amount asked.

SOME FLOUR SHIPMENTS.

Several Boats Taking in Cargoes Today—Rates Are Unchanged.

The mills are again starting up, and the flour shipping interests are a little more brisk. The Daisy mill is loading eighteen cars on the Avon today and will load forty cars on the Saginaw Valley. The Northern boats and others are taking considerable flour.

Yesterday's wheat clearances were: Omaha, 50,000 bushels; Harold, 50,000 bushels; City of London, 30,000 bushels; Gilbert, 10,000 bushels; Italia, 50,000 bushels. Today the Avon is loading 40,000 bushels at 1 1/2 cents.

The marine situation is dull all around at unchanged rates.

Going Back to Europe.

CLEVELAND, July 20.—The officers of the various ocean steamship companies in this city are besieged by large numbers of foreigners who are taking advantage of the present steamship war and consequent low rates to return to their native lands. It is estimated that since the hard times commenced fully 5000 foreigners have left the city to return to Europe. These people, who are mostly Hungarians, Bohemians, Italians and Slavs, are leaving for good.

The Britannia Won Again.

WARREN'S TITLE UPHELD.

Secretary Smith Dismisses Emil Hartman's Suit for Valuable Iron Lands and Also Hyde's Contest.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Secretary Hoke Smith today decided the case of Emil Hartman vs. James H. Warren et al, involving title to valuable iron lands near Duluth. The case had been stubbornly contested and has been before the department in some form for many years.

Warren's title is upheld and the secretary affirms the action of the general land office, dismissing Hartman's suit and also a contest brought against Hartman's title by Hyde and others.

HANGED IN NEW JERSEY.

The Murderer of a Prison Keeper Executed at Trenton.

TRENTON, N. J., July 20.—Joseph Wallwitz was hanged today for the murder of a deputy prison keeper, James B. Lippincott. Death resulted quickly. Just before going to the scaffold Wallwitz made a long rambling speech, repeating his old story that he did not fire the fatal shot, and that Lippincott was shot by Deputy Keeper Leonard.

The crime for which Joseph Wallwitz was hanged was the murder of Deputy Prisonkeeper James P. Lippincott, in the state prison, Trenton, on the night of March 1, 1894. Wallwitz was serving a seven years' sentence in state prison for horse stealing at the time. He was confined in the wing of the prison which was under the care of Deputy Waters.

For some reason the door of Wallwitz's cell had not been locked on the night of the murder. About midnight he crawled from his cell to the corridor and found Deputy Waters asleep. He secured the keys of the jail and Waters' revolver and started to make his escape.

As Wallwitz was coming from the ante-room leading into the prison cell, he met Deputy Lippincott and grappled with him. A terrible fight ensued and several shots were fired by each man. Deputy Lippincott falling dead with a bullet hole in his left breast.

Wallwitz then encountered Deputy Keeper Leonard, who had been alerted by the shooting, and after a desperate struggle during which time both men received their revolvers and Wallwitz received a scalp wound, the latter was overpowered and placed in a cell.

He was placed on trial May 22, the trial lasting but three hours. He was convicted of murder in the first degree, and the jury had been out two and a half hours.

SIMON CLARK GROCERY COMPANY.

IT MADE THEM WRATHY

Aldermen Cox and Christensen Administer Tongue Lashings to Frank Zeller Because of Rumored Bribery.

Lost Draft Payable to the Bell Telephone Company Was the Only Foundation for the Story.

Oarsmen of the Duluth Boat Club Left Today for Minnetonka to Enter in the Races.

Alderman Cox was out on a very large sized war path this morning, and Alderman Christensen, too, was looking for scalps. The cause of their ire was a story about a draft which was picked up several days ago on the sidewalk in front of the Simon Clark Grocery company. It had been reported to the two late gentlemen that F. M. Zeller had circulated a report that the draft was one of three which had been distributed among Aldermen Cox and Christensen and Mayor Lewis.

The draft in question was purchased at the American Exchange bank on June 26, by C. P. Murphy to pay royalties due the Bell Telephone company, from the Duluth Telephone company. The draft was dropped in front of Simon Clark's and was carried in there and Mr. Clark returned it to the bank. Neither of the three city officials were in the remotest particular connected with it, and how the story originated is a mystery.

Zeller, it is charged, had repeated a story about the draft which he claimed to have heard from Attorney Davies, but in passing around from mouth to mouth the story got warped and twisted until it was a direct charge of hoodluming against the three city officials, implicating them each as recipients of $666.66, a third of $2000, from the Bell Telephone company. At all events Alderman Cox met Zeller and Davies this morning and asked them up to the city hall to see the mayor. The mayor was not in and in the explanations which followed Zeller's story was very different from that which he was charged with telling. Cox then uncorked the vials of his wrath and treated Zeller to most extensive and varied tongue lashing, accusing him of lying, dishonesty and attempted blackmailing.

Mr. Zeller finally made his escape down stairs only to run against Alderman Christensen who gave him another hot roasting. Mayor Lewis was not there, but the aldermen told Zeller he must hunt up and produce his armaments for his stories or there would be further trouble.

OARSMEN HAVE GONE.
The Four Oared and Double Crews Left for Minnetonka Today.

At 1 o'clock today the members of the Duluth Boat club, who will row at Lake Minnetonka, left on the Eastern Minnesota in a special car. General Manager Farrington kindly arranged to have the car sent right through to Minnetonka. In previous years the crews have had to go to Minneapolis over night. They will be quartered at the Lafayette.

Those who went down were: J. D. Mahoney, M. A. Hov, H. S. King, George Gibson, Murray Peyton and Hamilton Peyton. Ed Mahoney also went with them to look after the shells and the men, the Peyton boys will row double in the junior race.

The date for the regatta is in dispute but it will probably be on July 30 and 31. Three clubs favor that as against Duluth and the Lullines, of Minneapolis.

There will be a fight over barring out De Brissay, of Rat Portage. It is claimed that he is a professional. Last year he rowed with the Lullines. In the winter he lived in Canada and was one of the mounted police. The Minnesota, of St. Paul, claim that he offered his services to them for this year if they would pay him. They claim he makes his living at rowing and is therefore not an amateur.

Campers On Isle Royale.
County Attorney Pierce Butler, of Ramsey county, and Charles Dana, chief clerk, will arrive here Sunday from St. Paul and leave immediately on the Booth steamer H. R. Dixon for Isle Royale where they will remain a week or two. Banker H. C. Bigelow, of St. Paul, with a party of between twenty and thirty ladies and gentlemen, will also arrive next week and will stay a fortnight on Isle Royale.

A Party of Hills.
Among those who came up on the Eastern Minnesota special this afternoon were Mrs. J. J. Hill and the Misses Hill. Samuel Hill, president of the Montana Central railway, accompanied by a party of eight, also came up. Mr. Hill is a son-in-law of James J. Hill. All left on the North West this afternoon for Buffalo.

IS A REPUBLIC.

Republic of Hawaii Now Holds the Reins of Power and Proposes to Obtain Annexation.

The New Constitution Promulgated on July 4 from the Front Steps of the Former Palace.

A Large Crowd Was Present and President
Dole Was Greeted With a Mighty
Cheer.

Good Order Prevailed and no Demonstration Was Attempted by the Supporters
of the Ex-Queen.

HONOLULU, July 13, via San Francisco, July 21.—The provisional government is no more and the republic of Hawaii holds the reins of power. But it is only a change of name, the same people are
in power, and the avowed purpose of the government is the same—to obtain annexation to the United States. The new constitution, which was finished on July 3, was promulgated on July 4 from the front steps of the former palace. A large crowd was present, and when President Dole appeared he was greeted by a mighty cheer while, surrounded by his cabinet, the military and the members of the late constitutional government, he read the proclamation of the new republic, as follows:

"I, Sanford B. Dole, president of the provisional government of the Hawaiian islands, by virtue of the charge given me
by the executive and advisory councils
of the provisional government and by act dated July 4, 1894, proclaim the republic of Hawaii as the sovereign authority over and throughout the Hawaiian islands from this time forth. And I declare the constitution framed and adopted by the constitutional convention of 1894 to be the constitution and the supreme law of the republic of Hawaii;
and by virtue of this constitution, I now
assume the office and authority of president thereof. Long live the republic."
I, W. K. Kala, one of the leading native annexationists, next read the proclamation in the Hawaiian language. Both were greeted with cheers and the ceremony was over. There was no military display whatever. The men on the Philadelphia were not landed, the government thinking it best not to give its enemies the chance to charge that the change was made while United States troops were present to intimidate the Royalists. Not the slightest demonstration was attempted by the supporters of the ex-queen.

A few evenings before July 4, the Royalists had a mass meeting at which about 200 were present and passed resolutions protesting against the forming of the republic, claiming that President Cleveland had not yet answered the petition sent by Liliuokalani to be restored to the throne. Copies of this resolution were sent to the representatives of foreign governments with the request that they should not recognize
the republic.

All had no effect in that way, however,
as all these representatives have recognized it with the exception of Minister Wadsworth, the English minister resident, who simply stated that he would inform his government of the change. On the evening of July 4 the annexationists held a big massive meeting for the purpose of ratifying the new constitution. It was a most enthusiastic meeting.

The Fourth was celebrated in true
American style, the double holiday making peculiarly gay the day of justification for Americans. Captain of the Marines
Cochrane, of the Philadelphia, delivered the oration. He showed himself an annexationist, and in his speech saying that he hoped soon to be able to call those present fellow citizens.
Throughout his oration he lauded the provisional government and its supporters.

Admiral Walker and his staff were present and the admiral evidently endorsed the speech of Captain Cochrane.
He was also at the executive building at the time of the promulgation, though not officially. The republic having been launched, Minister Thurston will probably return to Washington soon. He was not present on July 4 having gone to the Volcano. One of the Royalist papers, the Honolulu, which has been a rabid supporter of the ex-queen, has changed its policy and is advising all Royalists to take the oath of allegiance
to the republic and acknowledge that
the cause of the ex-queen is dead.

A Royalist conspiracy, consisting of Samuel Parker, I. A. Wideman and John A. Cummins, leaves for Washington on the Rio Janeiro this afternoon. It is their intention to go to Washington at once and try to obtain an interview with the president with the idea of forcing
him to give them an answer as to what he intends to do in the Hawaiian matter.
Their expenses have been paid by prominent Royalists here and they carry a secretary with them. Parker and Cummins are half-Hawaiians, but Wideman is a German. The Royalists here have great hopes of the commission's success.

French Anti-Anarchist Bill.
PARIS, July 21.—The chamber of deputies has adopted the second clause
of the anti-anarchist bill, providing that anarchists shall be before a corrected tribunal, instead of being tried by juries. The vote was 330 for and 176 against it.

Fatally Burned.
LYNN, Mass., July 21.—By an explosion of gas in the Street building, a 6-story structure, E. E. Strout, owner of the building, and Oliver A. O'Brien, who was so badly burned that he will probably die and three others were severely injured. The damage to the building will amount to $50,000.

INSPECTOR OF IMMIGRANTS.

The Stone Bill, Which Changes the System,
Passed the House.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The congressional authorities on immigration laws
are much exercised over the passage of Representative William A. Stone's immigration bill in the house yesterday
while most of the members were watching the exciting scenes in the senate.
The Stone bill is far-reaching in its effect upon the system of inspecting immigrants, as the entire inspection is transferred to foreign ports and placed in the hands of United States consuls instead of waiting for inspection at New York and other ports when the immigrant arrives in this country.

"I expect to see the bill taken up by the senate at an early day and passed,"
said Mr. Stone, "and already several senators who recognize the evils of immigration have signified their purpose of urging it to a speedy passage."

"The present immigration system has proved a failure. Immigrants keep coming without reference to the restrictions.
The system is wrong as it leaves the immigrant to furnish all the information on which he is to be received or rejected."

Mr. Stone was asked if the removal of the system to foreign ports would not necessitate a large force of inspectors, or else give United States consuls additional work cutting them to the bone.
"No," said he, "efforts have been made to change the bill as to let the treasury department appoint the foreign inspectors. Such a change would necessitate the creation of a large force of inspectors. But as the bill stands the United States consuls, who are not overburdened with work, will have charge of the inspection."

It is understood that Senators Davis, Chandler and Quay will particularly interest themselves in the Stone bill, with a view to its early adoption.

BIXBY CHAIRMAN AGAIN.

The committee will be called together
in ten days.

WIFE AND BABIES LOST.

A Curious Case of Disappearance Reported
from New York.

NEW YORK, July 21.—William A.
Wickes has lost his wife, pretty and only 24 years old; flaxen-haired, blonde, 2½ years old; "Billy," 3½ years old, and an 8-months-old child and the nurse, Sarah.
The last heard of the mother, her babies and the nurse girl, was on July 1,
when they landed on Ellis island from Liverpool on the steamship Teutonic.
Her husband preceded her to this country by a few months. It appears that he did not inform her of his address in America and when she landed she did not know which way to go in search of
him. That may not have been her object in coming to America. The Ellis island people thought that she did not care to rejoin him, as she expressed no anxiety as to his whereabouts.

Mothers, babies and nurse were therefore detained for a day, while the authorities investigated. Nothing about the woman was ascertained. She showed papers, and a bank book that she was in receipt of an income, and she displayed $250 in gold, in response to the query if she possessed ready funds.
The husband, who is nearly crazy over
the matter, has been searching, in likely places, for his wife and babies, but his search has been fruitless thus far.

Lycium vs. Temple.

The Lycium and Temple ball clubs will meet on the baseball diamond at Twenty-eighth avenue west and Superior street tomorrow afternoon and proceed to battle for the supremacy.
Nearly all the theatrical mechanics in the city are represented and there is considerable betting being done among them. The Temple battery will be Laundry and Kritz, while Ward and Lynn will officiate for the Lycium.

CAUCUS LIKELY.

One of the Conservative Senators Says a Caucus Will Probably Be Held Monday Morning.

Plan on Foot For Repeal of the Present
Sugar Bounty By an Independent Measure.

This Will Be Done if the Differential Is Wiped Out and the Bill
Defeated.

Resolution For Constitutional Amendment to Elect Senators By Popular Vote
Passed the House.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—There were
no signs of yesterday's storm about the senate wing of the capitol today. Senators who put in an appearance at all went about their business as though nothing unusual had occurred, and all professed as much ignorance as to the probable outcome of the entanglement as
the veriest outsider. There is still great uncertainty in the minds of senators, not only as to the ultimate outcome but as to
the probable proceedings in the immediate future.

There are also differences of opinion
as to whether a Democratic caucus will be called for the purpose of trying to reach an understanding. There is no doubt that the conservative leaders have been discussing among themselves the advisability of such a caucus. They have been together in groups of two, three and four a great deal of the time since the adjustment of the senate last night, but they are all backward as to the tenor of their talk among themselves, or as to their plans for the future.

Senator Smith came to the capitol together and Senators Gorman and Dunn were closeted together for some time. One of the so-called conservative senators said today that he thought it probable a caucus would be held Monday morning.

It is stated that there is a plan on foot
for the repeal of the present sugar bounty
by an independent measure, in the case of the differential duty on refined sugar should be swept out of the tariff bill and the tariff bill then defeated in consequence of this action.

There was a very slim attendance of members when the speaker called the house to order today. Mr. Powers demanded the regular order which was a resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution providing that senators shall be elected by a direct vote of the people. Although a two-third vote is required for such an amendment, the resolution was passed 137 to 40—thirteen votes to spare. The announcement of the vote was received with Democratic applause.

The house disagreed to the senate amendment on the Indian appropriation bill and Messrs. Holman, Aldrich and Wilson (Wash.) were appointed committees.

Pension Attorneys Disbarred.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The disbarment of six pension attorneys from practice before the interior department for violations of the pension laws was ordered today by Secretary Hoke Smith.
They are: William H. Kerr, Saltville, Ohio; Samuel M. Cecil, Travellers Rest,
Ky.; J. S. Armstrong, Xenia, Ohio; A. F.
Posey, Vicksburg, Miss.; Thomas Caldwell, Chetopa, Kan.; and B. F. Brown, Pittsburg, Pa. The main charge is acceptance of illegal fees from claimants.

Witt Was Murdered.

BRISTOL, Tenn., July 21.—For a month past the whereabouts of John Witt, of this city, has been a mystery which has
been expected to be solved by the discovery of murder. This theory has proven true, the body of Witt having been found in a cave near Chilhowie, Tenn. The abdomen had been cut open
and the cavity filled with stones.

Heavy Loss by Fire.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 21.—At 1 o'clock this morning fire broke out in Stover's furniture store, corner First and Third streets, and in a short time the celebrated Caldwell hotel, the finest structure of the kind in the South. The loss is $700,000; insurance $350,000.

Shot Into a Crowd.

CINCINNATI, July 21.—Deputy United States Marshal Schlesinger, who is assigned to the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton yards, fired three shots into a crowd that was stoning him today. The mob fled, but gathering courage returned and surrounded the officer. The appearance of two policemen drove them away again and Schlesinger escaped.

A Rumor of War.

LONDON, July 21.—A dispatch received
here this afternoon from Shanghai says
that a rumor is in circulation there that war has been declared between China
and Japan.

Got a Welling.

Porter Fleming and Harry Strupe, two small boys, while playing in a row boat
on the bay side of Park Point yesterday morning, were dumped into the water
by the capsizing of their frail craft.
They were rescued by Louis Provencher
who rowed out and brought them to shore, thoroughly scared but otherwise unhurt.

Control Remains Here.

G. G. Hart, said to a Herald reporter today that the report of the sale of a majority of the street railway stock to anterior parties was incorrect. The majority of the stock and the control of the company's affairs remains in Duluth and there will be no change in the management.

MAI SEIP WAS A WITNESS.

Another Inquiry Into Sugar Speculation by Senators.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The senate
sugar investigating committee resumed
its work today in the old-time manner.
Only Senators Gray, Lindsay and Davis,
of the committee, were present, but they
had several witnesses before them and
announced a determination to proceed with the work so long as there was any possibility of securing witnesses who would furnish any testimony.

The most important witness of the day was Henry Rood, the New York Herald reporter who wrote the articles
in that paper upon which the present
branch of the inquiry is based. Mr.
Rood was examined at length as to the sources of his information, and especial effort was made by the members to get the best information at Mr. Rood's command as to his statements that United States senators had been speculating in sugar stocks since the tariff bill was taken up in the senate, despite their denials. It is understood that Mr. Rood responded to this request as fully as he was able to do and professed a willingness to aid the committee to the extent
of his ability.

Other witnesses of the day were W. B.
Wheeler, a New York broker, and A. N.
Seip, of this city. Mr. Wheeler stated to the committee that he had never placed any orders for senators for sugar stock and was unable to give any information.

Mr. Seip has been represented in the newspapers as saying that he had come into possession of knowledge of the fact that a certain senator had placed orders
for sugar stocks during the spring and
to have stated that it was placed with a man then representing the firm of Seymour, Young & Co., New York brokers.

WON BY THE VIGILANT.

The American Yacht Defeated the Britannia
Today, Although There Was Hardly Any Breeze Blowing.

KINGSTOWN, Dublin Bay, July 21.—The
This was the Vigilant's day to win
against the oft-times victorious Britannia,
and she did it under conditions that have heretofore been considered unfavorable
to her. She finished the 50-mile cruise 3 m 40 s ahead, not reckoning time allowance which will reduce it about 1 m 1 s.

The prize contested for was $300 offered by the Royal St. George Yacht club and the course was the same as
that sailed yesterday. A light breeze was blowing at the start; it did not increase to any appreciable extent during
the continuance of the race, but at times
died away so that the yachts could make
no headway.

The Vigilant crossed the starting line 34 seconds ahead. At the conclusion of the first round of the course, which is nearly quadrangular, she was 4 m 22 sec
in the lead, but in the second round the Britannia had reduced the advantage to 1 m, 17 sec. This was as close as the yachts were at any time during the race, which was finished by the winning boat at 6 h 45 m 04 sec, the Britannia coming up at 6 h 48 m 42 sec.

SPRUNG A LEAK.

Iron Cliff Had to Be Returned to Port This Morning.

The steamer Iron Cliff left last night
at 9:30 o'clock with the schooner Iron Cliff in tow. About thirty-five miles down the lake it was discovered that the schooner was leaking badly, taking in about six inches of water an hour. The boats put back to Duluth, arriving here
this morning. The Cliff lay unloaded only about three days, and as she lay
three months in Buffalo without starting a leak, it seems rather a short time
in which to warp her timbers, but that is the only known reason for the leak.
She cannot be docked here without lighting, as she is drawing over 15 feet,
so a steam pump will probably be put in until she can be docked. The location of the leak is not yet known.

Rates are unchanged, although the situation is a little easier and several charters of wheat tonnage have been made at 1½ cents. Ore and lumber are unchanged.

TO CHOOSE FOUR MEN

The Republican Convention to Nominate a Senator and Three Representatives
Held This Afternoon.

Charles F. Johnson Was Chosen as a Temporary Chairman and J. H. Nordby was
the Temporary Secretary.

George R. Laybourn Elected Permanent
Chairman While Charles W. Hoyt Was Made the Permanent Secretary.

The Republican legislative convention
did not draw such a crowd of interested spectators as did the county convention
a couple of weeks ago. When Chairman Cant, of the legislative committee, called the delegates to order at 2:46
o'clock, there were not over 100 present
outside of those entitled to seats and the council chamber was not half filled.

After the call was read C. F. Johnson was nominated by R. C. McKinley as temporary chairman. He was chosen unanimously. J. H. Nordby was chosen temporary secretary without opposition.

O. W. Baldwin moved the appointment of a committee of three on credentials and permanent organization but did not get out of the committee just the same.
J. C. Colver, J. D. Myers and R. C. Mc-
Kinley were named.

W. A. Cant moved the appointment of a committee on resolutions and W. A.
Cant, O. W. Baldwin and W. A. Getty
were chosen.

E. D. Baker, Fred Davis and C. W.
Hoyt were appointed as a committee on
order of business.

A recess was then taken until the reports could be received and adopted. C. F.
Johnson represented Cook county and
W. A. Duerr and George Scott were the delegates from Lake county. The same committee recommended G. R. Laybourn
for permanent chairman and Charles W.
Hoyt for secretary. This was adopted.

The committee on order of business
recommended the following order of business: First, consideration of report of
committee on resolutions; second, nomination of candidate for the senate; third,
nomination of three candidates for the house of representatives, each one separately. Nominations to be made before voting and selections to be made by ballot. The order was adopted.

MR. BUCKMAN HERE.

Says He Will Do All He Can to Help C. A.
Towne.

Hon. C. B. Buckman, of Little Falls, who was prominently mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for congress from this district, arrived in the city this morning. When questioned
as to the situation he said:

"My name was never mentioned with my consent and as soon as I was approached I declined absolutely. I had no desire to run and if I had my private business would compel me to keep out of it. Personally I am for Mr.
Towne and should do all I can to aid him
in securing the nomination and election.
I believe him to be a good clean man
and as to his ability there can be no question. Morrison county will send a Towne delegation to Brainerd and Henton will also. I think Stearns will fall in line with me. If they follow there will be any other candidate. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Barto has been mentioned but I am quite positive he will not run. Duluth will send a Towne delegation. The other counties recognizing this determined to support whoever you decided upon if he was a good man. I think Mr. Towne is in every way an acceptable candidate.

"Republicans should not make the mistake of thinking they have a walkaway in this district. If they solidly they can elect the congressmen and this they must do."

THE SCHOOL ELECTION.

It Is Hard to Have Much of an Idea as to How
It Is Going.

The election for school directors in the independent district of Duluth is progressing at a very lively pace. Ladies are voting in greater numbers than ever before and the vote will be a large one.
There are five tickets in the field, the regular three "Ps"—Pearson, Paine and Phillips—and four nondescript combinations. There is the Pearson, Paine and

IS A REPUBLIC.

Republic of Hawaii Now Holds the Reins of Power and Proposes to Obtain Annexation.

The New Constitution Promulgated on July 4 from the Front Steps of the Former Palace.

A Large Crowd Was Present and President
Dole Was Greeted With a Mighty
Cheer.

Good Order Prevailed and no Demonstration Was Attempted by the Supporters
of the Ex-Queen.

HONOLULU, July 13, via San Francisco.
July 21.—The provisional government is
no more and the republic of Hawaii
holds the reins of power. But it is only
a change of name, the same people are
in power, and the avowed purpose of
the government is the same—to obtain annexation to the United States. The new constitution, which was finished on July 3, was promulgated on July 4 from the front steps of the former palace. A large crowd was present, and when President Dole appeared he was greeted by his cabinet, the military and the members
of the late constitutional government, he
read the proclamation of the new republic, as follows:

"I, Sanford B. Dole, president of the provisional government of the Hawaiian islands, by virtue of the charge given me
by the executive and advisory councils
of the provisional government and by
act dated July 1, 1894, proclaim the republic of Hawaii as the sovereign authority over and throughout the Hawaiian islands from this time forth. And I declare the constitution framed and adopted by the constitutional convention of 1894 to be the constitution and the supreme law of the republic of Hawaii;
and by virtue of this constitution, I now
assume the office and authority of president thereof. Long live the republic."
I. W. Kalua, one of the leading native annexationists, next read the proclamation in the Hawaiian language. Both were greeted with cheers and the ceremony was over. There was no military display whatever. The men on the Philadelphia were not landed, the government thinking it best not to give its enemies the chance to charge that the change was made while United States troops were present to intimidate the Royalists. Not the slightest demonstration was attempted by the supporters of
the ex-queen.

A few evenings before July 4, the Royalists had a mass meeting at which about 200 were present and passed resolutions protesting against the forming
of the republic, claiming that President Cleveland had not yet answered the petition sent by Liliuokalani to be restored to the throne. Copies of this resolution were sent to the representatives of foreign governments with the request that they should not recognize
the republic.

It had no effect in that way, however,
as all these representatives have recognized it with the exception of Minister Wadsworth, the English minister resident, who simply declined to inform his government of the change. On the evening of July 4 the annexationists held a big meeting for the purpose of ratifying the new constitution. It was a most enthusiastic meeting.

The Fourth was celebrated in true
American style, the double holiday making it peculiarly a day for the Americans. Captain of the Marines
Cochrane, of the Philadelphia, delivered the oration. He showed himself an annexationist, opening his speech by saying that he hoped soon to be able to call those present fellow citizens. Throughout his oration he lauded the provisional government and its supporters.

Admiral Walker and his staff were present and the admiral evidently enjoyed the speech of Capt. Cochrane.
He was also at the executive building at
the time of the promulgation, though not officially. The republic having been launched, Minister Thurston will probably return to Washington soon. He was not present on July 4 having gone
to the volcano. One of the Royalist papers, the Holomani, which has been a rival supporter of the ex-queen, has changed its policy and is advising all Royalists to take the oath of allegiance
to the republic and acknowledge that
the cause of the ex-queen is dead.

A Royalist commission, consisting of Samuel Parker, H. A. Wideman, and John A. Cummins, leaves for Washington on the Rio Janeiro this afternoon. It is their intention to go to Washington at once and try to obtain an interview with
the president with the idea of forcing
him to give them an answer as to what
he intends to do in the Hawaiian matter.
Their expenses have been paid by prominent Royalists here and they carry a secretary with them. Parker and Cummins are half-Hawaiians, but Wideman
is a German. The Royalists here have great hopes of the commission's success.

French Anti-Anarchist Bill.
PARIS, July 21.—The chamber of deputies has adopted the second clause
of the anti-anarchist bill, providing that
anarchists shall be before a correctional tribunal, composed of judges instead of being tried by juries. The vote was 330 for and 176 against it.

Fatally Burned.
LYNN, Mass., July 21.—By an explosion of gas in the Strout building, a 6-story structure, at the Strout, owner of the building, and Officer Arthur Wells were so badly burned that they will probably die and three others were severely injured. The damage to the building will amount to $50,000.

INSPECTOR OF IMMIGRANTS.

The Stone Bill, Which Changes the System,
Passed the House.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The congressional authorities on immigration laws
are much exercised over the passage of Representative William A. Stone's immigration bill in the house yesterday
while most of the members were watching the exciting scenes in the senate.

The Stone bill is far-reaching in its effect upon the system of inspecting immigrants, as the entire inspection is
transferred to foreign ports and placed in the hands of United States consuls instead of waiting for inspection at New York and other ports when the immigrant arrives in this country.

"I expect to see the bill taken up by
the senate at an early day and passed,"
said Mr. Stone, "and already several senators who recognize the evils of immigration have signified their purpose of urging it to a speedy passage."

The present immigration system has proved a failure. Immigrants keep coming without reference to the restrictions.
Such a change would necessitate the immigrant to furnish all the information on which he is to be received or rejected.

Mr. Stone was asked if the removal of the system to foreign ports would not necessitate a large force of inspectors, or else give United States consuls additional work entailing them to additional pay.

"No," said he, "efforts have been made to so change the bill as to let the treasury department appoint the foreign inspectors. But as the bill stands the United States consuls, who are not overburdened with work, will have charge of the inspection."

It is understood that Senators Davis, Chandler and Quay will particularly interest themselves in the Stone bill, with
a view to its early adoption.

A Curious Case of Disappearance Reported
from New York.

NEW YORK, July 21.—William A.
Wickes has lost his wife, pretty and only 24 years old; flaxen-haired blonde, 2½
years old; "Billy," 3½ years old, and an 8-months-old child and the nurse, Sarah.
The last heard of the mother, her
babies and the nurse girl, was on July 1,
when they landed on Ellis island from Liverpool on the steamship Teutonic.
Her husband preceded her to this country by a few months. It appears that he did not inform her of his address in America and when she landed she did not know which way to go in search of
him. The wife had not been heard of since coming to America. The Ellis island people thought that she did not care to rejoin him, as she expressed no
anxiety as to his whereabouts.

Mothers, babies and nurse were therefore detained for a day, while the authorities investigated. Nothing about the wife was ascertained. She showed by papers and a bank book that she was in receipt of an income, and she displayed $550 in gold, in response to the query if she possessed ready funds.

The husband, who is nearly crazy over
the matter, has been searching, in likely
and unlikely places for his wife and babies, but his search has been fruitless thus far.

Lycium vs. Temple.
The Lycium and Temple hall clubs
will meet on the baseball diamond at Twenty-eighth avenue west and Superior street tomorrow afternoon and proceed to battle for the supremacy. Nearly all the theatrical mechanics in the city are expected to be there. The sizable betting being done among them.
The Temple battery will be Laundry and Kritz, while Ward and Lynn will officiate for the Lycium.

CAUCUS LIKELY.

One of the Conservative Senators Says a Caucus Will Probably Be Held Monday Morning.

Plan on Foot for Repeal of the Present
Sugar Bounty By an Independent
Measure.

This Will Be Done if the Differential Is Wiped Out and the Bill
Defeated.

Resolution for Constitutional Amendment to Elect Senators By Popular Vote
Passed the House.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—There were
no signs of yesterday's storm about the senate wing of the capitol today. Senators who put in an appearance at all
went about their business as though
nothing unusual had occurred, and all
professed as much ignorance as to the
probable outcome of the entanglement as
the veriest outsider. There is still great uncertainty in the minds of senators, not
only as to the ultimate outcome but as to
the probable proceedings in the immediate future.

There are also differences of opinion
as to whether a Democratic caucus will
be called for the purpose of trying to reach an understanding. There is no doubt that the conservative leaders have been discussing the advisability of such a caucus. They have been together in groups of two, three and four, and a great deal of the time since the adjourning of the senate last night, but they are all backward as to the tenor of their talk among themselves, or as to their plans for the future.

Senators Murphy and Smith came to the capitol together, and Senators Gorman and Brice were closeted together in the appropriation committee room for some time. One of the so-called conservative senators said today that he thought it probable a caucus would be held Monday morning.

It is stated that there is a plan on foot
for the repeal of the present sugar bounty by an independent measure, in the case of the differential duty on refined sugar should be stricken out of the tariff bill
and the tariff bill then defeated in consequence of this action.

There was a very slim attendance of
members when the speaker called the house to order today. Mr. Powers demanded the regular order, which was a resolution proposing an amendment to
the constitution providing that senators shall be elected by a direct vote of the people. Although a two-third vote is required for measures amending the constitution, the pending resolution was passed 137 to 40—thirteen votes to spare. The announcement of the result was received with Democratic applause.

The house disagreed to the senate amendments on the Indian appropriation bill and Messrs. Holman, Allen and Wilson (Wash.) were appointed committees.

Pension Attorneys Disbarred.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The disbar-
ment of six pension attorneys from practice before the interior department for violations of the pension laws was ordered today by Secretary Hoke Smith.
They are: William H. Kerr, Saltineville, Ohio; Samuel M. Cook, Travelers Rest,
Ky.; J. S. Armstrong, Xenia, Ohio; A. F.
Perry, Vicksburg, Miss.; Thomas Caldwell, Chicago, Kan.; and B. F. Brown, Pittsburg, Pa. The main charge is acceptance of illegal fees from claimants.

Witt Was Murdered.

BRISTOL, Tenn., July 21.—For a month
past the whereabouts of John Witt, of
this city, has been a mystery which has
been expected to be solved by the discovery of murder. This theory has proven true, the body of Witt having been found in a cave near Chilhowee, Tenn. The abdomen had been cut open
and the cavity filled with stones.

Heavy Loss by Fire.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 21.—At 1 o'clock this morning fire broke out in Stover's furniture store, corner First and Twenty-second streets, and consumed the celebrated Caldwell ware, the finest structure of the kind in the South. The loss is $700,000; insurance $350,000.

Shot Into a Crowd.

CINCINNATI, July 21.—Deputy United States Marshal Schlesinger, who is assigned to the Cincinnati, Hamilton &
Dayton yards, fired three shots into a crowd that was stoning him today. The mob fled, but gathering courage returned
and surrounded the officer. The appearance of two policemen drove them
away again and Schlesinger escaped.

A Rumor of War.

LONDON, July 21.—A dispatch received
here this afternoon from Shanghai says
that a rumor is in circulation there that war has been declared between China
and Japan.

Got a Warning.

Porter Fleming and Henry Strupe, two small boys, while playing in a row boat
on the bay side of Park Point yesterday
morning, were dumped into the water
by the capsizing of their frail craft.
They were rescued by Louis Provencher
who rowed out and brought them to shore, thoroughly scared but otherwise
unhurt.

Control Remains Here.

G. G. Hartley said to The Herald reporter today that the report of the sale of
a majority of the street railway stock to Eastern parties was incorrect. The majority of the stock and the control of the company's affairs remains in Duluth and
ment.

MAI SEIP WAS A WITNESS.

Another Inquiry Into Sugar Speculation by Senators.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The senate
sugar investigating committee resumed
its work today in the old-time manner.
Only Senators Gray, Lindsay and Davis,
of the committee, were present, but they
had several witnesses before them and
announced a determination to proceed
possibility of securing witnesses who
would furnish any testimony.

The most important witness of the day was Henry Rood, the New York Herald reporter who wrote the articles
in that paper upon which the present
branch of the inquiry is based. Mr.
Rood was examined at length as to the
sources of his information, and especial
effort was made by the members to get the best information at Mr. Rood's command as to his statements that United States senators had been speculating in
sugar stocks since the tariff bill was
taken up in the senate, despite their denials. It is understood that Mr. Rood responded to this request as fully as he
was able to do and professed a willingness to aid the committee to the extent
of his ability.

Other witnesses of the day were W. B.
Wheeler, a New York broker, and A. N.
Seip, of this city. Mr. Wheeler stated
to the committee that he had never
placed any orders for senators for sugar
stock and was unable to give any information.

Mr. Seip has been represented in the newspapers as saying that he had come
into possession of knowledge of the fact
that a certain senator had placed orders
for sugar stocks during the spring and
to have stated that it was placed with a man then representing the firm of Seymour, Young & Co., New York brokers.

WON BY THE VIGILANT.

The American Yacht Defeated the Britannia
Today, Altogether There Was Hardly Any Breeze Blowing.

KINGSTOWN, Dublin Bay, July 21.—The
this was the Vigilant's day to win
against the oft-times victorious Britannia,
and she did it under conditions that have
heretofore been considered unfavorable
to her. She finished the 50-mile cruise 3 m 49 s ahead, not reckoning time allowance which will reduce it about 1 m 1 s.

The prize competed for was $300
offered by the Royal St. George Yacht club and the course was the same as
that sailed yesterday. A light breeze
was blowing at the start; it did not increase to any appreciable extent during
the continuance of the race, but at times
died away so that the yachts could make
no headway.

The Vigilant crossed the starting line 34 seconds ahead. At the conclusion of the first round of the course, which is nearly quadrangular, she was 4 m 22 sec
in the lead, but in the second round the Britannia had reduced the advantage to 1 m 17 sec. This was as close as the yachts were at any time during the
race, which was finished by the
winning boat at 6 h 45 m 04 sec, the Britannia coming up at 6 h 48 m 42 sec.

SPRUNG A LEAK.

Iron Cliff Had to Be Returned to Port This Morning.

The steamer Iron Cliff left last night
at 9:30 o'clock with the schooner Iron Cliff in tow. About thirty-five miles
down the lake it was discovered that the
schooner was leaking badly, taking in
about six inches of water an hour. The boats put back to Duluth, arriving here
this morning. The Cliff lay unloaded
only about three days, and as she lay
three months in Buffalo without starting a leak, it seems rather a short time
in which to warp her timbers, but that is
the only known reason for the leak.
She cannot be docked here without
lighting, as she is drawing over 15 feet,
so a steam pump will probably be put in
until she can be docked. The location of the leak is not yet known.

The Republican Convention to Nominate a Senator and Three Representatives
Held This Afternoon.

Charles F. Johnson Was Chosen as a Temporary Chairman and J. H. Nordby was
the Temporary Secretary.

George R. Laybourn Elected Permanent
Chairman While Charles W. Hoyt Was Made the Permanent Secretary.

The Republican legislative convention
did not draw such a crowd of interested
spectators as did the county convention
a couple of weeks ago. When Chairman Cant, of the legislative committee,
called the delegates to order at 2:20
o'clock, there were not over 100 present
outside of those entitled to seats and the
council chamber was not half filled.

After the call was read C. F. Johnson was nominated by R. C. McKinley as temporary chairman. He was chosen unanimously. J. H. Nordby was chosen
temporary secretary without opposition.

O. W. Baldwin moved the appointment of a committee of three on credentials and permanent organization but did not get on the committee just the same.
J. C. Colver, J. D. Myers and R. C. Mc-
Kinley were named.

W. A. Cant moved the appointment of a committee on resolutions and W. A.
Cant, O. W. Baldwin and W. A. Getty
were chosen.

E. D. Baker, Fred Davis and C. W.
Hoyt were appointed as a committee on
order of business.

A recess was then taken until the reports could be received.

The report of the committee on credentials was received and adopted. C. F.
Johnson represented Cook county and
W. A. Duerr and George Scott were the delegates from Lake county. The same
committee recommended G. R. Laybourn
for permanent chairman and Charles W.
Hoyt for secretary. This was adopted.

The committee on order of business
recommended the following order of business: First, consideration of report of
committee on resolutions; second, nomination of candidate for the senate; third,
nomination of three candidates for the
house of representatives, each one separately. Nominations to be made before voting and selections to be made by ballot. The order was adopted.

MR. BUCKMAN HERE.

Says He Will Do All He Can to Help C. A.
Towns.

Hon. C. B. Buckman, of Little Falls,
who was prominently mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination
for congress from this district, arrived in the city this morning. When questioned
as to the situation he said:

"My name was never mentioned with
my consent and as soon as I was approached I declined absolutely. I had no desire to run and if I had my private business would compel me to keep out of it. Personally I am for Mr.
Towns and shall do all I can to aid him
in securing the nomination and election.
I believe him to be a good clean man
and as to his ability there can be no question. Morrison county will send a Towns delegation to Brainerd and Benton will also. I think Stearns will fall in line. I don't think I can do
there will be any other candidate. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Barto has been
mentioned but I am quite positive he will not run. Duluth ought to have it.
The other counties recognizing this determined to support whoever you decided upon if he was a good man. I think Mr. Towns is in every way an acceptable candidate."

THE SCHOOL ELECTION.

It Is Hard to Have Much of Any Idea as to How It Is Going.

IT TAKES THE CREAM.

The Clever Plan Devised By the Southern Pacific Railway to Benefit the Sunset Route.

Freight Business Diverted to That Line to the Exclusion of the Central Pacific Road.

Huntington, Crocker and Their Friends Get the Benefit at the Expense of the Government.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The Examiner this morning says: "The sensation in local railroad circles is the discussion of what was considered a plan devised by the Southern Pacific railroad to skim off the cream of the freight business for the Sunset route, in which Huntington, Crocker et al are interested, to the exclusion of the Central Pacific line, in which the government of the United States and divers stockholders and bondholders are interested."

Although the Central Pacific line has been open for passenger traffic for several days, business men have been notified that no freight could be sent over that road further than Sacramento. The result has been that all merchandise accepted for trans-continental transportation has been subject to the proviso that it shall go by the way of the Sunset route, through Mojave, El Paso and New Orleans.

"The object of the managers, in this characteristic piece of business, is easily comprehended," said a railroad agent yesterday. "The Southern Pacific owns the through line from this city to New Orleans, on which it gets all the money that is paid for freights from San Francisco to New Orleans. It is quite a different thing when the Central Pacific line is considered, for then the Southern Pacific managers at best are only interested in the travel to Ogden, so the government-subsidized line is given the 'go-by' for the benefit of the Sunset route. It is to the interest of the Southern Pacific managers to have freight sent via the New Orleans line, and for that reason the Southern route was thrown open first."

"As a general rule business men of San Francisco dislike to have products transported by the Sunset route on account of the excessive heats of the deserts through which the road runs. It is therefore difficult, under normal conditions to turn shipments that way, but a great many merchants became weary on account of the long strike, and as soon as they saw an opening they started their merchandise eastward, preferring to take chances of damages by heat rather than to wait indefinitely for the Central route to open. It is known that New York shipments were sent by the way of New Orleans because the Southern Pacific company said it did not know when the Ogden route would be open."

"The business men of San Francisco are not the only sufferers by this bit of sharp practice. It cuts out from participation in the freight business of California all the lines having western connections at Ogden, and their agents are not slow to express forcible language on the subject. The roads most affected are the Union Pacific, Denver & Rio Grande, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Burlington route, the Chicago & Northwestern and the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific. As all these roads are in good running order, they feel the injustice that is done them by diverting the business that would naturally go their way, to the comparatively insignificant Sunset route for which the managers of the Southern Pacific are doing so much."

Murdered in Glasgow.
GLASGOW, July 21.—Sinnamoon, whose address is given as No. 102 East Second street, New York city, was found murdered in an alley of this city last night. Twelve men were arrested and are held on suspicion of having been connected with the affair.

A Bankrupt Viscount.
LONDON, July 21.—Viscount Hill has been declared bankrupt. Liabilities, $250,000. Assets, unknown yet.

Right Arm Paralyzed!
Saved from St. Vitus Dance.
"Our daughter, Blanche, now fifteen years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. We feared St. Vitus dance, and tried the best physicians, with no benefit. She has taken three bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure and has gained 31 pounds. Her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid."

Wants "a Truce of God."
ROME, July 21.—Closing a general debate in the senate yesterday, Premier Crispien appealed to the members to grant a "truce of God" to enable the government to reorganize its finances. In making this appeal the premier spoke most earnestly and called the attention of the senate to his own act of self-abnegation in placing confidence in a time of unparalleled trouble.

Is Not Approved.
LONDON, July 21.—The Daily News correspondent at Berlin says the proposal that the emperor annex Samoa to Germany does not meet with sympathy. The Vossische Zeitung opposes the idea on the ground that it would entail prolonged hostilities and expenses.

What do you take medicine for? Because you are sick and want to get well, of course. Then remember, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

THREATS MADE BY CRANKS.

The Tariff Conference Are in Receipt of Threatening Letters.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The conferees on the tariff bill are not only required to meet discussions in their own ranks, but it appears are also compelled to receive threats of personal violence from persons on the outside. These threats have so far all come by mail, and are generally anonymous. Senator Jones says that he has received at least a dozen letters of this character, of which the following is a fair specimen:

"NEW YORK, July 9.—To the congressional committee on tariff bill: If you pass the bill with the income tax don't forget to order your coffins; you will need them—all of you—as sure as you live in Washington. (Signed.) A Democrat. So help you God."

Most of the letters bear evidence on their face of the illiteracy of their authors, and indicate very plainly that they are irresponsible cranks. The members of the committee pay no attention to these letters as a rule and generally consign them to the waste basket.

SPIRIT LAKE AND VICINITY.
The Misses Blanche and Mate Maxwell were visiting Miss Tawnette Dash several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Amundson and family rowed to West Superior and spent the day visiting friends last Sunday.

The Sunday school supplies have come and the Sunday school will be held at the usual hour tomorrow. Rev. Hackett will hold religious services in the school house next Wednesday evening.

A party of picnickers consisting of Mrs. M. Amundson and children, Mrs. A. Iwenson and Mr. and Mrs. N. Nelson will spend the day at Lester Park today.

SAYS POPULISTS WILL WIN.
"Gen. Coxey Says That Minnesota is as Good as Carried."

NEW YORK, July 21.—J. S. Coxey arrived yesterday to take part in the proceedings at Ridgewood Park Populist meeting today.

"I have been through the West and Northwest," he said. "The Populists will win the West and Northwest next November. Minnesota is as good as carried and the strike helps us. The labor trouble on the top of the labor depression, was all that was needed for our success."

"How about your army of the Commonwealth, general; has that collapsed?"

"Oh, no, a few days ago 250 crossed from Duluth to Buffalo, bound for Washington under Jeffries."

The Knights of Labor.
CHICAGO, July 21.—J. W. Hayes, of the executive board of the Knights of Labor, arrived in the city today and joined the five other members of the board, Messrs. Sovereign, Kenney, McGuire, French and Martin at the Sherman house. The board went into session at the hotel at 10 a. m. The meeting was called originally for Omaha and the board will leave for that city tomorrow after some business pertaining to the labor troubles in Chicago has been disposed of.

ANGLERS OF DULUTH

The Appointment of a Deputy Game Warden For This Section Is Received With Pleasure.

The Best Sportsmen Will Support Him if He Does His Work Without Any Discrimination.

Duluth Well Represented at Deerwood and Large Crowds Are Going Weekly to Isle Royale.

Sam Fullerton has been appointed deputy game warden for this part of the state. There is plenty of work for him to do and it is hoped he will attend to it. Deer and partridges are being destroyed in a way that can have only one result—the complete extermination of the species. We have received by mail this week reliable information that in the district around Pike lake, Swan lake, Caribou lake and other places the game laws are being wholly disregarded by persons who go there to fish and carry guns with them and shoot everything in the shape of game they run across. The game laws have never been properly enforced in this district and it is time they should be.

The five year close season on moose and caribou has had even a greater effect than the most sanguine hoped for. Moose and caribou are increasing in number and are straying back to their old haunts. Three were met on a Missabe track and one was killed by an engine within sight of the city. The game warden is hoping to make a responsible piece of work to do in protecting the game and running down violators of the laws and the best sportsmen are back of him if he will do his work without fear or favor.

Duluth is well represented at Deerwood this week. Society people as well as those who go there to fish are enjoying the delights of this charming retreat. The campers are living on strawberries and garden truck which the farmers supply fresh from their gardens.

Special "licenses" have been received this week by a large number of fish story tellers. The said licenses entitle the holder to full membership in the "Association of Recreators and Independent Order of Previcators" with the privilege of telling fish lies until Dec. 31.

The Park hotel at Pike lake, Canosa postoffice, is ably supported. Some time ago Moose and caribou are increasing in number and are straying back to their old haunts. Three were met on a Missabe track and one was killed by an engine within sight of the city. The game warden is hoping to make a responsible piece of work to do in protecting the game and running down violators of the laws and the best sportsmen are back of him if he will do his work without fear or favor.

Manager Weiss, of The Herald, says he has had fish on the table. Some time ago Moose and caribou are increasing in number and are straying back to their old haunts. Three were met on a Missabe track and one was killed by an engine within sight of the city. The game warden is hoping to make a responsible piece of work to do in protecting the game and running down violators of the laws and the best sportsmen are back of him if he will do his work without fear or favor.

TO RESTRICT IMMIGRATION.

Bill to Impose a Tax of One Hundred Dollars on Each Alien.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Representative Melklejohn, speaking in regard to his bill providing for a tax of $100 on each alien immigrant, said today:

"When the population of this nation increased by more than 50,000 of foreign immigrants annually, the limitation of foreign immigration has become a question of national importance. We have developed our natural resources and sustained the standard of American wages through the levying of duty on manufacturers of foreign labor."

"Wages are subject to the law of supply and demand, and wage earners are as much interested in preserving our field of labor for the American wage worker as the protection of the products of his labor from the competition of the foreign manufacturer. The policy of placing a tax on importations of the product of foreign workmen at a rate sufficient to equalize the difference between our domestic and foreign cost of labor has established an incomparable scale of wages in this nation for our wage-earners and which in my judgment can only be maintained by extending to all other alien immigrants."

"The bill which I have proposed exempts all relatives of any American citizen or of any person who has declared his intention to become such, who may desire to immigrate to the United States while a duty of $100 per capita is levied upon all other alien immigrants."

"Every citizen, whether native or foreign born, is alike interested in keeping down the price of the class of immigration which this measure would prohibit."

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER.
A Case Where the Plea of Self Defense Was Ineffective.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 21.—"Guilty, with a recommendation to mercy," was the verdict reached after a trial lasting four days, in the case of Hugh Lynn, charged with the murder of John Green and Thomas Taylor, ranchers, living on Savary island. The array of evidence was vast and complete.

Lynn stood the stand on his own behalf and admitted killing Green, but claimed defense. His story was that in a drunken row Green had shot Taylor and attempted to shoot Lynn, who fired in return.

Lynn admitted robbing the house and store and arranging the guns in the hands of the dead men to make it appear that they had killed each other. The execution is set for Aug. 24.

Knowledge.
Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of their bodies, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form of a pleasant and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

SUMMER IS THE TIME

To Treat Catarrh.

The Climatic Conditions Are Now Most Favorable, and Liability to Taking Cold is Reduced to the Minimum.

Now is the time. Those who suffer from catarrh should take advantage of all the influences that operate now in favor of a cure. They should not put off treatment until next winter's stormy days, but should prudently "mend their roof while the sun shines." Now is the time, and the opportunity is just what is desired for the worst cases. Do not let it go by, but place yourself under treatment at once at the Copeland Medical Institute in the Lyceum building, and have done for you in the next few months what might not be possible the next summer.

Throat and Bronchial Troubles.
John White, a resident of Onondaga, relates the following in regard to his experience with the Copeland physicians:

"I have been taking a short course of treatment at the Copeland Medical Institute in the Lyceum building, for a bad throat and bronchial trouble from which I had suffered for some time. I will say that I found the treatment exactly what I needed and that it soon brought me relief."

"In other words, speaking from my own personal experience, I regard the Copeland system of chronic disease treatment well worthy of the warm praise bestowed on it by all persons who give it a fair trial. And as it is not very expensive, it is easy to imagine the amount of good it is doing in the community."

"The particular malady from which I suffered was catarrh of the throat and bronchial tubes. There was an incessant cough and spitting mucous that came from the throat and bronchial tubes. I could not sleep because of the nightly attacks of coughing. The first treatment the doctor gave me eased my throat and chest and I kept on improving till now I feel perfectly well."

"I have been taking a short course of treatment at the Copeland Medical Institute in the Lyceum building, for a bad throat and bronchial trouble from which I had suffered for some time. I will say that I found the treatment exactly what I needed and that it soon brought me relief."

"In other words, speaking from my own personal experience, I regard the Copeland system of chronic disease treatment well worthy of the warm praise bestowed on it by all persons who give it a fair trial. And as it is not very expensive, it is easy to imagine the amount of good it is doing in the community."

"The particular malady from which I suffered was catarrh of the throat and bronchial tubes. There was an incessant cough and spitting mucous that came from the throat and bronchial tubes. I could not sleep because of the nightly attacks of coughing. The first treatment the doctor gave me eased my throat and chest and I kept on improving till now I feel perfectly well."

The Weather.
U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, DULUTH, MINN., July 21.—The area of low pressure which was central yesterday morning north of Montana has moved slowly eastward, increasing in magnitude. The "high" has advanced eastward toward Wisconsin.

Showers have occurred in the northern portion of the lake region, the Ohio and Middle Mississippi valleys, Tennessee and North Dakota. Heavy rainfalls are reported on the lower lakes.

The weather continues cloudy in the Upper Ohio valley and lower lake region. In the Ohio valley, the clouds are gradually clearing and a slight drizzle is falling. In the Middle Ohio valley and lower lake region, the clouds are gradually clearing and a slight drizzle is falling. In the Middle Ohio valley and lower lake region, the clouds are gradually clearing and a slight drizzle is falling.

Tennessee, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, and the conditions are favorable for rain today in Tennessee, Kentucky and North Virginia. Western Pennsylvania and Western New York, and rain today and tonight in the Middle Atlantic and New England, coming continuing in New England during Sunday; in all other states fair, and pleasant weather in probable today and Sunday.

The temperature has fallen in all states throughout the Mississippi valley and eastward, with a full rainfall in the Northwestern states and Ohio valley. Middle Mississippi valley and lake region: Rising temperature is probable today and tomorrow in the Northwestern states and tomorrow throughout the Mississippi valley.
On the lakes fresh northwesterly winds will continue during the next twenty-four to thirty-six hours on Erie, Ontario, and Lake Michigan, with fair and clear weather, clearing before morning, decreasing northerly winds on Superior and Michigan, becoming southerly by Sunday.

Women and Children Work.

An interesting article has been published by Carroll D. Wright, the federal labor commissioner, in which he discusses the presence of women and children in the mechanical industries in this country, and the effect which it has upon the tenure as well as the wages of men.
The total number of persons, men, women and children, engaged in the mechanical and manufacturing industries of the country in 1890 was 4,711,821, as against 2,732,595 in 1880, 2,553,956 in 1870 and 1,311,246 in 1860. Reduced to percentages these persons constituted in 1860 4.17 per cent of the whole population of the country, in 1870 5.33 per cent, in 1880 5.45 per cent and in 1890 7.52 per cent. In 1860, taking females above 15 years of age, there were employed in the mechanical industries of the country 270,897, being 36 of 1 per cent of the total population; in 1870 the number was 323,770, being 34 per cent of the whole population; in 1880 the number had risen rapidly to 531,639 or 1.66 per cent of the total population, while in 1890 the number had grown to 815,428, or 1.35 per cent of the whole population. The proportion of the total population was practically the same at the censuses of 1860 and 1870, but increased largely before 1880, and to a still higher point in 1890, as shown.

In order to determine whether the employment of women is a menace to the position and wages of men, or not, it is necessary to discover the relation which the children, or persons under 15 years of age, bear to the whole. No figures on this point are given in the census of 1860, but it is found that in 1870, the number under 15 years of age of both sexes was 114,628, or .30 per cent of the total population; in 1880 it was 151,021, or .36 per cent, being a slight increase relatively, while in 1890 the actual number had fallen to 121,194, being only .19 per cent of the total population. This is an exceedingly gratifying showing and proves conclusively that not only is the number of children employed decreasing, but that the relative proportion of the total population shows a still greater decrease.

A more instructive comparison, however, is to be found in discussing the proportion of the total number of employees engaged in manufacturing industries. This comparison shows that in 1860 20.66 per cent of all the persons employed in manufacturing industries were females above 15 years of age; in 1870 they constituted 15.76 per cent of the total number employed; in 1880 they were 19.15 per cent and in 1890 they were 17.91 per cent. The relation, therefore, to the total number employed was quite stationary at the last three federal censuses, and was only about 2 per cent in 1870 over what it was in 1870, and nearly 3 per cent relatively less than in 1860. The women are, therefore, Mr.
Wright shows, not crowding upon the men in mechanical industries.

The proportion of children has fallen very rapidly. It was not given in 1860, but in 1870 the persons under 15 years of age were 5.58 per cent of the total number of employees in manufacturing industries; in 1880 there were 6.65 per cent, while in 1890 there were only 2.57 per cent of the whole. There can be no other conclusion than that the children are disappearing from our great mechanical and manufacturing industries. This is the result of two causes—first, public sentiment and general opportunities for educational work, and second, the law which in many of the older states, or in those more largely interested in mechanical industries, prohibits the employment of children under 10 years of age.

The facts as to numbers having been given, it may be well to see what proportion of the total wages paid in the country falls to women and children.
From recent calculations Mr. Wright is able to state that the wages of males constitute 87.73 per cent of the total wages paid in 1890, while the wages which went to females over 15 years of age was only 11.39 per cent of the total amount, the children receiving but .88 per cent of the whole. These percentages, taken in comparison with the percentages as to the number employed, are quite instructive, while somewhat disappointing; as, for instance, in 1890 the females above 15 years of age constituted 17.91 per cent of the total number of persons employed in manufactures, yet they received but 11.39 per cent of the total wages paid out. The children constituted 2.57 per cent of the total number of persons employed, yet received but
.88 per cent of the whole wages paid.

Looking at the classification of wages, it is found that 70.53 per cent of the total number of males received $3 and over per week, while 70.63 per cent of the total number of females over 15 years of age received less than $3 per week, and a little over 38 per cent over the whole number of females employed received less than $5 per week for their services. Nearly all the children, that is, those persons under 15 years of age, employed in manufacturing establishments received $5 per week or less.

"This," concludes Mr. Wright's interesting article, "is not the place, of course, to discuss the reasons why women receive less than men, but the facts certainly indicate that the women, instead of crowding upon the men to the extent as is generally supposed, are rapidly taking the places of boys and girls and doing the work which they formerly did in our factories. The constantly increasing proportion of men indicates this, but supplemented by the constantly decreasing proportion of children, the foregoing statements, the inquiry may be made, what proportion of the females above 15 years of age are married? There are no very general statistics on this subject; but so far as investigation shows it may be estimated with a fair degree of accuracy that about 10 per cent of the women employed in the manufacturing industries of the country are married."

Mr. Wright's figures, which are taken from official sources and are almost absolutely correct—certainly more nearly correct than statistics obtained elsewhere—will be apt to upset some preconceived ideas upon the effect which the employment of women in the mechanical industries has in lessening the positions open to men and in decreasing the wages of men. The statistics which he presents would indicate that this effect has been greatly exaggerated and is,
in fact, very small.

Premiums for Speed.

While the whole country is proud of the swiftness of the new cruiser Minneapolis and is equally proud of the fact that the fastest war vessel afloat is the product of American workmanship, there is at the same time a widespread objection to the large sum paid as bounty for greater speed than the contract called for.
The bonus earned by the builders of the Minneapolis amounts to the very large sum of $414,650.

A recent calculation shows that up to date seven vessels in Uncle Sam's navy have earned premiums amounting altogether to $2,264,585, of which about $1,000,000 has gone to the Cramps.
Then contract vessels remain to be built; but the conditions of their contracts only give two of them a chance to carry off the laurels of the Minneapolis as a premium winner. One of the ten is the torpedo boat, Ericsson, which will probably take the place of the Minneapolis as the fastest craft in the navy, since her contract calls for 24 knots in a two hours' run, but she only gets $2500 per quarter of excess up to 25 knots, and $3500 per quarter beyond that point.

Whether the payment of premiums for greater speed than called for by the contract should be continued is a question upon which there is a wide difference of opinion. It would appear to be the better plan to name a high rate of speed in the specifications and let the builders figure upon that basis in making their bids. Then the actual cost of a war vessel would be represented by the contract price. The premiums already paid would be sufficient to build one or two first-class war vessels.

Clifton R. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, a new minister to Russia, was defeated a few days ago for reappointment to congress because he stood by the administration, the convention in which he was defeated passing resolutions which denounced the president's policy as undemocratic and unwise and adverse to the best interests of the people. His appointment is therefore a reward by the president for his staunch support of the administration. It is expected that Chairman Wilson will also be taken care of, as his defeat in his district seems certain.

Duluth's bank clearings during the past week reached a total 43.2 per cent greater than the total for the corresponding period of last year. This is a very large increase and speaks volumes for the rapid manner in which Duluth has recovered from the business depression, as compared with a year ago. It is especially noteworthy, because nearly every other city in the Northwest shows a decrease. The clearings at Minneapolis decreased 9.6 per cent, while St. Paul shows a falling off of 3 per cent, and Milwaukee a decrease of 15.5 per cent.

The Detroit, Mich., News, referring to Mr. Towne's candidacy for congress in this district, says he was "formerly a well known lawyer of Lansing," and then tells this story: "Towne was one of the brightest political speakers the capital city ever knew. A well known ex-state official tells how Towne once earned a fee of $25 in fifteen minutes by dashing off a speech for a Sixth district politician who is now howling for Mayor Plueger, to deliver in a state convention.
The speech took the convention by storm, and the Sixth district politician was receiving compliments for a year afterwards for his effort."

The deadly ice cream freezer continues to get in its work. At West Union, Ill., a few days ago ice cream was served at a gathering, and as a result one woman is dead, three persons are dangerously ill and fifty-two were made sick. Of course the poison was in the freezer before the cream was made. All freezers should be thoroughly scalded before and after using in order to prevent the accumulation of poisonous matter, and in such cases as that, reported from West
Union are the result of gross carelessness.

Governor Nelson was interviewed by a Minneapolis reporter yesterday on the report that he will be a candidate for United States senator to succeed Mr.
Washburn, and when the interview ended the reporter was unable to tell whether the governor had denied or affirmed the report. When he pleases, Governor Nelson can talk around a direct question with greater ease than any other man in the state.

The Philadelphia Times suggests the following ticket for 1896: "For president, Cushman K. Davis, of Minnesota; for vice president, John B. Gordon, of Georgia. Such a ticket would be its own platform; it would mean that law and order must prevail in every section of the country; that the rights of all, rich and poor, high and low, must be protected with the utmost impartiality by the government."

State Superintendent Wells, of Wisconsin, says of the theories set forth in the books of Professor Ely, of the university of Wisconsin: "Their general acceptance would furnish a seeming moral justification of attacks upon life and property which as the country has already become too familiar with." The question naturally arises whether the author of such works is a safe instructor of youth?

The "S. R. O." sign in New York theaters is doomed to extinction. The courts have decided that the new law passed in the Empire state means that all persons must obtain seats at theatrical performances, and therefore admission tickets are not to be sold. However, it will not make a serious difference with the theaters in these hard times.

If Dr. Forbes should become the Populist candidate for congress in this district the campaign would not lack liveliness. The doctor would be a great man on the stump.
